HarperCollins is proud to present its new range of best loved essential classics The movements of his mind seemed to tend to the thought that some power was working against him When Henchard an out of work hay trusser gets drunk and sells his wife at a country fair his life will never be the same Eighteen years later his wife and daughter return to Casterbridge to find that Henchard has become Mayor Although he's spent most of his life attempting to repent for his actions he remains a rash and impetuous man Hardy portrays Henchard as a tragic hero searching for love and acceptance from the community around him posing the overarching question of whether we shape our own fate or whether life deals us an inevitable hand

Thomas Hardy Annual No. 1 Norman Page, 1982-12-16 The Mayor of Casterbridge Thomas Hardy, 2004-06-10 Michael Henchard is an out of work hay trusser who gets drunk at a local fair and impulsively sells his wife Susan and baby daughter 18 years later Susan and her daughter seek him out only to discover that he has become the most prominent man in Casterbridge Thomas Hardy - The Mayor of Casterbridge / Jude the Obscure Simon Avery, 2008-11-13 This Reader's Guide analyses the critical history of two of Hardy's major tragic novels from the time of their publication to the present Simon Avery traces the changing critical fortunes of the texts and explores the diverse range of interpretations produced by different theoretical approaches The Roxburghe Library of Classics, 1904 Timeless Classics, 1995 The Pocket Guide to Classic Books Kieran Hughes, 2010-06-19 Everything you need to know about classic literature in one handy guide by lecturer Maureen Hughes Covering everything from the authors to the plays themselves and their common themes accessibility is a key selling point with factboxes highlighting key or curious facts about the subject Its size makes it the perfect stocking filler for the Christmas market or at anytime of the year for those wanting more information about what they're reading or studying in a handy pocket sized guide Thomas Hardy Annual, 1982 The Fictions of Language and the Languages of Fiction Monika Fludernik, 2003-12-16 Monika Fludernik presents a detailed analysis of free indirect discourse as it relates to narrative theory and the crucial problematic of how speech and thought are represented in fiction Building on the insights of Ann Banfield's Unspeakable Sentences Fludernik radically extends Banfield's model to accommodate evidence from conversational narrative non-fictional prose and literary works from Chaucer to the present Fludernik's model subsumes earlier insights into the forms and functions of quotation and aligns them with discourse strategies observable in the oral language Drawing on a vast range of literature she provides an invaluable resource for researchers in the field and introduces English readers to extensive work on the subject in German as well as comparing the free indirect discourse features of German French and English This study effectively repositions the whole area between literature and linguistics opening up a new set of questions in narrative theory

The Mayor of Casterbridge \(Diversion Classics\) Thomas Hardy, 2016-06-28 Considered one of Hardy's best works this sobering and complex story of self-destruction features one of literature's quintessential tragic heroes In a drunken fit of rage young hay-trusser Michael Henchard auctions off his wife and baby daughter at a county fair Exhausted by his behavior his wife decides to leave with the highest bidder The next day too late to stop them from leaving Henchard is consumed with immense regret He vows not to touch a drop of alcohol for twenty-one years Nineteen years later Henchard is sober wealthy and now the mayor of Casterbridge Just as he begins to fall in love with another woman Henchard's wife and who he believes to be his daughter return What follows is an intensely dramatic tale of pride anger and regret that cannot be put down Featuring an appendix of discussion questions this Diversion Classics edition is ideal for use in book groups and classrooms For more classic titles like this visit www.diversionbooks.com/ebooks/diversion-classics

The Lost Girls Andrew Radford, 2007 The Lost Girls analyses a number of British writers between 1850 and 1930 for whom the myth of Demeter's loss and eventual recovery of her cherished daughter Kore Persephone swept off in violent and catastrophic captivity by Dis God of the Dead had both huge personal and aesthetic significance This book in addition to scrutinising canonical and less well-known texts by male authors such as Thomas Hardy E M Forster and D H Lawrence also focuses on unjustly neglected women writers Mary Webb and Mary Butts who utilised occult tropes to relocate themselves culturally and especially in Butts's case to recover and restore a forgotten legacy the myth of matriarchal origins These novelists are placed in relation not only to one another but also to Victorian archaeologists and especially to Jane Ellen Harrison 1850-1928 one of the first women to distinguish herself in the history of British Classical scholarship and whose anthropological approach to the study of early Greek art and religion both influenced and became transformed by the literature Rather than offering a teleological argument that moves lock-step through the decades The Lost Girls proposes chapters that detail specific engagements with Demeter Persephone through which to register distinct literary-cultural shifts in uses of the myth and new insights into the work of particular writers

Solitude Versus Solidarity in the Novels of Joseph Conrad Ursula Lord, 1998-04-17 Ursula Lord explores the manifestations in narrative structure of epistemological relativism textual reflexivity and political inquiry specifically Conrad's critique of colonialism and imperialism and his concern for the relationship between self and society The tension between solitude and solidarity manifests itself as a soul divided against itself an individual torn between engagement and detachment idealism and cynicism a dramatized narrator who himself embodies the contradictions between radical individualism and social cohesion a society that professes the ideal of shared responsibility while isolating the individual guilty of betraying the illusion of cultural or professional solidarity Conrad's complexity and ambiguity his conflicting allegiances to the ideal of solidarity versus the terrible insight of unremitting solitude his grappling with the dilemma of private versus shared meaning are intrinsic to his political and philosophical thought The metanarrative focus of Conrad's texts intensifies rather than diminishes their philosophical and political concerns Formal experimentation and epistemological exploration inevitably entail ethical and social implications Lord relates these issues with intellectual rigour to the dialectic of individual liberty and collective responsibility that lies at the core of the modern moral and political debate

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1904 Thomas Hardy, Time and Narrative K. Ireland, 2014-07-29 How is Hardy's development of thematic and characters matched by that of narrative techniques and his handling of time This book uses narratological methods to stress the interdependence of content and expression in a key transitional writer between the Victorian and Modernist eras

Routledge Revivals: Arguing With The Past (1989) Gillian Beer, 2018-04-17 First published in 1989 this book analyses fiction and long narrative drawing on a broad range of writing from earlier periods and on recent narrative theory Gillian Beer looks at the work of writers as diverse as Thomas Carlyle and Philip Sydney Samuel Richardson and George Eliot Three chapters on Virginia Woolf demonstrate how Woolf's reading of past literature philosophy and science gave her an intellectual and emotional purchase on problems of feminism and modernism Beer examines how writers create dialogues with past writing how readers of the present day engage with the difference of past literature and how we make contact with the desires and debates of past readers Persuasion Jane Austen, 1993 The last novel completed by Jane Austen before she died unmarried in her early forties Persuasion is often thought to be the story of the author's own lost love
