

The background of the slide is a photograph of a workshop or laboratory. In the foreground, there is a large, ornate metal balance scale. To its right, there is a wooden box containing various metal objects, including what looks like a small metal container and some tools. In the background, there is a large, dark metal structure, possibly a furnace or a large scale, and a window letting in light. The overall scene suggests a historical or scientific setting related to metallurgy or currency.
