The Mirror at Midnight Adam Hochschild, 2007 Publisher Description      The Mirror at Midnight Adam Hochschild, 1991      The Mirror at Midnight Adam Hochschild, 2007-04-24 A stunning blend of reportage travelogue history and meditation by the New York Times bestselling author of King Leopold's Ghost Publishers Weekly National Book Award finalist Adam Hochschild brings a lifetime's familiarity with South Africa to bear in this eye opening examination of a critical turning point in that nation's history the Great Trek of 1836-39 during which Dutch speaking white settlers known as Boers journeyed deep into the country's interior to escape the British colonial administration The mass migration culminated with the massacre of indigenous Zulus in the 1838 Battle of Blood River Looking at the tensions of modern South Africa through the dramatic prism of the nineteenth century Hochschild vividly recreates the battle and its contentious commemoration by rival groups 150 years later In his epilogue Hochschild extends his view to the astonishing political changes that have occurred in the country in recent decades and the changes yet to be made Hochschild's incisive take on these events noted Nadine Gordimer is far more than an outsider's perception of the drama of our country Read him in particular to understand the rise of white extremism which is threatening the democratic vision of the African National Congress and its allied progressive constituency among people of all colors A good book for anyone who wants a succinct and precise account of how this fascinating country has got where it is This is a book I recommend warmly Archbishop Desmond Tutu One of the most illuminating books ever written on contemporary South Africa Publishers Weekly Thoroughly researched immensely readable A work of vivid reportage and astute political analysis San Francisco Chronicle      New York Magazine, 1990-12-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea      The In-Between People Girma Bekele, 2011-03-29 In the midst of partial competing and often hostile forms of human solidarity David Bosch challenged the church to be the Alternative Community called to live in the in between of various opposing socio political economic and ecclesiastical polarities Girma Bekele explores and renews that call in the context of Ethiopia Acute poverty and the lingering question of the balance between ethnic distinctiveness and national unity together constitute a two edged challenge to Christian identity Constructive dialogue that fosters unity is intrinsic to effective response to the plight of the poor This means a turning away from institutional self preservation towards a contextually relevant mission that crosses all human made frontiers Taking Ethiopia as the immediate context Dr Bekele offers important insight to the church in the majority world and beyond      Sanctuary Christa Kuljian, 2013 Bishop Paul Verryn knew he had a problem when xenophobic violence erupted in May 2008 and the threat of it spreading to Central Methodist Church in downtown Johannesburg became very real There were over a thousand migrants living in the church Verryn's open door policy had plenty of critics both from within and outside the Church Back cover AF Press Clips United States Department of State. Bureau of African Affairs,1990 Politics By Other Means Richard Abel,2015-12-22 Politics by Other Means explores the fundamental question of how law can constrain political power by offering a pathbreaking account of the triumphant final decade of the struggle against apartheid Richard Abel presents case studies of ten major legal campaigns including challenges to pass laws black trade union demands for recognition state terror censorship resistance to the independent homelands and treason trials AF Press Clips ,1990 Shades of Difference Padraig O'Malley,2025-05-05 Mac Maharaj played a pivotal role in the liberation movement for nearly four decades suffering brutal tortures and twelve years imprisonment on Robben Island with Nelson Mandela It was Maharaj who smuggled out the manuscript of Mandela's autobiography and later re-entered South Africa to establish a political and military underground on a mission so secret that only those at the highest levels were even aware of its existence Drawing from extensive interviews with Maharaj over eleven years and hitherto unavailable documents Padraig O'Malley vividly renders a true tale of heroism and a gripping insider's look at the struggle for freedom in South Africa Transcultural English Studies Frank Schulze-Engler,Sissy Helff,2009 What is most strikingly new about the transcultural is its sudden ubiquity Following in the wake of previous concepts in cultural and literary studies such as creolization hybridity and syncretism and signalling a family relationship to terms such as transnationality translocality and transmigration transcultural terminology has unobtrusively but powerfully edged its way into contemporary theoretical and critical discourse The four sections of this volume denote major areas where transcultural questions and problematics have come to the fore theories of culture and literature that have sought to account for the complexity of culture in a world increasingly characterized by globalization transnationalization and interdependence realities of individual and collective life worlds shaped by the ubiquity of phenomena and experiences relating to transnational connections and the blurring of cultural boundaries fictions in literature and other media that explore these realities negotiate the fuzzy edges of ethnic or national cultures and participate in the creation of transnational public spheres as well as transcultural imaginations and memories and finally pedagogy and didactics where earlier models of teaching other cultures are faced with the challenge of coming to terms with cultural complexity both in what is being taught and in the people it is taught to and where target cultures have become elusive The idea of locating culture and literature exclusively in the context of ethnicities or nations is rapidly losing plausibility throughout an English speaking world that has long since been multi rather than monolingual Exploring the prospects and contours of Transcultural English Studies thus reflects a set of common challenges and predicaments that in recent years have increasingly moved centre stage not only in the New Literatures in English but also in British and American studies Rebel Cinderella Adam Hochschild,2020 Prologue Tumult at Carnegie Hall Tsar and queen Magic land City of the world Missionary to the slums Cinderella of the sweatshops
