Teaching With Authority A Theology Of The:

Teaching with Authority Richard R. Gaillardetz, 1997 This book faithfully represents the teaching of Roman Catholicism on the Church's doctrinal authority while pointing to areas where there remains a gap between an ecclesiological vision of the Church informed by Vatican II and the popular understanding and concrete exercise of that authority in the life of the Church today

Magisterium Francis A. Sullivan SJ, 2002-09-30 A striking series of events of the past two decades have tended to raise questions about the exercise of teaching authority in the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council the Encyclical Humanae Vitae the controversy over Hans Kung's book on infallibility and the subsequent declaration of Rome that he could no longer teach as a Catholic theologian the colloquium to which Edward Schillebeeckx was summoned by the Vatican the pastoral letter of the American bishops on the question of nuclear warfare have all stimulated a lively discussion of the claims of the Catholic hierarchy to authoritative magisterium With all the abundance of literature on the subject a book was still needed that would offer an up to date systematic presentation of Catholic thinking about the nature and function of this magisterium This is what the present volume sets out to provide It takes as its point of departure the belief which a great many Christians besides Catholics share namely that the Church of Christ is maintained in the truth of the Gospel by the Holy Spirit It then examines the various ministries by which the Gospel has been handed on and interpreted for each generation of believers looking especially to the role of the bishops and among them of the Bishop of Rome in settling disputes about the faith Questions concerning papal infallibility the response called for by papal encyclicals the critical role of Catholic theologians vis a vis the magisterium are treated in the light of current theological literature with the non specialist reader in mind

By What Authority? Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2017-06-07 Authority is exercised in many ways and forms in the Catholic Church today By What Authority offers a helpful introduction to the forms of Church authority that are concerned with authentic Christian belief Gaillardetz G l r d explains what it means to say that the Bible is inspired how Scripture and tradition are related to one another the role of the Pope and bishops in preserving the Christian faith the levels of Church teaching authority how to deal with disagreements with Church teaching the distinctive role of the theologians and the contribution of all the baptized in the formation of Church teaching This book introduces readers to a basic understanding of the nature and exercise of authority in the Catholic Church as understood within the Vision of the Church offered by the Second Vatican Council The chapters conclude by outlining disputed issues regarding the topic of that chapter and a select list of opportunities for further reading Chapters in Part One The Authority of Scripture and Tradition are What Does It Mean to Say the Bible is Inspired What Is the Canon of the Bible and What Is the Relationship Between Scripture and Tradition Chapters in Part Two The Authority of Church Teaching and the Church's Teaching Office are How Do We Understand the Magisterium Today How Do the Pope and Bishops Exercise Their Teaching Authority and What Is Dogma and Doctrine Chapters in Part Three The Authority of the Believer and the Believing Community are What Is the Sense of the Faithful Is

There a Place for Disagreement in the Catholic Church and What Is the Proper Relationship Between the Magisterium and Theologians Magisterium Francis A. Boyle, 1995 Boyle presents here the first book length study that traces the historical and theological developments that produced official statements by the church about its own teaching authority and the assent owed to it especially in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By what Authority? Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2018 Few topics are as important or as controversial as the proper role and exercise of authority in the Roman Catholic Church Inspired by Pope Francis s bold rereading and determined implementation of the teaching of Vatican II Richard Gaillardetz has completely revised and expanded his book By What Authority It offers a helpful introduction to the nature and forms of church authority and their relationship to authentic Christian belief and discipleship Gaillardetz offers theologically clear and pastorally insightful considerations of the character of divine revelation the authority of Scripture and tradition the role of the pope and bishops in preserving the Christian faith the levels of church teaching authority the central faith witness of all the baptized the possibility of disagreements with church teaching and the proper relationship between theologians the magisterium and the whole people of God the authority of the believing community and the controversial questions that arise when there are conflicting interpretations of church teaching The Teaching Authority of Believers Johann Baptist Metz, Edward Schillebeeckx, 1985 Concilium has long been a household name for cutting edge critical and constructive theological thinking Past contributors include leading Catholic scholars such as Hans K ng Gregory Baum and Edward Schillebeeckx and the editors of the review belong to the international who s who in the world of contemporary theology Published five times a year each issue reflects a deep knowledge and scholarship presented in a highly readable style and each issue offers a wide variety of viewpoints from leading thinkers from all over the world By What Authority? Richard R.
