University Of Pretoria Prospects 2016:

From #RhodesMustFall Movements to #HumansMustFall Movements Artwell Nhemachena, Jairo Kangira, 2021-05-14 Might it be possible that the world is being migrated into an era where the imperial periphery will be increasingly governed through Artificial Intelligence AI and robotics designed to replace human beings Celebrated as efficient strong unfailing tireless precise and beyond corruption AI and robots are set to replace African leaders who are imperially deemed to be and consistently condemned as corrupt failed weak and inefficient But if these AI and robots are neo imperial tools and machinations the million dollar question is whether empire is not returning to recolonise the supposedly inefficient Africans via the new technologies and machinism Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has enplaced what it calls liberation technologies designed to supposedly liberate African youths from their own states and governments led by liberation movements Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has placed its own NGOs CSOs spewing liberal ideologies designed to ostensibly liberate African youths from their own supposedly failed and corrupt states and government leaders With African youths citizens allying not with their liberation movements but with the liberation technologies and liberal NGOs CSOs it is not surprising why African citizens oppose their states led Fast Track Land Redistribution Programmes while ironically they happily celebrate Fast Tracked COVID 19 Vaccines Positing the notion of HumansMustFall movements this book underscores ways in which empire is in a process of eternal return to 21st century Africa The book is crucial for scholars and activists in political science government studies sociology anthropology cultural studies history languages and communication studies security studies military studies and development studies Hidden Pretoria Johan Swart, 2019-10-01 Despite being South Africa's capital city Pretoria has often played a supporting role to bold and brash Johannesburg and Cape Town's cosmopolitan charms However when it comes to architectural heritage the Jacaranda City is well endowed From the skyline dominating Union Buildings and Voortrekker Monument to the imposing edifices of its administrative precincts Pretoria might be deserving of a second moniker the city of sandstone brick and granite But when you look beyond the impressive faades soaring columns and linear planes of buildings that were intended to convey power and authority you'll find light filled interiors embellished with decorative touches that are only hinted at from the outside Murals mosaics domes galleries stained glass windows gleaming brass and impressive woodwork are often hidden from view behind doors that are closed to the public And even those museums buildings and places of worship that are open to all have noteworthy architectural and design features that are easily overlooked The history of the city and of the country has been played out in many of the buildings featured in Hidden Pretoria This book captures facets of our diverse heritage historic and contemporary so that a new generation might recognise the need to embrace the past in order to build our common future Integrating Predation Risk Across Scales: From Neurons to Ecosystems and Milliseconds to Generations Jacqueline Jeannette Blundell, Evan Preisser, 2020-06-04 Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimaged to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities Research Anthology on Vocational Education and Preparing Future Workers Management Association, Information Resources, 2022-04-08 Many students across the globe seek further education for future employment opportunities Vocational schools offer direct training to develop the skills needed for employment New emphasis has been placed on reskilling the workforce as technology has infiltrated all aspects of business Teachers must be prepared to teach these new skill requirements to allow students to directly enter the workforce with the necessary competences intact As the labor market and industry are changing it is essential to stay current with the best teaching practices within vocational education courses to provide the future workforce with the proper tools and knowledge The Research Anthology on Vocational Education and Preparing Future Workers discusses the development opportunities and challenges of vocational education courses and how to best prepare students for future employment It presents the best practices in curriculum development for vocational education courses and analyzes student outcomes Covering topics such as industry academia collaboration student satisfaction and competency based education this major

Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 1 ,2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on The Perspectives of Higher Education COVID as a Catalyst for Change Embracing Online Learning as a Response to COVID and Post Covid The Way Forward It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Decolonising Media and Communication Studies Education in Sub-Saharan Africa Selina Linda Mudavanhu,Shepherd Mpfu,Kezia Batisai,2023-10-27 The book provides insights on decolonising media and communication studies education from diverse African scholars at different stages of their careers These academics located on the continent and in the diaspora share an interest in decolonising higher education broadly and media and communication studies teaching and learning in particular Although many African countries gained flag independence from different European colonial powers between the 1950s and the 1970s this book argues that former colonies remain ensnared in a colonial power matrix Many African universities did not jettison ways of teaching and learning established during colonialism and even those journalism communication and media studies training programmes which were established after the attainment of flag independence did not place decolonial agendas at the front and centre when setting them up Starting with big picture thematic questions around decolonisation the book goes on to consider what the implications of change would be for students and instructors before reflecting on how far it is possible to decolonise curricula and syllabi and what this might look like in practice across a range of subject areas and country contexts Overall this book presents a nuanced picture of what a decolonised media and communication studies education could look like in sub Saharan Africa This book is essential for researchers in Africa in disciplines such as media and communication studies journalism film studies cultural studies and higher education studies More broadly the concepts and ideas on decolonising teaching and learning discussed in the book are relevant to instructors in any discipline who are interested in doing the decolonial work of contesting coloniality Truth ,1883 Resilience in a VUCA world Annette Potgieter,2023-03-01 This book sheds light on how humans deal with adversity especially in uncertain and turbulent times as seen during the COVID 19 pandemic Resilience theory has become popular in scholarly discourse and the term is difficult to define as so many opinions exist This book aims to engage critically with resilience theory as a scholarly debate from the unique vantage point of the world of social work as well as theology This specific aspect of originality contributes to the generation of new knowledge in the broad field of social sciences and humanities The inception of the book stems from an interdisciplinary conference held at Hugenote Kollege Wellington where scholars from social work as well as theology engaged in a discourse on resilience Professor Adrian van Breda a specialist in resilience theory and from the social work department of the University of Johannesburg was one of the keynote speakers inspiring scholars to understand what is meant by resilience Professor Yolanda Dreyer from the University of Pretoria and a seasoned theologian and prolific writer on trauma and resilience was also a keynote speaker providing insights from a theological perspective The collaboration between these two fields of thought is unique and rendered new insights into engaging with resilience Different methodologies and perspectives from researchers are prevalent as contributors are from different scholarly fields The book ranges from linguistical liturgical philosophical practical autoethnographical anthropological sociological and online methodological approaches contributing to ways to deal with traumatic turbulent and trying times The book is divided into four main themes that stood out from the results obtained at the conference namely 1 religious imagination and resilience 2 communities and resilience 3 online teaching and resilience and 4 the resilience of philosophical questions Identity Construction and Tourism Consumption Erdal Arslan,İnci Oya Coşkun,2022-10-26 This book explores how identity plays a pivotal role in tourism consumption Almost all tourism related consumption studies underestimate or refer inadequately to identity s relationship with tourism consumption As identity phenomenon is considerably a new subject in the tourism literature this book examines its relationship with the consumption theory It is of interest to readers curious about how pre during and post consumption activities affect a person s identity and vice versa This book contains an analysis of consumption theories and a summary of literature identifying the phenomenon s evolution through pre modern modern and post modern periods In this context this book aims to enlighten the interactions between identity construction and tourism consumption The grounded theory one of the qualitative research approaches was applied to accomplish the relevant purpose and in depth interviews were recruited following the method approach stages to enable the researchers to gain new insights into the subject By presenting the identity tended tourism consumption model this book provides a set of profound contributions to the relevant literature and insight for practitioners decision makers and entrepreneurs This book attempts to clarify the tourists consumption process and understand how the interactions between identity construction and tourism consumption work The qualitative methodology grounded theory allows in depth analysis and insights of the participants of the study on their definitions of themselves as human beings and as tourists decisions on their travel plans their considerations motivations to travel and destination preferences interactions with others vacation activities evaluations on their travel experiences et cetera Therefore this book appeals to readers of marketing business operations sociology and economics
