Group,2014-12-08 Indeed since the end of apartheid in 1994 South Africa has become a major diplomatic player both on the African continent as well as further afield Despite the size of South Africa's economy the country currently faces a number of major economic challenges As of the end of July 2014 the unemployment rate was at 25.5% according to data from Statistics South Africa which was among the highest in the world While the government's long term development plans are generally highly regarded delivery and execution has occasionally been problematic While there are major hurdles that must be cleared given the country's strong institutions and the rapid pace of economic expansion over the past two decades South Africa should be able to look forward to 20 more years of peace and steady sustained economic growth A Minimally

Good Life Nicole Hassoun,2024-07-12 What do we owe to each other simply out of respect or concern for our common humanity What can we claim The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as well as many states constitutions embody competing answers to these questions Different accounts of what we owe to others out of concern for our common humanity ground divergent accounts of the basic minimum just societies and the international community must help people secure A Minimally Good Life argues that concern for our common humanity requires helping others live minimally good lives when doing so does not require sacrificing our own ability to live well enough This it suggests provides a unified answer to the question of what we must give to and can demand from others as a basic minimum More precisely Nicole Hassoun argues that people must obtain the things that let them secure the relationships pleasures knowledge appreciation worthwhile activities and other things that a reasonable and caring person free from coercion and constraint would set as a minimal standard of justifiable aspiration That is as reasonable caring free people we should put ourselves into each other's shoes and think about what we need to live well enough as each person Hassoun makes this case by engaging with the main competitors in the literature those that offer different accounts of the basic minimum and the limits of our obligations She then defends a new way of helping people in present and future generations reach the sufficiency threshold and of responding to apparent tragedy when helping everyone seems impossible
