While the Women Are Sleeping Javier Marías, 2010-11-29 Presents a collection of short stories including While the women are sleeping in which a man lying on the beach speculates on the lives of another pair of beach goers and The Resignation Letter of Se or de Santiesteban in which a ghost jeopardizes the job of a new teacher All Souls Javier Marías, 2013-04-23 From one of the most important voices in world literature and the award winning author of The Infatuations a darkly comic campus novel and love story about that most British of institutions Oxford University Javier Mar as is in my opinion one of the best contemporary writers J M Coetzee Nobel Prize winning author of Disgrace In All Souls a visiting Spanish lecturer viewing Oxford through a prismatic detachment is alternately amused puzzled delighted and disgusted by its vagaries of human vanity A bit lonely not always able to see his charming but very married mistress he casts about for activity he barely has to teach Yet so much goes into simply being at Oxford friendship opinion mongering one upmanship finicky exchanges of favors gossip adultery book collecting back patting backstabbing Mar as demonstrates a sweet tooth for eccentricity in this novel from one of the best contemporary writers J M Coetzee winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature Feel Free Zadie Smith, 2018-02-06 Winner of the 2018 National Book Critics Circle Award for Criticism A New York Times Notable Book From Zadie Smith one of the most beloved authors of her generation a new collection of essays Since she burst spectacularly into view with her debut novel almost two decades ago Zadie Smith has established herself not just as one of the world s preeminent fiction writers but also a brilliant and singular essayist She contributes regularly to The New Yorker and the New York Review of Books on a range of subjects and each piece of hers is a literary event in its own right Arranged into five sections In the World In the Audience In the Gallery On the Bookshelf and Feel Free this new collection poses questions we immediately recognize What is The Social Network and Facebook itself really about It s a cruel portrait of us 500 million sentient people entrapped in the recent careless thoughts of a Harvard sophomore Why do we love libraries Well run libraries are filled with people because what a good library offers cannot be easily found elsewhere an indoor public space in which you do not have to buy anything in order to stay What will we tell our granddaughters about our collective failure to address global warming So I might say to her look the thing you have to appreciate is that we d just been through a century of relativism and deconstruction in which we were informed that most of our fondest held principles were either uncertain or simple wishful thinking and in many areas of our lives we had already been asked to accept that nothing is essential and everything changes and this had taken the fight out of us somewhat Gathering in one place for the first time previously unpublished work as well as already classic essays such as Joy and Find Your Beach Feel Free offers a survey of important recent events in culture and politics as well as Smith s own life Equally at home in the world of good books and bad politics Brooklyn born rappers and the work of Swiss novelists she is by turns wry heartfelt indignant and incisive and never any less than perfect company This is literary journalism at its zenith Zadie Smith s new book Grand Union is on sale 10 8 2019

Javier Marías's Debt to Translation Gareth Wood, 2012-05-03 Javier Marías has explained many times that working as a translator of literary works from English into Spanish helped shape him as a writer. This study explores those claims by analysing two things: firstly his translations themselves and secondly seeing how those translations have left discernible traces in his own fiction.

The Infatuations Javier Marías, 2014-04-22 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE FINALIST From the award-winning internationally bestselling Spanish author of A Heart So White comes an immersive provocative novel propelled by a seemingly random murder. Sometimes startling, sometimes hilarious and always intelligent, Marías has a penetrating empathy. The New York Times Book Review Each day before work, María Dolz stops at the same café. There she finds herself drawn to a couple who is also there every morning. Observing their seemingly perfect life helps her escape the listlessness of her own. But when the man is brutally murdered and María Dolz approaches the widow to offer her condolences, what began as mere observation turns into an increasingly complicated entanglement. Invited into the widow's home, she meets and falls in love with a man who sheds disturbing new light on the crime. As María Dolz recounts this story, we are given a murder mystery brilliantly encased in a metaphysical enquiry, a novel that grapples with questions of love and death, chance and coincidence, and above all with the slippery essence of the truth and how it is told.

The Man of Feeling Javier Marías, 2014-10-07 A story of love and memory from the most subtle and gifted writer in contemporary Spanish literature. The Boston Globe and the award-winning international bestselling author of The Infatuations. On a train journey from Paris to Madrid, a young opera singer becomes fascinated by those in his compartment: a middle-aged businessman, his alluring wife, and their male traveling companion. Soon, his life of constant travel, luxury hotels, rehearsal, and performance will become entangled with these three people, and the singer will find himself fatefully consumed by Natalia's beauty. The Man of Feeling is the haunting story of the birth and death of a passion, told in retrospect. Intricately interweaving desire and memory, it explores the nature of love and asks whether we can ever truly recall something that no longer exists.

