Stringfellow Acid Pits Brian Craig, 2020-02-18 Stringfellow Acid Pits tells the story of one of the most toxic places in the United States and of an epic legal battle waged to clean up the site and hold those responsible accountable In 1955 California officials approached rock quarry owner James Stringfellow about using his land in Riverside County east of Los Angeles as a hazardous dump site Officials claimed it was a natural waste disposal site because of the impermeable rocks that underlay the surface They were gravely mistaken Over 33 million gallons of industrial chemicals from more than a dozen of the nation's most prominent companies poured into the site's unlined ponds In the 1960s and 1970s heavy rains forced surges of chemical laden water into Pyrite Creek and the nearby town of Glen Avon Children played in the froth making fake beards with the chemical foam The liquid waste contaminated the groundwater threatening the drinking water for hundreds of thousands of California residents Penny Newman a special education teacher and mother led a grassroots army of so called hysterical housewives who demanded answers and fought to clean up the toxic dump The ensuing three decade legal saga involved more than 1 000 lawyers 4 000 plaintiffs and nearly 200 defendants and led to the longest civil trial in California history The author unveils the environmental and legal history surrounding the Stringfellow Acid Pits through meticulous research based on personal interviews court records and EPA and other documents The contamination at the Stringfellow site will linger for hundreds of years The legal fight has had an equally indelible influence shaping environmental law toxic torts appellate procedure takings law and insurance coverage into the present day

Writing Feature Stories Matthew Ricketson, 2020-07-29 Good writing engages as it informs and feature journalism offers writers the opportunity to tell deep affecting stories that look beyond the immediate mechanics of who what where and when and explore the more difficult and more rewarding questions how and why Whether you're a blogger a news journalist or an aspiring lifestyle reporter a strong voice and a fresh informed perspective remain in short supply and strong demand this book will help you craft the kind of narratives people can't wait to share on their social media feeds Writing Feature Stories established a reputation as a comprehensive thought provoking and engaging introduction to researching and writing feature stories This second edition is completely overhauled to reflect the range of print and digital feature formats and the variety of online mobile and traditional media in which they appear This hands on guide explains how to generate fresh ideas research online and offline make the most of interviews sift and sort raw material structure and write the story edit and proofread your work find the best platform for your story and pitch your work to editors A wide ranging much needed master class for anyone who tells true yarns in this fast changing journalistic marketplace Bruce Shapiro Columbia University Useful and thought provoking Margaret Simons journalist and author A must read for any digital storyteller who wants to write emotive engaging believable content Nidhi Dutt foreign correspondent

The Power of Podcasting Siobh  n McHugh, 2022-10-11 Now two decades old podcasting is an exuberant medium where new voices can be found every day As a powerful communications tool that is largely unregulated and unusually accessible this influential medium is attracting scholarly scrutiny across a range of fields from media and communications to history criminology and gender studies Hailed for intimacy and authenticity in an age of mistrust and disinformation podcasts have developed fresh models for storytelling entertainment and the casual imparting of knowledge Podcast hosts have forged strong parasocial relationships that attract advertisers brands and major platforms but can also be leveraged for community niche and public interest purposes In The Power of Podcasting award winning narrative podcast producer and leading international audio scholar Siobh  n McHugh dissects the aesthetics and appeal of podcasts and reveals the remarkable power of the audio medium to build empathy and connection via voice and sound Drawing on internationally acclaimed podcasts she helped produce The Greatest Menace The Last Voyage of the Pong Su Phoebe  s Fall she blends practical insights into making complex narrative podcasts and chatcasts or conversational shows with critical analysis of the art and history of audio storytelling She also surveys the emerging canon of podcast formats Grounded in concepts from the affective power of voice to the choreography of sound and packed with case studies and insider tips from McHugh  s decades of experience this richly storied book immerses readers in the enthralling possibilities of the world of sound

The Fiction of Autobiography Micaela Maft  i, 2013-07-04 Writing autobiography is a complicated often fraught activity for both writer and reader We can find many recent examples of the way such writing calls into question the author  s truthfulness or their authority to present as definitive their version of a particular event or portion of their lives Drawing upon a wide range of late twentieth and early twenty first century autobiographical writing The Fiction of Autobiography examines key aspects of autobiography from the interrelated perspectives of author reader critic and scholar to reconsider how we view this form of writing and its relationship to the way we understand and construct identity Maft  i considers recent cases and texts such as Didion  s The Year of Magical Thinking and Frey  s A Million Little Pieces alongside older texts such as Proust  s In Search of Lost Time Nabokov  s Speak Memory and Stein  s The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas In part this is to emphasise that key issues reappear and arise over decades and centuries and that texts distanced by time can speak to each other thoughtfully and poignantly

A Place That Matters Yet Sara Byala, 2024-05-31 A Place That Matters Yet unearths the little known story of Johannesburg's MuseumAfrica a South African history museum that embodies one of the most dynamic and fraught stories of colonialism and postcolonialism its life spanning the eras before during and after apartheid Sara Byala in examining this story sheds new light not only on racism and its institutionalization in South Africa but also on the problems facing any museum that is charged with navigating colonial history from a postcolonial perspective Drawing on thirty years of personal letters and public writings by museum founder John Gubbins Byala paints a picture of a uniquely progressive colonist focusing on his philosophical notion of three dimensional thinking which aimed to transcend binaries and thus quite explicitly racism Unfortunately Gubbins died within weeks of the museum's opening and his hopes would go unrealized as the museum fell in line with emergent apartheid politics Following the museum through this transformation and on to its 1994 reconfiguration as a post apartheid institution Byala showcases it as a rich and problematic archive of both material culture and the ideas that surround that culture arguing for its continued importance in the establishment of a unified South Africa
