Authenticity and Authentication of Heritage Deepak Chhabra, 2021-05-27 Authenticity and Authentication of Heritage presents an assimilation of chapters that critically address some of the key emerging areas associated with authenticity It presents a variety of inspiring pieces of work that range from host guest authentication and intangible heritage to knowledge transfer processes authenticating heritage in fairy tale settings authenticity and anxiety in the smell of death and life understanding the boundaries of authenticity nostalgia sustainability marketing destination competitiveness examining affective connotations of authenticity and their contribution towards optimizing hedonic and eudaimonic well being during times of disruption The contentious concept of authenticity continues to be valorised in heritage tourism This scholarly initiative seeks to broaden the discursive parameters of authenticity and identify power mechanisms that shape the way authenticity is produced marketed and consumed This is an attempt to share contemporary views on how the contemporary notions of authenticity are derived interpreted applied processed and legitimised in local and global contexts Furthermore the significant relationship between health and authenticity is explored To put it simply this pandemic has significantly halted the way people connect with their cultural resources and seek authenticity within their inner selves and the outside realms in the heritage tourism system Heightened sense of global consciousness is a call to polish our authentic selves and elevate above inauthenticity or moral hypocrisy So is authenticity an evolving story or is it a story of floating immobility Who can tell the story and who decides what elements to fossilise How can existentialist authenticity and self authentication promote moral selfing and well being of the self and the society Many questions like these have emerged in recent literature and this book uses conceptual empirical and theoretical explorations to identify and engage with such inquiries The chapters in this book except for the concluding chapter were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Heritage Tourism

Eros and Thanatos. Love across Civilizations Alberto Castelli, 2024-02-06 Eros and Thanatos is about the deadly nature of love It is remarkable that literary critics have paid so little attention to the combination between love and death in literature This book seeks to address this significant scholarly lacuna by exploring key literary texts of the last two hundred years as exemplary of a consistent tendency toward love and death Its emphasis on singular characters and close readings suggests the spectrum of an arbitrary dichotomy never fully resolved The existential discussion triggered by each plot is so intense that the erotic and the merely sexual seem inappropriate Indeed each writer chose to reduce it to the setting and background of a story that takes place elsewhere With this in mind the author intends to reflect love's paradoxical nature. If love is triggered by beauty, beauty can be immoral and love must die to preserve the illusion of beauty.      The Cultural Heritage of Sikkim Sarit K. Chaudhuri, Sameera Maiti, Charisma K. Lepcha, 2020-03-10 Sikkim has been a region of anthropological interest since the 1930s when Geoffrey Gorer and John Morris did their fieldwork among the Lepchas of Dzongu, north Sikkim. While it was mentioned in various writings of travellers and administrators during the British period, there is a dearth of literature even today on the rich heritage of Sikkim. This collection of twenty-five essays presented first at the international conference on Cultural Heritage of Sikkim organized by the Department of Anthropology, Sikkim University, Gangtok, goes a long way in breaching this gap. The book will be of immense interest to scholars and students of Anthropology, Sociology and Cultural Studies and will lead to new research on the people and the places of Sikkim and India's North East. Please note: This title is co-published with Manohar Publishers, New Delhi. Taylor & Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka.      Conversations with Orhan Pamuk Erdağ Gökner, Pelin Kıvrak, 2024-01-18 In over thirty interviews conducted between 1982 and 2022, Conversations with Orhan Pamuk reveals a writer of intense literary and political engagement. Nobel laureate Orhan Pamuk, b. 1952, is a foremost practitioner of the global novel today. His books have been translated into over sixty languages and sold over fifteen million copies globally. The interviews in this volume open windows onto Pamuk's everyday life, craft and process, constituting an alternative literary history that provides insights into the novelist's influences, method, form and content. These conversations reveal that a Pamuk novel is predicated on methodical research at times archival and scholarly, investigative and journalistic or ethnographic. They are necessarily instructive and edifying as much as they are entertaining, providing a discursive space of literary history where writing, politics and the everyday intersect and where the politics of literature can be located.      Exhibiting Craft and Design Alla Myzelev, 2017-06-14 Exhibiting Craft and Design: Transgressing the White Cube Paradigm investigates the firmly established manner in which craft and design have typically been presented by museums and galleries, what strategies curators have employed throughout the twentieth century and especially in more recent years, how exhibiting design and craft objects challenges the notion of the modernist White Cube display paradigm.      The Materiality of Love Anna Malinowska, Michael Gratzke, 2017-09-27 Drawing on love studies and research in material cultures, this book seeks to re-examine love through materiality studies, especially their recent incarnations: new materialism and object-oriented philosophy, to spark a debate on the relationship between love objects and forms of materializing affection. It focuses on love as a material form and traces connections between feelings and materiality, especially in relation to the changing notion of the material as marked by digital culture as well as the developments in understanding the nature of non-human affect. It provides insight into how materiality in its broadest sense impacts the understanding of the meanings and practices of love today and reversely how love contributes to the production and transformation of the material world.      Memories of Distant Mountains Orhan
