The Old Manor House South Wraxall:

The Old Manor House, South Wraxall ,1893 The Antiquary Edward Walford, George Latimer Apperson, 1894

Greater Medieval Houses of England and Wales, 1300-1500: Volume 3, Southern England Anthony Emery, 2006-03-09

This is the third volume of Anthony Emery's magisterial survey Greater Medieval Houses of England and Wales 1300-1500 first published in 2006. Across the three volumes Emery has examined afresh and reassessed over 750 houses, the first comprehensive review of the subject for 150 years. Covered are the full range of leading homes from royal and episcopal palaces to manor houses as well as community buildings such as academic colleges, monastic granges and secular colleges of canons. This volume surveys Southern England and is divided into three regions, each of which includes a separate historical and architectural introduction as well as thematic essays prompted by key buildings. The text is complemented throughout by a wide range of plans and diagrams and a wealth of photographs showing the present condition of almost every house discussed. This is an essential source for anyone interested in the history, architecture and culture of medieval England and Wales.

The Manor Houses of England Peter Hampson Ditchfield, 1910 The Country House Revealed Dan Cruickshank, 2012-07-31. Spanning the architectural history of the country house from the disarming Elizabethan charm of South Wraxall, the classical rigour of Kinross in Scotland, the majesty and ingenuity of Hawksmoor's Easton Neston, the Palladian sweep of Wentworth Woodhouse with over 300 rooms and frontage of 600 feet, the imperial exuberance of Clondeboy, through to the ebullient vitality of Lutyens' Marshcourt, the stories of these houses tell the story of our nation. All are buildings of the greatest architectural interest, each with a fascinating human story to tell, and all remain private homes that are closed to the public. But their owners have opened their doors and allowed Dan Cruickshank to roam the corridors and rummage in the cellars as he teases out the story of each house, who built them, the generations who lived in them, and the families who lost them. Along the way he has uncovered tales of excess and profligacy, tragedy, comedy, power and ambition. And as these intriguing narratives take shape, Dan shows how the story of each house is inseparable from the social and economic history of Britain. Each one is built as a wave of economic development crests or crumbles. Each one's architecture and design is thus expressive of the aims, strengths and frailties of those who built them. Together they plot the psychological, economic and social route map of our country's ruling class in a rich new telling of our island story. A
