"Hours like bright sweets in a jar" Sonia Front, Alicja Bemben, 2014-10-16 The papers gathered in the present collection investigate time and temporality from a number of interdisciplinary perspectives literary or film studies postcolonial theory physics philosophy psychology urban studies history and gender studies This wide spectrum of scholarly approaches encompasses chapters dealing with the convergences of time and the human psyche time and the body time and memory time and trauma time and change time and cultural reproduction time and language time and the city and time and identity It transpires that the imaginary refigurations of time more often than not constitute resistance against the linearity of chronometric time represented by institutions capitalism government and power and attempts to colonize the human psyche In attempting to assault this hegemony of linear time literary cinematographic and cultural practice enacts exploding temporalities to reflect the multifacetedness and multidirectionality of the human experience of time Bluebeard's Castle S. Somtow,2003-07 the J D Salinger of Siam George Axelrod Oscar winning screenwriter of Breakfast at Tiffany's S P Somtow doesn't write like anybody else and when he wants to spook you he can drive the chill bone deep Dean Koontz In an exotic re telling of the fairytale of Bluebeard a New Age thirty something is swept off her feet by an enigmatic Thai millionaire and soon finds herself in Bangkok's brave new world of shamans shopping malls and high society serial killers Originally written as a cliff hanging serial for Bangkok's The Nation newspaper Bluebeard's Castle is a roller coaster novel that leapfrogs from genre to genre and culture to culture turning the western preconception of Bangkok as a city of temples and prostitutes on its ear A darkly comic odyssey populated with wild characters with intimate glimpses into a culture rarely written about Dispatches from the Field Andrew Gardner,David M. Hoffman,2006-04-17 Penned by advanced graduate students amidst their dissertation fieldwork these provocative essays capture the challenges and intricacies of that anthropological rite of passage The collections authors frankly portray the mistakes they made in the field their struggle to analyze the events unfolding before their eyes the psychological and emotional frustration seemingly endemic to doing ethnography and the ethical complexities of researching living people The authors present these essays not as models of ideal fieldwork or as a series of lessons about how to overcome potential hurdles one faces in the field but rather as a window into the complexities of being an ethnographer in the contemporary world Against a backdrop of subject populations increasingly informed about global relations of power and more specifically informed about the topography of American imperialism these humanistic essays vividly reflect recent shifts in both the focus and methods of anthropological research as well as the dilemmas underlying the construction of anthropological knowledge They are meant to spark discussion and debate While tailored to an audience relatively new to ethnographic fieldwork and intended as a teaching tool this collection should appeal to anthropologists and ethnographers at all points in their career

The Surplus of Culture Ewa Borkowska,Tomasz Burzyński,2011-07-12 This multifaceted volume presents the elusive surplus of culture in the spotlight of theory and academic practice Despite its overtly economic implications the concept alludes to the added value of sense common sense and nonsense which is represented as languages of irony irrationality and absurdity potentially subverting traditional and mainstream regimes of culture Consequently the moment of surplus is inherent in critical interpretation in which supposedly well entrenched notions suddenly reveal their implicitly shattering and subversive nature The surplus of culture dwells at the risky intersection of untamed interpretation and tradition It is the space of the third in which literary canons are re visited language reveals its hidden political agendas the Orient reclaims its own cognitive perspective and established structures of cognition are questioned in the tragic comic gesture of insight The volume is a must for scholars and researchers in the fields of cultural studies literature and arts as well as literary theory
