The Open Road Photography And The American Roadtrip:

The Open Road: Photography and the American Roadtrip (Signed Edition) David Company, 2014-09 After World War II the American road trip began appearing prominently in literature music movies and photography As Stephen Shore has written Our country is made for long trips Since the 1940s the dream of the road trip and the sense of possibility and freedom that it represents has taken its own important place within our culture Many photographers purposefully embarked on journeys across the U S in order to create work including Robert Frank whose seminal road trip resulted in The Americans However he was preceded by Edward Weston who traveled across the country taking pictures to illustrate Walt Whitman s Leaves of Grass Henri Cartier Bresson whose 1947 trip through the American South and into the West was published in the early 1950s in Harper s Bazaar and Ed Ruscha whose road trips between Los Angeles and Oklahoma formed the basis of Twentysix Gasoline Stations Hundreds of photographers have continued the tradition of the photographic road trip on down to the present from Stephen Shore to Taiyo Onorato Nico Krebs Alec Soth and Ryan McGinley The Open Road considers the photographic road trip as a genre in and of itself and presents the story of photographers for whom the American road is muse The book features David Company s introduction to the genre and 18 chapters presented chronologically each exploring one American road trip in depth through a portfolio of images and informative texts This volume highlights some of the most important bodies of work made on the road from The Americans to the present day

The Open Road David Company, 2014 After the end of World War II the American road trip began appearing prominently in literature music movies and photography Many photographers embarked on trips across the U S in order to create work including Robert Frank whose seminal 1955 road trip resulted in The Americans However he was preceded by Edward Weston who traveled across the country taking pictures to illustrate Walt Whitman s Leaves of Grass Henri Cartier Bresson whose 1947 trip through the American South and into the West was published in the early 1950s in Harper s Bazaar and Ed Ruscha whose road trips between Los Angeles and Oklahoma later became Twentysix Gasoline Stations Hundreds of photographers have continued the tradition of the photographic road trip on down to the present from Stephen Shore to Taiyo Onorato and Nico Krebs The Open Road considers the photographic road trip as a genre in and of itself and presents the story of photographers for whom the American road is muse The book features David Company s introduction to the genre and eighteen chapters presented chronologically each exploring one American road trip in depth through a portfolio of images and informative texts highlighting some of the most important bodies of work made on the road from The Americans to present day

The American Roadside in Émigré Literature, Film, and Photography Elsa Court, 2020-01-06 The American Roadside in migr Literature Film and Photography 1955 1985 traces the origin of a postmodern iconography of mobile consumption equating roadside America with an authentic experience of the United States through the postwar road narrative a narrative which Elsa Court argues has been shaped by and through white male migr narratives of the American road in both literature and visual culture While stressing that these narratives are limited in their understanding of the processes of exclusion and unequal flux in experiences of modern automobility the book works through four case studies in the American works of European born authors Vladimir Nabokov Robert Frank Alfred Hitchcock and Wim Wenders to unveil an early phenomenology of the postwar American highway one that anticipates the works of late twentieth century spatial theorists Jean Baudrillard Michel Foucault and Marc Aug and sketches a postmodern aesthetic of western mobility and consumption that has become synonymous with contemporary America

Richard Gruber,2023-10-20 American Landscapes Meditations on Art and Literature in a Changing World is a major contemporary survey of landscapes in art and literature of the United States especially the American South Inspired by William Dunlap's extraordinary landscape Meditations on the Origins of Agriculture in America and a collection of forty paintings and photographs by Southern artists this volume brings together artists authors and scholars to present new perspectives on art and literature both past and present The volume includes art and text from artists John Alexander Jason Bouldin William Dunlap Carlyle Wolfe Lee Ke Francis Linda Burgess Randy Hayes

photographers Sally Mann Ed Croom and Huger Foote museum directors Betsy Bradley Jane Livingston and Julian Rankin and authors W Ralph Eubanks John Grisham J Richard Gruber Jessica B Harris Lisa Howorth Julia Reed Natasha Trethewey Curtis Wilkie Joseph M Pierce and Drew Gilpin Faust This diverse group explores major eras of American history portrayed in Dunlap s painting a landscape that evokes the displacement and genocide of Native Americans the enslavement of Africans the Civil War and William Faulkner s fiction They examine the history of landscape art in America connecting art with the works of major writers like William Faulkner Eudora Welty Natasha Trethewey and Jesmyn Ward In eighteen new essays written during the pandemic and since the events of January 6 2021 the essayists emphasize how the key issues Dunlap addressed in his 1987 artwork have become part of the national discourse and make his work even more vital today

Contact Zones Justin Carville, Sigrid Lien, 2021-06-17 Since the mid nineteenth century photography has played a central role in cultural encounters within and between migrant communities in the United States Migrant histories have been mediated through the photographic image and the cultural practices of photography have themselves been transformed as migrant communities mobilise the photographic image to navigate experiences of cultural dislocation and the forging of new identities Exploring photographic images and the cultural practices of photography as contact zones through which cultural exchange and transformation takes place this volume addresses the role of photography in migrant histories in the United States from the mid nineteenth century to today Taking as its focal point photography s role in shaping migrant experiences of cultural transformation and how migrant experiences have re configured culturally differentiated practices of photography case studies on migration from Europe Central America and North America position photography as entwined with cultural histories of migration and cultural transformation in the United States Roadtrip Nation Mike Marriner, Nathan

Gebhard, Joanne Gordon, 2006-08-22 SO WHAT ARE YOU GONNA DO WITH YOUR LIFE You should be a lawyer a doctor an accountant a consultant blah blah blah Everywhere you turn people try to tell you who to be and what to do with your life We call that the noise Block it Shed it Leave it for the conformists As a generation we need to get back to focusing on individuality Self construction rather than mass production Define your own road in life instead of traveling down someone else s Listen to yourself Your road is the open road Find it Mike and Nathan After college Mike Marriner and Nathan Gebhard had no idea what to do with their lives All they d been exposed to were standard career paths like doctor and consultant roads that didn t fit them at all To see what else was out there they took a roadtrip across the nation in a huge forty foot RV to meet with people who had successfully defined their own paths in life including the chairman of Starbucks a lobsterman from Maine the director of Saturday Night Live the conductor of the Boston Philharmonic the first female Supreme Court Justice of the United States head stylist for Madonna and the CEO of National Geographic Ventures All told one hundred and forty people candidly shared their stories about how they got from college to the present Now in Roadtrip Nation Mike and Nathan share the most compelling tales with you Along the way they explain how you too can get out there and meet people on your own From making cold calls to asking stimulating interview questions Roadtrip Nation will give you the tools to create a life that you ll look back on and say I was true to myself every step of the way MTV Road Trips
