their union's structures with a view to mirror those of the multinational mining companies NUM faced Good leadership proved key to the union's success in recruiting and uniting mineworkers and NUM became an impressive school for union and political cadres producing a number of South Africa's top post-apartheid leaders An incisive analysis of leadership styles and strategies shows how the fragile balance between an increasingly distant leadership and an increasingly militant membership gradually broke down Botiveau provides a compelling narrative of NUM's powerful history and the legacy of its leadership It will appeal to a broad readership including journalists students and social sciences scholars interested in South Africa's contemporary politics and labour history      Global Africa Dorothy Hodgson, Judith Ann-Marie Byfield, 2017-08 Global Africa will complicate conventional views of Africa as a place of violence despair and victimhood a place and space that other people states and organizations act on and steal from Instead they aim to document some of the significant global connections circulations and contributions that African people ideas and goods have made in the world not just in the United States but in South Asia Latin America Europe and elsewhere They will showcase new framings of Africa but will not romanticize the conditions and circumstances in which too many people on the continent currently live The essays in this volume will amplify those voices that offer complex and insightful explanations strategies for solutions and inspiration for the future Provided by publisher      The Archaeology of Southern Africa Peter Mitchell, 2024-06-06 Some of humanity's earliest ancestors lived in southern Africa and evidence from sites there has inspired key debates on human origins and the emergence of complex cognition Building on its rich rock art heritage archaeologists have developed theoretical work that continues to influence rock art studies worldwide with the relationship between archaeological and anthropological data central to understanding past hunter-gatherer pastoralist and farmer communities alike New work on pre-colonial states contests models that previously explained their emergence via external trade while the transformations wrought by European colonialism are being rewritten to emphasise Indigenous agency feeding into efforts to decolonise the discipline itself Inhabited by humans longer than almost anywhere else and with an unusually varied complex past southern Africa thus has much to contribute to archaeology worldwide In this revised and updated edition Peter Mitchell provides a comprehensive and extensively illustrated synthesis of its archaeology over more than three million years      A Dictionary of World History Thomas Edmund Farnsworth Wright, Edmund Wright, 2015 As well as over 4000 clear and concise entries this dictionary also contains biographies of key figures in world history Other useful features include subject entries on religious and political movements maps and full international coverage      Between Time and Space Sulevi Riukulehto, 2015-05-13 In new regional history national states are not seen to play a special role Regions are understood as evolutionary processes in which time and space history and geography are connected in research questions To illustrate the entanglement of time and space in various forms and ages this volume explores regional history from around the globe The editor's review of the various works written under the heading of regional history serves as an introduction to this theme This volume shows how historical events and changes have influenced the reproduction of regions in Czechia it will also highlight how regional identities were manifested in a cultural form in romantic operas of post Napoleonic Europe The historically rich West Wits Line gold mining region in the West Rand of South Africa is also examined within a regional history framework with the broad theme of ecohealth and well being Through case studies the volume also explores the history of governance and planning in New Zealand s largest city region Auckland as well as the recent economic history of the State of Mato Grosso in Brazil Finally it also brings the idea of regional history to the most personal level of historical consciousness by examining the experiential shaping of home in the broader meaning of Heimat as a question of belonging somewhere both in time and in space Farmer's Weekly ,1923 South Africa Yearbook ,2009 Politics By Other Means Richard Abel,2015-12-22

Politics by Other Means explores the fundamental question of how law can constrain political power by offering a pathbreaking account of the triumphant final decade of the struggle against apartheid Richard Abel presents case studies of ten major legal campaigns including challenges to pass laws black trade union demands for recognition state terror censorship resistance to the independent homelands and treason trials Soil Degradation and Restoration in Africa Rattan Lal,B. A. Stewart,2019-07-09 Soil degradation is a widespread problem in Africa resulting in decreased agricultural productivity while demand for food continues to increase Degradation is caused by accelerated erosion acidification contamination depletion of soil organic matter and plant nutrients and salinization The major cause of soil degradation in Africa is uncontrolled and excessive grazing in the savanna regions followed by deforestation and the use of inappropriate and extractive farming practices Perpetual neglect of the health of soils in Africa can exacerbate the already serious problems of food and nutritional insecurity and environmental degradation Food and nutritional security of the growing population of Africa can only be achieved if degraded soils are restored and soils of agroecosystems are managed prudently and sustainably Ignoring soils and taking the fragile finite and precious soil resources for granted is the principal cause of poverty hunger and environmental degradation The downward spiral must be reversed through soil restoration measures based on translating science into action This book describes the soils of Africa processes of soil degradation extent and severity of soil degradation and the impacts of degradation processes on food and nutritional security Features Explores the extent and severity of soil degradation in Africa Analyzes the cause effect relationship between anthropogenic activities and soil degradation Reviews processes of soil degradation in Africa including erosion salinization nutrient depletion and decline of soil organic matter Addresses the effect of climate change on soil degradation in Africa Explains how soil degradation causes food and nutritional insecurity Part of the Advances in Soil Sciences series this volume is specifically devoted to the processes and factors that cause soil degradation and the challenges and potential for remediation and restoration of soil health in Africa The ^AOxford Handbook of Deaf Studies in Language Marc Marschark,Patricia Elizabeth Spencer,2015-12-08 Language development and the challenges it can present for individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing
