White Gloves And Collards A Memoir:

White Gloves and Collards Helen Pruden Kaufmann, 2013-10-25 Against the backdrop of the civil rights movement White Gloves and Collards is the story of a privileged childhood in Edenton North Carolina a small southern town that cherishes its customs and history as symbolized by the Confederate Monument at the foot of Broad Street As she copes with the untimely deaths of her parents young Helen observes how the community is coping with a different kind of loss an end to the Jim Crow rules of behavior they've always lived by With love and support from a brainy older brother an eclectic extended family many of whom are segregationists and a wise African American maid she tries to make sense of the changes taking place around her both in her personal life and in society as a whole

American Bloodlines Sonya Lea, 2025-10-07 Summer 1936 Rainey Bethea a young Black man is tried for the rape and murder of an elderly white woman The all white all male jury takes just four and a half minutes to find him guilty Bethea is hanged near the banks of the Ohio River in Owensboro Kentucky with more than twenty thousand white people in attendance The crowd turns the violent spectacle of Bethea's hanging the last documented public execution in the United States into a brutal carnival Bethea's story came to author Sonya Lea through her family and it is through her family that she reckons with its truths At her grandmother's funeral Lea received an oral history recorded by a neighbor In its pages Lea who is descended from white Kentuckians on both sides discovered that two of the spectators at Bethea's execution were her grandparents teenage newlyweds Sherrel and Frances Ralph Lea's research would also divulge that she was related to the prosecuting attorney for the Commonwealth the man considered most responsible for Bethea's hanging American Bloodlines combines memoir with reportage and cultural criticism to interrogate and complicate the traditional narrative about how lynch culture is created in families communities and institutions The essays in this collection grapple with our complicity in these atrocities including the agreement in our silences and demonstrate how we as descendants might take responsibility and bring new scrutiny to ancestral and communal crimes
