followed by a short reading passage to set the hook and encourage the young person to read the rest of the book on their own. Further, the book contains several hundred additional recommended titles. The books selected for this collection were chosen following the criteria of reluctant reader books created by the Quick Picks committee sponsored by the Young Adult Library Services Association. While these guidelines were designed for young adult books, they also work well for middle grade books. The criteria include clear writing, no convoluted long sentences with sophisticated vocabulary, high interest hook in the first few pages, well-defined characters, interesting plot, and familiar themes.

Children's Book-a-Day Almanac
 Anita Silvey, 2012-10-30. An expert on children's literature provides a worthwhile resource for teachers, librarians, and parents. Booklist. The Children's Book a Day Almanac is a new way to discover a great children's book every day of the year. This fresh, inventive reference book is a dynamic way to showcase the gems, both new and old, of children's literature. Each page features an event of the day, a children's book that relates to that event, and a list of other events that took place on that day. Always informative and often surprising, celebrate a year of literature for children with The Children's Book a Day Almanac. This has solid possibilities as a springboard for daily reading and writing activities in the classroom or as simply a book focused way to start the day. Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books.
