Howard Willard M. Oliver,2025-04-15 Robert E Howard 1906 1936 is most widely known today as the creator of Conan the Cimmerian more popularly referred to as Conan the Barbarian However he also wrote across a wide array of genres for the pulp magazines of the 1920s and 1930s including westerns sports stories boxing adventures supernatural horror and even humor Howard also created many other popular characters such as King Kull Bran Mak Morn Solomon Kane Steve Costigan and Breckenridge Elkins More importantly he created two specific subgenres of fiction sword and sorcery sometimes referred to as heroic fantasy and weird westerns Born and raised in Texas Robert E Howard began his writing career after his family settled in the small Central Texas town of Cross Plains His first professional sale came from the pulp magazine Weird Tales in 1925 and over the next eleven years he wrote hundreds of stories and an equal number of poems With this prolific body of stories he was among the most lauded pulp authors of that era It has been said and rightly so that the secret to his success was that there was a bit of Howard in every one of his characters and because Howard was a Texan even Conan shows elements of the Texan in his persona Robert E Howard The Life and Times of a Texas Author details the many trials and tribulations he faced as he became and remained a full time writer while dealing with an aging father and caring for a mother who was dying of tuberculosis The book both chronicles his personal life and demonstrates how the one driving force in Robert E Howard's life forming the foundation for all of his characters and stories was his personal pursuit of freedom He lived for his freedom he wrote as a means to attain that freedom and while it may sound strange he also died tragically by his own hand in that very same pursuit at the young age of 30

It seems the best gifts and thoughts are given to us when we pause, take a deep breath, look around, see what's there, and return to where we were revived.

Naomi Shihab Nye: I've said this many times in print: the novel is the middle age genre. Very few people have written really good novels when they are young, and few people have written really good novels when they are old. You just tail off and lose a certain level of concentration. Your imaginative energy begins to lag. I feel like I'm repeating myself, and most writers do repeat themselves.

Larry McMurtry: I was a pretty poor cowhand. I grew up on the Macaraw Ranch east of Crane, Texas. My father tried very hard to make a cowboy out of me, but in my case it never seemed to work too well. I had more of a literary bent. I loved to read, and very early on I began to write small stories, short stories out of the things I liked to read.

Elmer Kelton: Tales of the Wild West. Robert E. Howard, 2018-01-30.

RED GHALLINAN was a gunman. Not a trade to be proud of, perhaps, but Red was proud of it. Proud of his skill with a gun, proud of the notches on the long blue barrels of his heavy .45's. Red was a wiry, medium-sized man with a cruel, thin-lipped mouth and close-set, shifty eyes. He was bow-legged from much riding, and with his slouching walk and hard face, he was indeed an unprepossessing figure. Red's mind and soul were as warped as his exterior. His sinister reputation caused men to strive to avoid offending him, but at the same time it cut him off from the fellowship of people. No man, good or bad, cares to chum with a killer. Even the outlaws hated him and feared him too much to admit him to their gang, so he was a lone wolf. But a lone wolf may sometimes be more feared than the whole pack.

Howard's collection is essential reading for anyone passionate about the evolution of the American narrative Science Fiction and Fantasy Authors L. W. Currey, David G. Hartwell, 1979 The End of the Trail Robert Ervin Howard, 2005 I was born in the little ex-cowtown of Peaster, Texas. Robert E. Howard wrote to a friend and the first story he ever published in 1922 was a Western sketch. Although he went on to write hundreds of fantasy tales set in Conan's Hyborian kingdoms, Kull's ancient Atlantis, and Solomon Kane's darkest Africa, his heart always remained in the West. In 1929 he began publishing Western tales, but they were unlike any the genre had ever seen; they didn't have happy endings or perfect heroes. They were grimmer, more action-packed, even cataclysmically violent. Howard was fascinated by outlaws and gunmen, especially those who crossed over to become lawmen, and he knew and interviewed many old timers: old law officers, trail drivers, cattlemen, buffalo hunters, and pioneers. The twelve stories collected here show a West stripped down to essentials, where internalized codes of personal honor, loyalty, and courage matter more than laws, progress, or civilization. Also included are four articles suggestive of his wide-ranging interests, from Billy the Kid to the eerie and unexplained happenings on the frontier. To me, the annals of the land pulse with blood and life. Howard wrote, and his Western stories are full of memorable characters, heart-pounding action, and the distinctive prose generations of fans have come to know and expect and appreciate Big Book of Best Short Stories Owen Wister, John Fox Jr., Mary Austin, Ernest Haycox, Robert E.
