the genealogy of the texts by situating them firmly in the context of age old debates about female literary creation and by highlighting the dynamics of the popular fiction market Offering a convincing dissection of the formula which lies at the heart of chick lit as well as in depth analyses of a number of chick lit titles ranging from classic to more recent and edgier texts this book yields new insights into a relatively young field of academic study Its close readings provide astute assessments of chick lit s notoriously skewed representational politics especially with regard to sexuality and ethnicity which feed into current discussions about postfeminism Moreover the study makes a unique contribution to the scholarly debate of chick lit by including an analysis of the online fan communities the genre has fostered The Cultural Politics of Chick Lit weaves a sound methodological network drawing on reader response criticism feminist gender and queer theory affect studies and whiteness studies This book is an accessible and engaging study for anyone interested in postfeminism and popular culture Thou

Iranian Cinema Hamid Reza Sadr, 2006-09-29 Recent post revolutionary Iranian cinema has of course gained the attention of international audiences who have been struck by its powerful poetic and often explicitly political explorations Yet mainstream pre revolutionary Iranian cinema with a history stretching back to the early twentieth century has been perceived in the main as lacking in artistic merit and crucially as apolitical in content This highly readable history of Iran as revealed through the full breadth of its cinema re-reads the films themselves to tell the full story of shifting political economic and social situations Sadr argues that embedded within even the seemingly least noteworthy of mainstream Iranian films we find themes and characterisations which reveal the political contexts of their time and which express the ideological underpinnings of a society Beginning with the introduction of cinema to Iran through the Iranian monarchy the book covers the broad spectrum of Iran's cinema offering vivid descriptions of all key films Iranian Cinema looks at recurring themes and tropes such as the rural versus the corrupt city and recently the preponderance of images of childhood and asks what these have revealed about Iranian society The author brings the story up to date explaining Iranian filmmaking after the events of September 11 from Mohsen Makhmalbaf's astonishing Kandahar to Sadiq Barmak's angry work Osama to explore this most recent and breathtaking revival in Iranian cinema
