Institute Union Benjamin Tom Hall, 1912 Bachelors, Manhood, and the Novel, 1850-1925 Katherine V. Snyder, 1999-09-02 Katherine Snyder's study explores the significance of the bachelor narrator a prevalent but little recognised figure in premodernist and modernist fiction by male authors including Hawthorne James Conrad Ford and Fitzgerald Snyder demonstrates that bachelors functioned in cultural and literary discourse as threshold figures who by crossing the shifting permeable boundaries of bourgeois domesticity highlighted the limits of conventional masculinity The very marginality of the figure Snyder argues effects a critique of gendered norms of manhood while the symbolic function of marriage as a means of plot resolution is also made more complex by the presence of the single man Bachelor figures made moreover an ideal narrative device for male authors who themselves occupied vexed cultural positions By attending to the gendered identities and relations at issue in these narratives Snyder's study discloses the aesthetic and political underpinnings of the traditional canon of English and American male modernism The Men's Club Leonard

Michaels, 1978 Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public The Rougon-Macquart Cycle:

Complete Collection - ALL 20 Novels In One Volume Émile Zola, 2024-01-12 Émile Zola's The Rougon-Macquart Cycle Complete Collection presents an ambitious panorama of 19th century French society intertwining the fates of the Rougon and Macquart families against the backdrop of the Second Empire's social and political upheaval Zola employs a naturalistic literary style where characters are meticulously crafted and their experiences are shaped by heredity and environment This comprehensive volume encapsulates all 20 novels each a distinct exploration of themes such as class struggle industrialization and human morality enriched by Zola's dedication to depicting life with unflinching realism Zola a foundational figure in naturalism and a key member of the literary community that included luminaries like Guy de

Maupassant was deeply influenced by the socio political climate of his time His rigorous approach to research and commitment to social criticism stemmed from his desire to shine a light on the human condition and the struggles of the working class often drawing from both personal experiences and historical context The Rougon Macquart Cycle is highly recommended for readers seeking both a rich historical tapestry and nuanced character studies Zola s work remains a critical lens through which to examine the complexities of society making this collection essential for anyone interested in literature that transcends mere storytelling to confront the realities of human existence In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works unifying features themes or stylistic evolutions The Author Biography highlights personal milestones and literary influences that shape the entire body of writing A Historical Context section situates the works in their broader era social currents cultural trends and key events that underpin their creation A concise Synopsis Selection offers an accessible overview of the included texts helping readers navigate plotlines and main ideas without revealing critical twists A unified Analysis examines recurring motifs and stylistic hallmarks across the collection tying the stories together while spotlighting the different work s strengths Reflection questions inspire deeper contemplation of the author s overarching message inviting readers to draw connections among different texts and relate them to modern contexts Lastly our hand picked Memorable Quotes distill pivotal lines and turning points serving as touchstones for the collection s central themes

A Stranger's Journey David Mura, 2018-08-01 Long recognized as a master teacher at writing programs like VONA the Loft and the Stonecoast MFA with A Stranger s Journey David Mura has written a book on creative writing that addresses our increasingly diverse American literature Mura argues for a more inclusive and expansive definition of craft particularly in relationship to race even as he elucidates timeless rules of narrative construction in fiction and memoir His essays offer technique focused readings of writers such as James Baldwin ZZ Packer Maxine Hong Kingston Mary Karr and Garrett Hongo while making compelling connections to Mura s own life and work as a Japanese American writer In A Stranger s Journey Mura poses two central questions The first involves identity How is writing an exploration of who one is and one s place in the world Mura examines how the myriad identities in our changing contemporary canon have led to new challenges regarding both craft and pedagogy Here like Toni Morrison s Playing in the Dark or Jeff Chang s Who We Be A Stranger s Journey breaks new ground in our understanding of the relationship between the issues of race literature and culture The book s second central question involves structure How does one tell a story Mura provides clear insightful narrative tools that any writer may use taking in techniques from fiction screenplays playwriting and myth Through this process Mura candidly explores the newly evolved aesthetic principles of memoir and how questions of identity occupy a central place in contemporary memoir
