Drivers of micronutrient policy change in Zambia Haggblade, Steven, Babu, Suresh Chandra, Harris, Jody, Mkandawire, Elizabeth, Nthani, Dorothy, Hendriks, Sheryl L., 2016-04-01 This review of the micro nutrient policy process in Zambia serves as a companion piece to two parallel studies in Malawi and South Africa All three studies employ the Kaleidoscope Model of policy change to trace the causal forces leading to key micro nutrient policy decisions in each of the three countries After outlining the overall micronutrient policy process in Zambia the study focuses on policy decisions affecting three micro nutrients iodine iron and Vitamin A Although iodine deficiency has dropped precipitously as a result of Zambia's salt iodization mandate progress in combatting iron and Vitamin A deficiencies has proven more difficult As a result micro nutrient policies have changed over time in an effort to find effective tools for combatting these lingering micro nutrient deficiencies and the considerable health risks they impose The analysis in this paper traces the evolution of policies adopted through multiple iterations beginning in 1978 and running through to the present time To supplement the voluminous published and grey literature on micro nutrient status and policies in Zambia the research team conducted semi structured interviews with several dozen policy stakeholders in Zambia in June and July 2015 using a standardized interview guide

Public Policy in International Economic Law Diane Desierto, 2015-02-19 States reject inequality when they choose to ratify the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights ICESCR but to date the ICESCR has not yet figured prominently in the policy calculus behind States international economic decisions This book responds to the modern challenge of operationalizing the ICESCR particularly in the context of States decisions within international trade finance and investment Differentiating between public policy mechanisms and institutional functional mandates in the international trade finance and investment systems this book shows legal and policy gateways for States to feasibly translate their fundamental duties to respect protect and fulfil economic social and cultural rights into their trade finance and investment commitments agreements and contracts It approaches the problem of harmonizing social protection objectives under the ICESCR with a State's international economic treaty obligations from the designing and interpreting international treaty texts up to the institutional monitoring and empirical analysis of ICESCR compliance In examining public policy options the book takes into account around five decades of States implementation of social protection commitments under the ICESCR its normative evolution through the UN Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and the Committee s expanded fact finding and adjudicative competences under the Optional Protocol to the ICESCR as well as the critical dialectical and deliberative roles of diverse functional interpretive communities within international trade finance and investment law Ultimately the book shows how States ICESCR commitments operate as the normative foundation of their trade finance and investment decisions Advances and New Perspectives in Higher Education Quality Maria Esteban, Ana B. Bernardo, Ellian Tuero Herrero, Joana R. Casanova, Antonio Cervero, 2024-04-22

The changes that have occurred in today s society require Higher Education to be highly efficient in the academic and professional preparation of young people who enter university For that reason universities around the globe have been advocating in recent years for an improvement in the quality of teaching learning processes As an example the World University Consortium 2023 currently presents among its most urgent and priority objectives the identification of the best evaluative practices of the educational processes that are carried out at the University as well as the recognition of the actions aimed at improving educational processes based on scientific evidence In this way it seeks to distinguish all those educational actions that are at the forefront going from actions at the micro level such as individual teaching practices in the classroom such as the application of the flipped classroom or the use of augmented reality up to actions taken at the macro level such as those proposed in the Horizon Europe 2020 strategy
