Routledge Handbook of Pan-Africanism Reiland Rabaka, 2020-04-30. The Routledge Handbook of Pan Africanism provides an international, intersectional, and interdisciplinary overview of and approach to Pan Africanism, making an invaluable contribution to the ongoing evolution of Pan Africanism and demonstrating its continued significance in the 21st century. The handbook features expert introductions to and critical explorations of the most important historic and current subjects, theories, and controversies of Pan Africanism and the evolution of black internationalism. Pan Africanism is explored and critically engaged from different disciplinary points of view, emphasizing the multiplicity of perspectives and foregrounding an intersectional approach. The contributors provide erudite discussions of black internationalism, black feminism, African feminism, and queer Pan Africanism, alongside surveys of black nationalism, black consciousness, and Caribbean Pan Africanism. Chapters on neo-colonialism, decolonization, and Africanization give way to chapters on African social movements, the African Union, and the African Renaissance. Pan African aesthetics are probed via literature and music, illustrating the black internationalist impulse in myriad continental and diasporan artists' work. Including 36 chapters by acclaimed, established, and emerging scholars, the handbook is organized into seven parts, each centered around a comprehensive theme: Intellectual origins, historical evolution, and radical politics of Pan Africanism; Pan Africanist theories; Pan Africanism in the African diaspora; Pan Africanism in Africa; Literary Pan Africanism; Musical Pan Africanism; The contemporary and continued relevance of Pan Africanism in the 21st century. The Routledge Handbook of Pan Africanism is an indispensable source for scholars and students with research interests in continental and diasporan African history, sociology, politics, economics, and aesthetics. It will also be a very valuable resource for those working in interdisciplinary fields such as African studies, African American studies, Caribbean studies, decolonial studies, postcolonial studies, women and gender studies, and queer studies.

Global Agricultural and Food Marketing in a Global Context: Advancing Policy, Management, and Innovation Maiwashe-Tagwi, Aluwani, Mawela, Ailweli Solomon, Chauke, Phineas Khazamula, 2023-03-20. Over 70% of food production is in the hands of farmers; however, numerous studies have shown that smallholder farmers do not have access to markets. The reasons for this failure have been attributed to a lack of financial resources and infrastructure. To date, no one has questioned the role that graduates, academics, agricultural economists, and agricultural extension officials play in the plight of market access. Global Agricultural and Food Marketing in a Global Context: Advancing Policy, Management, and Innovation discusses key aspects of the agricultural marketing context, including the policy environment the available local markets and how they operate the conditions and requirements for international trade the logistic system operations and the technology developments in marketing Covering topics such as produce food production and digital marketing this reference work is ideal for farmers government officials policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students

Higher Education Pathways

Paul Ashwin,M. Case,2018-12-13 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues

Measuring Transboundary Water Cooperation Saruchera, D.,Lautze, Jonathan,2015-12-31 Water cooperation has received prominent focus in the post 2015 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs While proposals for measuring water cooperation appear to be converging toward a small set of indicators the degree to which these proposed indicators draw on past work is unclear This paper mines relevant past work to generate guidance for monitoring the proposed SDG target related to transboundary water cooperation Potential measures of water cooperation were identified filtered and applied in three countries Botswana South Africa and Zimbabwe Six indicators were ultimately determined as being suitable for measuring water cooperation As the SDG process turns its focus to the selection of indicators the indicators proposed in this paper may merit consideration

African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel,Tshikolomo, Khathutshelo Alfred,2019-11-22 Development studies in developing regions such as Southern Africa rely heavily on materials developed by Europeans with a European context European dominance in development studies emanates from the fact that the discipline was first developed by Europeans Some argue that this has led to distortions in theory and practice of development in Southern Africa This book wishes to begin Africa s expedition to develop proper material to de Westernize while Africanizing the context of the scholarship of rural development African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development is an essential reference source that repositions the context of rural development studies from the Western centric knowledge system into an African context in order to solve African centered problems Featuring research on topics such as food security poverty reduction and community engagement this book is ideally designed for planners researchers practitioners policymakers government officials academicians and students seeking clarity on theory and practice of development in Africa

Chinese Investment in Africa Freedom Mazwi,George T. Mudimu,Kirk Helliker,2024-03-01 This edited volume systematically interrogates the Chinese investment presence in Africa focusing on land and agriculture mining and other infrastructural projects In doing so the form and extent of Chinese debt will be brought into perspective with comparisons made to investments in Africa emanating from metropolitan capitalism The volume examines the development potential of these investments by focusing on the labour regimes created and the effects of investments on the land based agricultural livelihoods of the African peasantry This entails the use of a political economy approach which incorporates the state international actors and local communities into the analysis with gender dynamics also of great significance Overall the contributions in this volume focus on an array of African nations with a specific focus on

Zimbabwe and they deploy a large wealth of primary field based data collected over a number of years by established and emerging scholars living and working on the continent Handbook of Migration and Health Felicity Thomas, 2016-12-30 Migration is now firmly embedded as a leading global policy issue of the twenty first century Whilst not a new phenomenon it has altered significantly in recent decades with changing demographics geopolitics conflict climate change and patterns of global development shaping new types of migration Against this evolving backdrop this Handbook offers an authoritative overview of key debates underpinning migration and health in a contemporary global context Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebeso, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timely and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research Annual Report National Research Foundation (South Africa), 2016

Religion and Intersex Stephanie A. Budwey, 2022-08-25 This book considers the situation of intersex people who have faced erasure in the areas of science law culture and theology due to the assumption that all humans are either female or male Centered in interviews conducted with German intersex Christians this book argues that moving from a paradigm of sexual dimorphism to sexual polymorphism will help promote the full humanity and flourishing of intersex people by creating a world where intersex individuals are no longer coerced and or forced to undergo non consensual medically unnecessary treatment no longer experience human rights violations because of their lack of legal protection no longer feel inhuman and Other due to epistemic injustice that stems from socio cultural norms and stereotypes are no longer told they are not made in God's image as a result of a sexually dimorphic understanding of Genesis 1:27 and no longer feel excluded and invisible in worship services that do not recognize them This combination of the practical and the spiritual allows for a reconsideration of the medical treatment and pastoral care that should be available to intersex people This book will be helpful to those in the disciplines of science law culture and theology particularly those in gender and theological studies and those already in and