Tomás Nevinston Javier Marías, 2024-04-16 The final novel from Spain's most acclaimed writer, a novel about a charismatic half-Spanish, half-English man who is recruited by British intelligence. Javier Marías's best work, El País Retired spy Tomás Nevinston, once an agent for the British Secret Service, now living a quiet life in his hometown Madrid, is approached by his former handler, Bertram Tupra, with an offer to bring him back in from the cold for one last assignment. The mission: to go undercover again in a small Spanish town to find out which of three women who moved there a decade ago is in fact a terrorist trained by the IRA on the run after masterminding several deadly attacks. Everything about the assignment is shadowy, from exactly who is in charge to the question of what justice Nevinston will need to mete out once he unmasks the terrorist. But lured by the appeal of being back on the inside, he accepts the job. Nevinston soon becomes intimately involved with each of the three women. How or whom to choose. Under increasing pressure, he must choose and then act. Charting a world in which right and wrong, good and evil are irreparably blurred, Javier Marías takes us on a journey of rare and unforgettable suspense in this the final novel written before his untimely passing Berta Isla Javier Marías, 2019-08-06 WINNER OF SPAIN'S NATIONAL CRITICS AWARD From the award winning internationally bestselling author of The Infatuations comes a gripping novel of intrigue and missed chances at once a spy story and a profound examination of a marriage founded on concealment A masterly premise worthy of a Hitchcock adaptation The New York Times Book Review

When Berta Isla was a schoolgirl she decided she would marry Tom's Nevinson the dashing half Spanish half English boy in her class with an extraordinary gift for languages But when Tom's returns to Madrid from his studies at Oxford he is a changed man Unbeknownst to her he has been approached by an agent from the British intelligence services and he has unwittingly set in motion events that will derail forever the life they had planned With peerless insight into the most shadowed corners of the human soul Marías plunges the reader into the growing chasm between Berta and Tom's and the decisions that irreversibly change the course of the couple's fate Berta Isla is a novel of love and truth fear and secrecy buried identities and the destinies we bring upon ourselves Thus Bad Begins Javier Marías, 2016 Named a Best Book of the Year by the Boston Globe and Los Angeles Times From the internationally acclaimed author of The Infatuations comes the mesmerizing story of a couple living in the shadow of a mysterious unhappy history a novel about the cruel tender punishments we exact on those we love Madrid 1980 Juan de Vere nearly finished with his university degree takes a job as personal assistant to Eduardo Muriel an eccentric once successful film director Urbane discreet irreproachable Muriel is an irresistible idol to the young man But Muriel's voluptuous wife Beatriz inhabits their home like an unwanted ghost and on the periphery of their lives is Dr Jorge Van Vechten a family friend implicated in unsavory rumors that Muriel now asks Juan to investigate As Juan draws closer to the truth he uncovers only more questions What is at the root of Muriel's hostility toward his wife How did Beatriz meet Van Vechten What happened during the war Marías leads us deep into the intrigues of these characters through a daring exploration of rancor suspicion loyalty trust and the infinitely permeable boundaries between the deceptions perpetrated on us by others and those we inflict upon ourselves A Writing Life Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia's most important and most admired writers She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft But Garner also courts controversy not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction But who is the I in Helen Garner's work Bernadette Brennan's A Writing Life is the first full length study of Garner's forty years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner's archive and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books journals and correspondence of one of Australia's most beloved women of letters Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing literature and ethics She is the author of a number of publications including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections Just Words Australian Authors Writing for Justice UQP 2008 and Ethical Investigations Essays on Australian Literature and Poetics Vagabond 2008 She lives in Sydney Garner has always been a boundary crosser Refusing the constrictions of literary genre she has sought to write across and craft her own versions of them She readily admits to a me character in all her work That character is a carefully constructed self In her fiction she unsettles her readers assumptions about protagonists by creating Helen characters most blatantly in Little Helen s Sunday Afternoon Habe Dank and The Spare Room In so doing she demonstrates the complexity of a constructed fictional self Billed as the first full length study of Garner s 40 years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Well who wouldn t want to read that Australian Bernadette Brennan s ingenious A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which gets around the subject s resistance to biography by viewing her life through her writing as Garner herself does Susan Wyndham Best Books of 2017 Australian Book Review Brennan s depiction of Garner s fearless approach to the very difficult subjects of The First Stone Joe Cinque s Consolation and This House of Grief is beautifully modulated and a real triumph She has captured and interpreted an important writer and her work beautifully Books Publishing Brennan has produced a literary portrait that more than does its subject justice It is not a biography Garner was quite clear that she didn t want that but because Garner is so often present in her own writing it s inevitable that her life is reflected in the discussion of her works This helps put her works in context and a picture emerges of an amazing writer Bernadette Brennan has done us all a great favour in delivering this immensely enjoyable book Mark Rubbo Readings Brennan is an astute and sensitive reader of Garner s work Big Issue The writing is clear measured and graceful throughout The readings of the fiction are astute and straightforward tracing Garner s development from the allegedly unstructured Monkey Grip which in fact offers a formal equivalent to the push me pull you vagaries of love and junk through the perfection of The Children s Bach and the experiments in voice and style in Postcards from Surfers to the late style bareness and hardness of The Spare Room Sydney Morning Herald This book offers an illuminating discussion of Garner s boundary crossing work Its own magic lies in bringing elements of memoir and criticism into an absorbing conversation that begins with a rich contextualisation of Garner s work and extends into the literary and ethical questions with which Brennan has long been concerned Australian Absorbing informative and engaging read Conversation Brennan examines both assumptions by tracing Garner s steps to becoming a full time writer in a style that is both thoughtful and readable Australian Book Review Bernadette Brennan brings a calm eye and an easy grace to her descriptions of Garner s life literature and impact on Australia s cultural and socio political landscape She draws a more complex picture of one of our best known and most skilled writers than we ve enjoyed in a full length volume before A Bigger Brighter World Probably my favourite book so far this year A marvellous tribute to one of Australia s great writers Mark Rubbo The Best Books We ve Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings Bernadette Brennan s first full length study of Helen Garner s work A Writing Life has inspired me to pile Garner s books on my bedside table and to look at each of them again with fresh eyes

