Up Board Of Madrasa Education Lucknow:

Pedagogy of Islam Mujibul Hasan Siddiqui, 2020-01-01 As commonly understood pedagogy is the approach to teaching. It refers to the theory and practice of learning and how this process influences and is influenced by the social, political and psychological development of learners. Initially, religious traditions embody inherent pedagogical perspectives, a way of teaching religion. And especially among Muslim scholarship, conceptual aspects of a philosophy of education rooted in Islam have been articulated but often piecemeal, making it quite inaccessible to Islamic schools today. In fact, the real challenge has been in synthesising philosophies of Islamic pedagogy in a way that is relevant and applicable to contemporary schools. The present book, titled Pedagogy of Islam, consists of twelve chapters penned by various renowned teachers, teacher trainers, and researchers working at different universities and institutes of higher learning. All crucial issues like conceptual and historical aspects of Islam, aims and objectives of education, methods of teaching and learning, curriculum development, reform, lesson planning in Islamic pedagogy, etc. are given elaborate treatment herein. Beyond the Madrasa Nilanjana Gupta, 2022-12-30 This book looks at madrasas and educational institutions run by Muslim communities in India, focusing on the history, social relevance, and importance of these institutions. It provides a sensitive and in-depth analysis of the push and pull of tradition, religiosity, and modernity within these establishments. The book studies several institutions in Kozhikode, Surat, Mumbai, Hyderabad, Barak Valley in Assam, Ladakh, Delhi, and several cities in Uttar Pradesh, and examines new initiatives, curricula, models of education, and professional training being offered. It contextualises educational reforms in madrasas in response to changing policies and larger socio-economic realities in contemporary India. It also interrogates stereotypes associated with Islam and madrasa education, paying particular attention to their syllabi and desired outcomes. This book also looks at the roles and positions of women in these institutions. Emphasising the long and complex history of Muslim communities and madrasas, the book showcases the remarkable diversity of approaches and pedagogical practices which combine deeni and duniyati education across India today. This book will be of interest to students and researchers of the history of education, religious education, comparative education, and sociology. It will also be useful to people working with NGOs and policymakers in the field of educational reform and planning. Muslims of Uttar Pradesh Amir Ullah Khan, Abdul Shaban, Venkatanarayana Motkuri, 2025-09-29 This book provides a comprehensive look into the development challenges and critical socio-economic issues of the Muslim communities in Uttar Pradesh, India's most populous state and home to one of its largest Muslim populations. Well known for its syncretic culture, benevolent kings, and nawabs, Uttar Pradesh has also been a region that has historically experienced significant religious politics and communal violence. This book moves beyond these sectoral approaches and attempts to present a holistic, detailed, and contemporary perspective on the development of Muslims in the state. It traces the complex sectarian, caste-based, occupational, and regional diversities within the Muslim population in Uttar Pradesh and investigates the intersections of identity, social stratification, and development. Drawing on detailed empirical research the volume explores critical issues such as educational and occupational mobility health disparities livelihood patterns migration and access to financial services It highlights the persistent inequalities faced by Muslims in the state and examines how historical and contemporary processes including sectarian divides caste hierarchies political marginalisation and policy shortcomings have shaped their current realities This book along with its companion volume Development Challenges of Muslims in Uttar Pradesh will be of interest to students and researchers of politics development studies anthropology human geography sociology and minority studies It will also be of relevance to those in development administration civil society organizations and the general reader interested in development and deprivation in the state or Hindu Muslim politics Madrasa Education in India Kuldip Kaur, 1990 Islamic Education, Diversity and National Identity Jan-Peter Hartung, Helmut Reifeld, 2006-01-04 This collection of essays considers the position of Madrasa education in a post 9 11 world The authors question whether the Dini Madaris Muslim educational institutions are linked to terrorism and explore both the transparency of funding and patronage and whether there are political implications to this educational system Bastions of The Believers Yoginder Sikand, 2005-08-24 A reasoned objective examination of the role of madrasas The emergence of radical Islamist movements in various parts of the world the rise and fall of the Taliban in Afghanistan the 9 11 attacks widespread vilification spearheaded by Hindutva groups all these and more have made madrasas a much talked about institution Focussing on the madrasas of India Bastions of the Believers seeks to critically interrogate sensationalist and stereotypical images of the madrasas by highlighting their diversity and the complex social roles that they play in the lives of many Muslims Madrasas as a rule represent a conservative form of theology and jurisprudence that is in many ways ill suited to a modern pluralistic society Much of what is taught in madrasas is outdated and unscientific the Deoband madrasa for instance still insists that the sun revolves around the earth and it has special seating arrangements for invisible jinns Yet obscurantism need not necessarily lead to militancy and hostility against others For instance in the decades leading to India's independence the Deobandis representing an extreme form of religious conservatism insisted on Hindu Muslim amity and a joint struggle for a free and united India It is this integrated view of madrasas and a more liberal and open understanding of Islam and indeed of all faiths which Yoginder Sikand seeks to promote for he believes this is one of the principal duties confronting committed believers if we have to learn to live together despite our differences Bastions of the Believers covers a wide range of thought provoking issues from the origins and development of the institution to critiques of madrasa curricula and the alleged links between madrasas and Islamist militancy making this a must read for all those interested in creating and preserving a just social order Alpjan, 2006 Education as Social Action A. Swain, 2005-06-01 Education plays a very important role in breaking the cycle of poverty and increasing opportunity Various forms of social movements play an important role in providing educational opportunities to communities and social groups that might otherwise be excluded filling the gap left by the state This book critically examines the origin and outcome of social action for
