seen as he confronts one of the most hated aspects of the empire the corruption and intimidation for which the emperor was ultimately responsible Seo suggests that Luke wants us to compare Jesus and the emperor to show us how the emperor is found wanting Concentrating on the titles of benefactor and saviour his analysis of Christ's moral authority is both discerning and erudite

The Origins of Religious Violence Nicholas F. Gier, 2014-08-20 Religiously motivated violence caused by the fusion of state and religion occurred in medieval Tibet and Bhutan and later in imperial Japan but interfaith conflict also followed colonial incursions in India Sri Lanka and Burma Before that time there was a general premodern harmony among the resident religions of the latter countries and only in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries did religiously motivated violence break out While conflict caused by Hindu fundamentalists has been serious and widespread a combination of medieval Tibetan Buddhists and modern Sri Lankan Japanese and Burmese Buddhists has caused the most violence among the Asian religions However the Chinese Taiping Christians have the world record for the number of religious killings by one single sect A theoretical investigation reveals that specific aspects of the Abrahamic religions an insistence on the purity of revelation a deity who intervenes in history but one who still is primarily transcendent may be primary causes of religious conflict Only one factor a mystical monism not favored in Judaism Christianity and Islam was the basis of a distinctively Japanese Buddhist call for individuals to identify totally with the emperor and to wage war on behalf of a divine ruler The Origins of Religious Violence An Asian Perspective uses a methodological heuristic of premodern modern and constructive postmodern forms of thought to analyze causes and offer solutions to religious violence

The Demise of Norse Religion Olof Sundqvist, 2023-12-18 When describing the transition from Old Norse religion to Christianity in recent studies the concept of Christianization is often applied To a large extent this historiography focuses on the outcome of the encounter namely the description of early Medieval Christianity and the new Christian society The purpose of the present study is to concentrate more exclusively on the Old Norse religion during this period of change and to analyze the processes behind its disappearance on an official level of the society More specifically this study concentrates on the role of Viking kings and indigenous agency in the winding up of the old religion An actor oriented perspective will thus be established which focuses on the actions methods and strategies applied by the early Christian Viking kings when dismantling the religious tradition that had previously formed their lives In addition the resistance that some pagan chieftains offered against these Christian kings is discussed as well as the question why they defended the old religious tradition