Between Parentheses Roberto Bolaño, 2011-05-30 Collection of most of Bolaño's newspaper columns articles many about other literary authors prefaces and texts of talks or speeches given by Bolaño during the last five years of his life

Taken together they make a surprisingly rounded whole a kind of fragmented autobiography

Introduction p 1

A Brief History of Portable Literature Enrique Vila-Matas, 2015-06-04 A reader's fictional tour of the art and lives of some of the great 20th century Surrealists

An author a version of Vila-Matas himself presents a short history of a secret society the Shandies who are obsessed with the concept of portable literature

The society is entirely imagined but in this rollicking intellectually playful book its members include writers and artists like Marcel Duchamp Aleister Crowley Witold Gombrowicz Federico García Lorca Man Ray and Georgia O'Keeffe

The Shandies meet secretly in apartments hotels and cafes all over Europe to discuss what great literature really is brief not too serious penetrating the depths of the mysterious

We witness the Shandies having adventures in stationary submarines underground caverns African backwaters and the cultural capitals of Europe

Between Eternities Javier Marías, 2018-08-28 An exhilarating collection of critical and personal writings spanning more than twenty years of work from the internationally renowned author of The Infatuations and A Heart So White

The most subtle and gifted writer in contemporary Spanish literature

The Boston Globe Javier Marías is a tireless examiner of the world around us

essayist novelist translator voracious reader enthusiastic debunker of pretension and vigorous polymath

He is able to discover what many of us fail to notice or have never put into words and he keeps looking long after most of us have turned away

This new collection of essays by turns literary philosophical and autobiographical journeys from the crumbling canals of Venice to the wide horizons of the Wild West and Marías captures each new vista with razor sharp acuity and wit

He explores with characteristic relish subjects ranging from soccer to classic cinema from comic books and toy soldiers to mortality and memory from The Most Conceited of Cities to Why Almost No One Can Be Trusted making each brilliantly and inimitably his own

Trenchant and wry subversive and penetrating

Between Eternities is a collection of dazzling intellectual curiosity offering a window into the expansive mind of the man so often said to be Spain's greatest living writer

A Companion to Javier Marías David K. Herzberger, 2011 This book provides the most comprehensive study to date of the full range of Marias writing including discussion and analysis of his literary and intellectual formation his development as a novelist and short story writer and his unique perspective offered in nearly twenty five years of newspaper columns on topics ranging from religion to football Above all Marias is examined as a writer of fictions As a translator of several canonical works from English to Spanish Marias came to appreciate the preciseness of words as well as their ambiguity their capacity to represent as well as their propensity to distort The author examines Marias s constant awareness of how language can be used to construct stories as the foundation for engaging the world as well as for imagining it The nature of Marias s storytelling and the way in which he imagines form the principal focus of this Companion Publisher description
