Something definitely had to be done and she was just the person to do it! She snipped the tent as quietly as she could and stepped out of it and lay on her back. She switched on her torch and started tiptoeing across the open lawn. Looking back, the tent had already blended into the darkness and Holly had to admit it all looked very different without anybody around.

Before she had time to take another step, the night was filled with a terrible noise and a echoed in the distance. Holly froze but her mind was racing. That was surely a lion. There was no other sound quite like it. She shone her torch around but no one had moved and nothing had moved. Suddenly she couldn't think of anything except how loudly it would be to be back in her sleeping bag.

Holly turned around and ran.
