Where We Belong English Edition:

Where We Belong Madeline Sayet, 2022-06-08 I've been trying to remember a story Can you help me A long time ago our ancestors told it to us I think it has to do with where we belong In 2015 Mohegan Theater Maker Madeline Sayet travelled to England to pursue a PhD in Shakespeare but her voyage across the ocean became an unexpected journey of transformation Riding the spirit wind of her Mohegan ancestors who crossed the Atlantic in the 1700s on diplomatic missions to protect her people Where We Belong is a search for belonging in a globalized world It is at once a rich investigation into the impulses that divide and connect us as people but it is also about a wolf that learns how to become a bird and fly Where We

Belong Lynn Austin, 2017-10-03 The Adventure of a Lifetime for Two Indomitable Socialite Sisters In the city of Chicago in 1892 the rules for Victorian women are strict their roles limited But sisters Rebecca and Flora Hawes are not typical Victorian ladies Their love of adventure and their desire to use their God given talents has brought them to the Sinai Desert and into a sandstorm Accompanied by Soren Petersen their somber young butler and Kate Rafferty a street urchin who is learning to be their ladies maid the two women are on a quest to find an important biblical manuscript As the journey becomes more dangerous and uncertain the four travelers sift through memories of their past recalling the events that shaped them and the circumstances that brought them to this time and place Where We Belong Paul Shepard, 2009-04-01 Gathered here in book form for the first time the fourteen essays in Where We Belong exemplify Paul Shepard's interdisciplinary approach to human interaction with the natural world Drawn from Shepard's entire career and presented chronologically these pieces vary in setting from the Hudson River to the American prairie to New Zealand Equally impressive is Shepard's spatial range as he moves from subtle differences to grand designs from the intimacy of an artist's brush stroke to a vista of the harsh Greek terrain Alluding to a range of sources from Star Trek to Marshall McLuhan to the Bible the writings discuss such topics as the geomorphology of New England landscape paintings beautification and conservation projects the Oregon Trail and tourism Whether Shepard is pondering why the Great Plains conjured up sea imagery in early observers or how pioneers often resorted to architectural terms temple castle bridge tower when naming the West's natural formations he exposes and thus invites us to unshoulder the cultural and historical baggage we bring to the act of seeing Throughout the book Shepard seeks the antecedents of environmental perception and questions whether the paradigm we inherited should be superseded by one that leads us to a greater concern for the health of the planet This volume is an important addition to Shepard's canon if only for the new view it offers of his intellectual development More important however these selections demonstrate Shepard's grasp of a wide range of ideas related to the physical environment including the various factors historical aesthetic and psychological that have shaped our attitudes toward the natural world and color the way we see it Where We Belong Daisy Ocampo Diaz, 2023-06-13 This comparative work dispels the harmful myth that Native people are unfit stewards of their sacred places This work establishes Indigenous preservation practices as sustaining approaches to the caretaking of the land that embody ecological sustainability spiritual landscapes and community well being The author brings together the history and experiences of the Chemehuevi people and their ties with Mamapukaib or the Old Woman Mountains in the East Mojave Desert and the Caxcan people and their relationship with Tlachialoyantepec or Cerro de las Ventanas in Zacatecas Mexico Through a trans Indigenous approach Daisy Ocampo weaves historical methodologies oral histories archival research ethnography with Native studies and historic preservation to reveal why Native communities are the most knowledgeable and transformational caretakers of their sacred places This work transcends national borders to reveal how settler structures are sustained through time and space in the Americas Challenging these structures traditions such as the Chemehuevi Salt Songs and Caxcan Xuchitl Dance provide both an old and a fresh look at how Indigenous people are reimagining worlds that promote Indigenous to Indigenous futures through preservation Ultimately the stories of these two peoples and places in North America illuminate Indigenous sovereignty within the field of public history which is closely tied to governmental policies museums archives and agencies involved in historic preservation

World-Making Stories M. Eleanor Nevins, 2017-08 Published through the Recovering Languages and Literacies of the Americas initiative supported by the Andrew W Mellon Foundation World Making Stories is a collection of Maidu creation stories that will help readers appreciate California's rich cultural tapestry At the beginning of the twentieth century renowned storyteller Hanc ibyjim Tom Young performed Maidu and Atsugewi stories for anthropologist Ronald B Dixon who published these stories in 1912 The resulting Maidu Texts presented the stories in numbered block texts that while serving as a source of linguistic decoding also reflect the state of anthropological linguistics of the era by not conveying a sense of rhetorical or poetic composition Sixty years later noted linguist William Shipley engaged the texts as oral literature and composed a free verse literary translation which he paired with the artwork of Daniel Stolpe and published in a limited edition four volume set that circulated primarily to libraries and private collectors Here M Eleanor Nevins and the Weje ebis Keep Speaking Jamani Maidu Language Revitalization Project team illuminate these important tales in a new way by restoring Maidu elements omitted by William Shipley and by bending the translation to more closely correspond in poetic form to the Maidu original The beautifully told stories by Hanc ibyjim are accompanied by Stolpe's intricate illustrations and by personal and pedagogical essays from scholars and Maidu leaders working to revitalize the language The resulting World Making Stories is a necessity for language revitalization programs and an excellent model of indigenous community university collaboration
