Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J. Seale,2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration Research Handbook of Careers in the Gig Economy Jos Akkermans, Anne

Keegan, François Pichault, 2025-03-12 This Research Handbook explores how gig workers careers fit into the evolving employment landscape It provides essential insights into how individuals can navigate the gig economy successfully and sustainably The SAGE Handbook of Learning and Work Margaret Malloch, Len Cairns, Karen Evans, Bridget N.

O'Connor, 2021-10-13 The first two decades of the 21st century have contributed a growing body of research theorisation and empirical studies on learning and work This Handbook takes the consideration of this topic into a new realm moving beyond the singular linking of identity learning and work to embrace a more holistic appreciation of learners and their life long learning Across 40 chapters learners learning and work are situated within educational organisational social economic and political contexts Taken together these contributions paint a picture of evolving perspectives of how scholars from around the world view developments in both theory and practice and map the shifts in learning and work over the past two decades Part 1 Theoretical perspectives of learning and work Part 2 Intersections of learning and work in organisations and beyond Part 3 Learning throughout working lives and beyond Part 4 Issues and challenges to learning and work
