Haiti International Monetary Fund. Western Hemisphere Dept., 2015-01-05 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY This is the final review under the Extended Credit Facility ECF arrangement The program contributed to maintaining macroeconomic stability and there was progress on structural reforms The authorities intend to request a successor arrangement under the ECF A new finance minister was appointed in April uncertainly remains on the timing of elections Preliminary data suggest that GDP in FY2014 grew by 3 5 4 percent while inflation increased slightly to about 5 percent An increase in fuel prices in October should result in fiscal savings of at least 1 percent of GDP during FY2015 The March performance criterion on net international reserves NIR was met but although the deficit was lower than projected the performance criterion on net central bank credit to the central government was missed Downside risks are significant and include a pull back of Venezuela related flows a resumption of political tensions and vulnerability to weather events A total of SDR 1 638 million will become available upon completion of this review bringing total disbursements under the ECF to SDR 40 950 million Key Policy Recommendations The policy mix in particular the adjustment going forward should come from a lower fiscal deficit rather than from a tighter monetary policy The FY2015 fiscal deficit should be reduced to mitigate financing risks as part of a medium term plan to restore fiscal sustainability The central bank should let the exchange rate adjust more to market pressures Intervention should be parsimonious geared at avoiding excess volatility and disorderly movements in the exchange rate it should be guided by fundamentals in the medium term Progress on structural reforms including on the energy sector and on public financial management should catalyze more donor support and is essential for supporting growth A possible new ECF arrangement would entrench macroeconomic stability and promote policies to generate sustained GDP growth Yale Law Journal: Volume 124, Number 6 - April 2015 Yale Law Journal, 2015-04-17 The contents of Yale Law Journal s April 2015 issue Volume 124 Number 6 include Article The Constitutional Duty To Supervise by Gillian E Metzger Article Architectural Exclusion Discrimination and Segregation Through Physical Design of the Built Environment by Sarah Schindler Feature Fifty Attorneys General and Fifty Approaches to the Duty To Defend by Neal Devins Saikrishna Bangalore Prakash Note Executive Orders in Court by Erica Newland Comment Stare Decisis and Secret Law On Precedent and Publication in the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court by Jack Boeglin Julius Taranto Quality ebook formatting includes fully linked footnotes and an active Table of Contents including linked Contents for all individual Articles Notes and Essays proper Bluebook formatting and active URLs in footnotes Just Immigration Amstutz, Mark R., 2017 Few issues are as complex and controversial as immigration in the United States The only thing anyone seems to agree on is that the system is broken Mark Amstutz offers a succinct overview and assessment of current immigration policy and argues for an approach to the complex immigration debate that is solidly grounded in Christian political thought After analyzing key laws and institutions in the US immigration system Amstutz examines how Catholics evangelicals and main line Protestants have used Scripture to address social and political issues including immigration He critiques the ways in which many Christians have approached immigration reform and offers concrete suggestions on how Christian groups can offer a more credible political engagement with this urgent policy issue ACCA P6 Advanced Taxation FA2014 BPP Learning Media, 2014-12-02 BPP Learning Media s status as official ACCA Approved Learning Provider Content means our ACCA Study Texts and Practice Revision Kits are reviewed by the ACCA examining team BPP Learning Media products provide you with the exam focussed material you need for exam success Challenges of European External Energy Governance with Emerging Powers Michèle Knodt, Nadine Piefer, 2016-03-03 In a multipolar world with growing demand for energy not least by Emerging Powers such as Brazil India China or South Africa BICS questions of EU external energy governance would at first hand appear to be a high priority Yet reality tells a different story the EU s geographical focus remains on adjacent countries in the European neighbourhood and on issues related to energy security Despite being Strategic Partners and engaging in energy dialogues it seems that the EU is lacking strategic vision and is not perceived as a major actor in energy cooperation with the BICS Thus political momentum for energy cooperation and joint governance of scarce resources is vanishing Resulting from three years of international interdisciplinary research cooperation among academics and practitioners in Europe and the BICS countries within a project funded by the Volkswagen Foundation this volume addresses one of the greatest global challenges Specific focus lies on the bilateral energy dialogues and Strategic Partnerships between the EU and Emerging Powers regarding bilateral inter and transnational energy cooperation Furthermore the analysis provides policy recommendations in order to tap the full potential of energy cooperation between the EU and Brazil India China and South Africa United States Department of State Treaties in Force; A List of Treaties and Other International Agreements of the United States in Force on January 1, 2018 , Water for the Environment Avril Horne,Angus Webb,Michael Stewardson,Brian Richter,Mike Acreman,2017-08-16 Water for the Environment From Policy and Science to Implementation and Management provides a holistic view of environmental water management offering clear links across disciplines that allow water managers to face mounting challenges The book highlights current challenges and potential solutions helping define the future direction for environmental water management In addition it includes a significant review of current literature and state of knowledge providing a one stop resource for environmental water managers Presents a multidisciplinary approach that allows water managers to make connections across related disciplines such as hydrology ecology law and economics Links science to practice for environmental flow researchers and those that implement and manage environmental water on a daily basis Includes case studies to demonstrate key points and address implementation issues Treaties in Force ,2016 The Police in a Free Society Todd Douglas,2017-09-15 An unprecedented look at the evolution of American police from filling their intended role as peacekeepers and guardians of citizen rights to calling themselves and acting primarily as law enforcement officers As accusations of police misconduct and racial bias increasingly dominate the media The Police in a Free Society Safeguarding Rights While Enforcing the Law takes an unflinching look at the police the communities they serve and the politicians who direct them Author Todd Douglas a veteran state police commander exposes the occurrences of police misconduct and incompetence as well as incidences of charlatans who intentionally inflame racial tensions with the police for their own political or financial gain Readers will better understand what police officers must deal with on a daily basis grasp the role of lawmakers in keeping faith with the public and appreciate the tremendous challenges that police leaders face in attempting to reverse recent trends and shore up public confidence in police officers This is a rare glimpse into the often ugly reality of what happens on America s streets with insights gained from the perspective of the cop and suspect alike Modern Derivatives Pricing and Credit Exposure Analysis Roland Lichters,Roland Stamm,Donal Gallagher,2015-11-15 This book provides a comprehensive guide for modern derivatives pricing and credit analysis Written to provide sound theoretical detail but practical implication it provides readers with everything they need to know to price modern financial derivatives and analyze the credit exposure of a financial instrument in today s markets International Public Procurement Khi V. Thai,2016-07-30 Using a comparative framework this volume presents case studies of issues of public procurement and discusses how procurement professionals and policy makers in different regions are responding to these challenges This book discusses current issues in public procurement Over the past few decades public procurement has had to evolve conceptually and organizationally in the face of unrelenting budget constraints government downsizing public demand for increased transparency in public procurement as well as greater concerns about efficiency fairness and equity Procurement professionals have also had to deal with a changeable climate produced by emerging technology environmental concerns and ongoing tension between complex regional trade agreements and national socioeconomic goals The first section discusses innovation and reforms in public procurement and how practitioners are adapting to and making use of new technologies The second section addresses the challenges of maintaining transparency equity and fairness in public procurement The final section discusses preferential public procurement and introduces strategies for building sustainable public procurement systems By combining theory and analysis with evidence from the real world this book is of equal use to academics policy makers and procurement professionals

