Indigenous African Popular Music, Volume 1 Abiodun Salawu, Israel A. Fadipe, 2022-05-31. This volume explores the nature, philosophies and genres of indigenous African popular music, focusing on how indigenous African popular music artistes are seen as prophets and philosophers and how indigenous African popular music depicts the world. Indigenous African popular music has long been underappreciated in communication scholarship. However, understanding the nature and philosophies of indigenous African popular music reveals an untapped diversity which only be unraveled by knowledge of the myriad cultural backgrounds from which its genres originate. Indigenous African popular musicians have become repositories of indigenous cultural traditions and cosmologies. With a particular focus on scholarship from Nigeria, Zimbabwe and South Africa, this volume explores the work of these pioneering artists and their protégés who are resiliently sustaining, recreating and popularising indigenous popular music in their respective African communities and at the same time propagating the communal views about African philosophies and the temporal and spiritual worlds in which they exist.

Shaping Social Justice Leadership Linda L. Lyman, Jane Strachan, Angeliki Lazaridou, 2012-05-31. Shaping Social Justice Leadership: Insights of Women Educators Worldwide contains evocative portraits of twenty-three women educators and leaders from around the world whose actions are shaping social justice leadership. Woven from words of their own narratives, the women's voices lift off the page into readers' hearts and minds to inspire and inform. Representing fourteen countries, these members of Women Leading Education Across the Continents (WLE) portray the complexity of twenty-first century leadership. The variety of continents, countries, personal backgrounds, professional positions and ages of those who contributed narratives give the book credibility. The portraits are framed with relevant scholarship and grouped thematically. Each carefully crafted portrait highlights an aspect of a chapter theme followed by practical insights. The chapters develop a range of cultural comparisons, illustrate imperatives for social justice leadership and examine values, skills, resilience, leadership pathways and actions. The authors invite all educators, both women and men, to shape social justice leadership through collective efforts around the globe that create new possibilities for a more just world.
