The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell

The Most Dangerous Game, written by Richard Connell in January of 1924, is a fictional short story revolving around a cat and mouse game between General Zaroff and Sanger Rainsford. Throughout the story, Sanger Rainsford is forced to use his cunning resourcefulness to survive his encounters with General Zaroff. Connell presents a dynamic story, folding the idea of survival of the fittest into a hunting game between two skilled opponents, he was able to create the most dangerous game. Rainsford is characterized as an intelligent resourceful individual who through incredible struggles survives his encounters with General Zaroff. The setting of this story is shortly after World War I on Ship-Trap Island in the Caribbean. The story has a suspenseful mood focused around continuous conflict. The main idea of this story is the idea of survival of the fittest with the underlying theme of social Darwinism (of two classes).

The plot of this story follows the hunt between General Zaroff and Sanger Rainsford. The story begins when Rainsford and his hunting crew are on a yacht, travelling through the Caribbean, towards the Amazon to go big game hunting. Rainsford mentions how the world is made up of two classes, the hunters and the huntees. He then tells his shipmate, "Luckily, you and I are the hunters" (Connell, 1924, p. 216). They pass by Ship-Trap Island, an island that some say has a bad reputation. Suddenly, Rainsford hears a pistol shot come from the distance. Trying to see, Rainsford drops his pipe into the water. In an attempt to rescue it he falls off the railing into the dark sea. Due to Rainsfords physical fitness he was able to swim to the near by island.

Once he reaches the shore he collapses from exhaustion. The next day he awakens in the late afternoon stranded on the Beach of Ship-Trap Island. He realizes if there are gunshots there are men, and if there are men there is food. Rainsford started making his way through the jungle when he came across a gigantic palatial chateau (palace). He knocks on the door and is greeted by a giant man who has a revolver pointed at him. Rainsford explains who he is and that he had just fallen off of a yacht. A military-looking Russian man calls the giant, who's name is Ivan, off of Rainsford. Rainsford is then welcomed inside and is greeted by the military man. The man says he's read a book by Rainsford about hunting. He then introduces himself as General Zaroff, a big game hunter who has hunted every known animal there is and is seeking the perfect match.

Rainsford is a dynamic character because he changes and grows throughout the story. He is also a famous big game hunter and is very resourceful, these are some of the traits that make Rainsford a challenging opponent for Zaroff. The General explains to Rainsford that the hunt has become boring. He says he no longer enjoys the hunt because it has become too easy. Zaroff needs an animal that can reason, not just act upon instinct.
