Labour Migration, Human Trafficking and Multinational Corporations Ato Quayson, Antonela Arhin, 2013-06-19 Although much literature on human trafficking focuses on sex trafficking a great deal of human trafficking results from migrant workers compelled by economic deprivation in their home countries to seek better life opportunities abroad especially in agriculture construction and domestic work Such labour migration is sometimes legal and well managed but sometimes not so with migrant workers frequently threatened or coerced into entering debt bondage arrangements and ending up working in forced labour situations producing goods for illicit markets This book fills a substantial gap in the existing literature given that labour trafficking is a much more subtle form of exploitation than sex trafficking It discusses how far large multinational corporations are involved whether intentionally or unintentionally in human trafficking for the purposes of labour exploitation They explore how far corporations are driven to seek cheap labour by the need to remain commercially competitive and examine how the problem often lies with corporations subcontractors who are not as well controlled as they might be The essays in the volume also outline and assess measures being taken by governments and international agencies to eradicate the problem

Maritime Security Cooperation in the Gulf of Guinea Kamal-Deen Ali, 2015-07-28 In Maritime Security Cooperation in the Guinea Prospects and Challenges Kamal Deen Ali provides ground breaking analyses of the maritime security situation in the Gulf of Guinea and its implications for shipping energy security sustainable fisheries as well as national and regional security The book juxtaposes the growing strategic importance of the Gulf of Guinea against the rising insecurity in the maritime domain especially from piracy Ali points out key gaps in prevailing regional and international approaches to maritime security cooperation in the Gulf of Guinea and sets out several suggestions for combating piracy as well as other maritime security threats while effectively enhancing maritime security cooperation in the region

A West African Model to Address Human Trafficking Paul V.I. Sidlawinde Karenga, 2022-02-02 This book describes the nature of trafficking in persons in West Africa focusing on labor and sexual exploitation in the region and recommends tailor made solutions established by the Catholic Church in light of governmental authorities failure to effectively combat this scourge of humanity While states efforts to fulfill their international obligations in developing anti trafficking legislations are recognized their failure to carry out prosecutions of offenders and ensure protection of the victims reveals that law alone is not a sufficient instrument for realizing human rights and improving people s lives Faced with the sobering background of less than successful efforts by governmental entities to end the trade in humans this research study recommends adopting essential elements of Catholic social teaching which rests on the inherent dignity of human beings allowing the development of political socio cultural and religious reforms that will increase the effectiveness of existing legislation designed to combat trafficking This faith based approach highlights the role that religion may play in fulfilling the discretionary provisions of the Palermo Protocol by promoting the welfare and protecting the life and dignity of the victims Additionally religion is composed of sound moral ethics that determine people s behavior to refrain from the sinful conduct of trafficking It also creates a sense of ethical responsibility that promotes supply chain transparency and ethical purchasing as well as advocating social reforms and anti trafficking legislations initiatives In fact the author s approach may be a model for other regions in the world and will be of interest to scholars law and policy makers human rights advocates and law enforcement agents working in the field of trafficking in persons

Globalization and Its Impact on Violence Against Vulnerable Groups Boskovic, Milica S., 2019-08-16 Violence is most common when there is a power disparity between two groups of people and those with less power are far more likely to become the victim in a violent situation Environment has as much influence on whether or not violence will occur as the person or people involved and this relationship has drawn the attention of researchers worldwide Globalization and Its Impact on Violence Against Vulnerable Groups is an essential source that provides research that delves deeply into occurrences of violence and the environmental and personal influences that lead to violence in order to better understand and prevent it from happening Featuring a wide range of topics such as e blackmail human displacement and psychology this book is ideal for criminologists law enforcement psychologists therapists academicians sociologists anthropologists government officials researchers and students