Uganda International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept.,2017-09-15 This Technical Assistance Report proposes draft regulations to address issues in the provisions of the Public Finance Management Bill 2012 The draft regulations propose a virement regime which serves to protect the composition of the budget in particular prevention of virement between development and recurrent spending which will be particularly important in light of the new fiscal environment It is also proposed to further strengthen the expenditure controls through a requirement to regularize excess expenditures through the contingencies fund and requiring reporting of outstanding payments

Female Chinese Bankers in the Asia Pacific Wai-wan Vivien Chan,2020-09-01 This book explores the simultaneous Asianisation and feminisation of mid level management in the financial services sector in world and global cities in the Asia Pacific Chan draws on 50 in depth interviews with ethnically Chinese female professionals working in middle or upper management positions in Sydney Hong Kong Shanghai and four other cities in Australia and China She analyses the interplay between geographical location gender and career mobility Growing numbers of transnational Chinese live and work in major cities in developed countries In this context a new social economic ecosystem is being created for and by female professionals working in an elite sector of the service industry across the Asia Pacific region Chan examines the nature of this ecosystem through an examination of the lives and work of such women their role in forming multinational networks in financial service firms their collective work situation their daily challenges and their coping strategies in the workplace and at home A compelling comparative study which will be of great interest to scholars and students looking at the role of gender and ethnicity in globalisation

Before the Flood Jacob Blanc,2019-11-15 In Before the Flood Jacob Blanc traces the protest movements of rural Brazilians living in the shadow of the Itaipu dam the largest producer of hydroelectric power in the world In the 1970s and 1980s local communities facing displacement took a stand against the military officials overseeing the dam s construction and in the context of an emerging national fight for democracy they elevated their struggle for land into a referendum on the dictatorship itself Unlike the broader campaign against military rule however the conflict at Itaipu was premised on issues that long predated the official start of dictatorship access to land the defense of rural and indigenous livelihoods and political rights in the countryside In their efforts against Itaipu and through conflicts among themselves title owning farmers landless peasants and the Av Guaraní Indians articulated a rural based vision for democracy Through interviews and archival research including declassified military documents and the first ever access to the Itaipu Binational Corporation Before the Flood challenges the primacy of urban focused narratives and unearths the rural experiences of dictatorship and democracy in Brazil
