On the Origin of Beauty John Griffin, 2011-10-16 In the light of the looming ecological crisis facing the world today much of the stunning beauty of the natural world is being lost forever On the Origin of Beauty seeks to confront this crisis through a philosophical enquiry into our perception of natural beauty Through discussions of numerous fields including the philosophy of science environmental ethics rationalism and Eastern and Western religion Griffin asserts that Beauty itself may be the catalyst needed to save the globe from destruction

The Mirror of the Self Shadi Bartsch, 2017-07-21 People in the ancient world thought of vision as both an ethical tool and a tactile sense akin to touch Gazing upon someone or oneself was treated as a path to philosophical self knowledge but the question of tactility introduced an erotic element as well In The Mirror of the Self Shadi Bartsch asserts that these links among vision sexuality and self knowledge are key to the classical understanding of the self Weaving together literary theory philosophy and social history Bartsch traces this complex notion of self from Plato's Greece to Seneca's Rome She starts by showing how ancient authors envisioned the mirror as both a tool for ethical self improvement and paradoxically a sign of erotic self indulgence Her reading of the Phaedrus for example demonstrates that the mirroring gaze in Plato because of its sexual possibilities could not be adopted by Roman philosophers and their students Bartsch goes on to examine the Roman treatment of the ethical and sexual gaze and she traces how self knowledge the philosopher's body and the performance of virtue all played a role in shaping the Roman understanding of the nature of selfhood Culminating in a profoundly original reading of Medea The Mirror of the Self illustrates how Seneca in his Stoic quest for self knowledge embodies the Roman view marking a new point in human thought about self perception Bartsch leads readers on a journey that unveils divided selves moral hypocrisy and lustful Stoics and offers fresh insights about seminal works At once sexy and philosophical The Mirror of the Self will be required reading for classicists philosophers and anthropologists alike

argues that beauty challenges us to find meaning in its object to make critical comparisons and to examine our own lives and emotions in the light of what we find The book examines the importance of beauty not only in terms of art and aesthetics but also within the context of the current post religious age It engages with the philosophical works of Roger Scruton and William Desmond and endorses and addresses many important discussions surrounding art and beauty found in the works of Plato Kant Hegel Schopenhauer Nietzsche and Heidegger It also takes seriously the role of poetry and painting to explore the theme that runs through this research the idea that beauty is rationally found Meditations on the art of Manet Van Gogh Delacroix Rembrandt and other artists together with the voices of several poets show us that beauty cannot be reduced to aesthetics only Irreducible to philosophy religion or aesthetics the notion of beauty is deeply examined in all its forms and spiritual meaning

The Price of Beauty S.R. Jaye, 2023-02-07 In a realm of dark enchantment where curses linger beasts prowl and winter's shadow threatens to consume the land beauty is the most dangerous power of all Maisie Legends say the quest for beauty can turn men into monsters and monsters into heroes When I dare to pluck a magic rose from the Fairy Queen's cursed woods I unwittingly set an ancient prophecy into motion one that aims the Fairy Queen's deadly wrath at me and binds my fate to two powerful men One is the brooding Prince of the Mortal Realm bound by duty and a past that haunts him The other is his twin brother the High King of the Mortal Realm the handsome young ruler who lingers in the darkness between desire and destruction Both are loyal to the other joined by the bond of twins Both are drawn to me and the magical beauty the rose has bestowed on me

And both will fight to claim me one for the salvation of the realm the other for its ruin But I am no pawn If beauty is a weapon then I will learn to wield it If power is a curse then I will break it I did not fight my way out of the dark woods just to let darkness destroy me and the world I love Trapped in a battle of light and shadow love and betrayal I must uncover the truth hidden in the heart of the prophecy before winter devours the world And before I lose myself to the darkness whispering my name

The Mirror of Life -The Prying Mirror Reveals All Richard K. Singh,2013-03-26 As humans we live our entire lives as performers on the world's stage exhibiting behavior which portray us in a variety of characters and emotions The different emotions which we reflect are the outcome of our interaction with the people we encounter in this lifetime and the environment we share We direct and stage manage our performances which can be box office hits or colossal flops We personally determine the success or failure of our performances In some instances we perform so well that the spectators and audience are unanimous in demanding an encore presentation which can be accompanied by a standing ovation These are the candid unrehearsed and spontaneous images we freely and unhesitatingly allow the Mirror of Life to store in its memory bank As humans we possess the capacity to enhance and refine our images as we live out our human existence Yet the converse can equally apply The images of the latter blend and merge to reflect a diabolical distorted and unidentifiable picture a blur of what started as a well defined face of humanity The Mirror of Life provided a blank canvas allowing each one of us an equal opportunity to produce a master piece Some exploited this opportunity while others forfeited it Thus we determined the success or failure of our performances earning applause or boos The Mirror of Life will be the constant faithful companion recording and reflecting both the serious and humorous performances of man in natural universal settings The author will attempt to steady the mirror in an effort to avoid distorting the images and capturing actions in real time both past and present The Mirror of Life will endeavor to present these authentic and real life performances in a light hearted satirical way Being able to laugh at ourselves and allowing others to enjoy our antics while attempting to correct or rectify our images defines our humanness and our resilience to life's challenges

The Gift of Beauty and the Passion of Being William Desmond,2018-07-06 This book gathers a set of reflections on the gift of beauty and the passion of being There is something surprising about beauty that we receive and that moves the passion of being in us The book takes issue with an ambiguous attitude to beauty among some who proclaim their advanced aesthetic authenticity Beauty seems bland and lacks the more visceral thrill of the ugly indeed the excremental We crave what disrupts and provokes us not what gives delight or even consoles By contrast attention is given to how beauty arouses enigmatic joy in us and we enjoy an elemental rapport with it as other Surprised by beauty our breath is taken away but we are more truly there with the beautiful when we are taken outside of ourselves We are first receivers of the gift of surprise and only then perceivers and conceivers My attention to the passion of being stresses a patience a receptivity to what is other What happens is not first our construction There is something given something awakening something delighting something energizing something of invitation to transcendence The theme is amplified in diverse reflections on life and its transient beauty on soul music and its relation to self on the shine on things given in creation on beauty and Schopenhauer s dark origin on creativity and the dynamis in Paul Weiss's creative ventures on redemption in Romanticism in the thought of Stanley Cavell on theater as a between or metaxu on redeeming laughter and its connection with the passion of being

The Theory of Beauty in the Classical Aesthetics of Japan T. Izutsu, 2013-03-09 The Japanese sense of beauty as actualized in innumerable works of art both linguistic and non linguistic has often been spoken of as something strange to and remote from the Western taste It is in fact so radically different from what in the West is ordinarily associated with aesthetic experience that it even tends to give an impression of being mysterious enigmatic or esoteric This state of affairs comes from the fact that there is a peculiar kind of metaphysics based on a realization of the simultaneous semantic articulation of consciousness and the external reality dominating the whole functional domain of the Japanese sense of beauty without an understanding of which the so called mystery of Japanese aesthetics would remain incomprehensible The present work primarily purports to clarify the keynotes of the artistic experiences that are typical of Japanese culture in terms of a special philosophical structure underlying them It consists of two main parts 1 Preliminary Essays in which the major philosophical ideas relating to beauty will be given a theoretical elucidation and 2 a selection of Classical Texts representative of Japanese aesthetics in widely divergent fields of linguistic and extra linguistic art such as the theories of waka poetry Noh play the art of tea and haiku The second part is related to the first by way of a concrete illustration providing as it does philological materials on which are based the philosophical considerations of the first part Heath's Book of Beauty, 1833
