heavy weighing me down The voice calls out again I think it s a woman s I turn my head to the side and force my eyes to open blinking slowly A face hovers over me their features blurred What I croak The voice that comes out of my mouth doesn t sound like mine The voice doesn t respond Something drapes over my shoulders and a figure walks in front of me and drops to their knee It is a woman I can see her face now I can see the color of her eyes a deep dark brown that begs me to find comfort in them but I can t shake the feeling that something is wrong I try to focus on her face She has thick brows and a crooked nose broad and covered in freckles Focus Focus I try to tell myself before a high pitched ringing tears through my eardrums Are you okay Her voice is quiet as if she s trying not to break me with her words I want to nod I can t comprehend why she s looking at me like this where I am why I m wrapped in a rough cotton blanket why I m so cold I scrutinize my surroundings as my head clears and I try my hardest to remember How did I get on the ground Rows of shiny plastic wrapped snacks fill my line of sight and a long fluorescent tube lamp above me swings back and forth I think I m in a gas station I wipe my face with my arm and glance down Is this my arm Every part of me feels unfamiliar I shake my head trying to collect myself I m okay I slur realizing that she s staring down at me with that searching expression Squinting I focus on the mass of blue and brass before me as she gets to her feet Why are you here I ask her trying to take another glance around the room I must have missed something Something important She puts her hands under my arms hauling me to my feet She s stronger than I expected My knees falter as I attempt to straighten my body I stop struggling as she gently shushes me and lowers me back to the ground It s cold Please don t vomit on this nice lady Her voice is soft but firm What s your name
