

QuickBooks

The accounting tools you need to manage & monitor business for success

- Selling to and buying from customers
- Creating sales and purchase orders
- Tracking inventory
- Managing expenses
- Paying bills
- Managing payroll
- Managing taxes

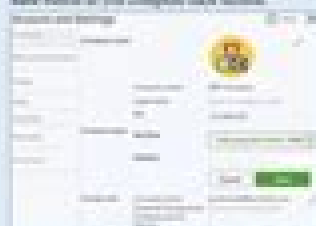

Getting Started

You'll need some basic information handy to set up your company in QuickBooks Online.

- Company name, contact information, and logo
- Business structure (e.g., LLC or S corporation) and tax ID number
- Accounting basis (cash or accrual)
- All business locations
- Applicable sales tax percentages and taxing entities (e.g., State of TX)
- Day payment methods
- Customer payment terms

Set Up Your Company

- Click on the gear icon on the upper-right side of your screen.
- Choose Account and Settings under the Your Company heading.
- You'll see seven tabs on the left side of your screen:
 1. Company
 2. Billing & Subscriptions
 3. Taxes
 4. Sales
 5. Expenses
 6. Payments
 7. Advanced
- Start with the Company tab and enter your company's information on each of the fields. Click on the green Save button on the right to save each section.

EIN As you start to type in the Business box, a comprehensive list will appear. You can choose an entry from the list or type in your own description.

Manage Your QBO Account

- The Billing & Subscriptions tab contains the information about your contract with QBO.
- The QuickBooks section details your contract plan details and payment method.
- The Payroll section gives you the option of subscribing to the QuickBooks payroll service for an additional fee.
- The Payments section lets your customers pay online directly from their accounts (if a business you set up a merchant account).

Set Up Your Sales Information

Enter information about what you're selling, how you'll make sales, and how you'll bill customers.

- Click on the gear icon on the upper-right side of your screen.
- Choose Account and Settings under the Your Company heading.
- Click on the Sales tab on the left side of your screen. This tab includes eight sections:

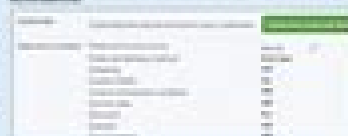

Customers

- Customize your customer forms by selecting your preferred template and font.

- Click the Company font and font buttons. You'll be brought to a Custom Form Styles page where you can select the fonts to use.
- Style how you choose from five template forms.
- Appearance lets you add your company's logo to forms, choose a font, and set the margins for your customer forms.
- Header lets you enter the information you want displayed at the top of your invoices and other customer forms (e.g., business name, address, and payment terms).
- Footer lets you customize the information that will appear on the bottom of your forms.

Set Your Default Sales Form Content

- Select your preferred default payment terms using the drop-down menu (you can still set different payment terms for individual customers).
- Choose your preferred default delivery method by clicking the drop-down menu and choosing:
 - Print later if you plan to print out invoices and send them through the mail.
 - Send later if you plan to email invoices to customers.
- If you sell and ship products, click on the shipping box or you can include tracking information and shipping fee on your invoices.
- Add custom fields if you want to include information on your invoices that wouldn't otherwise appear:
 - Choose Allowed if the information will only be seen and used by your company.
 - Choose Public if the information will display to your customers.
- If you want to use your own transaction numbering system instead of the QBO default for customers, invoices, and receipts, click on the Custom transaction numbers box.
 - This box is most often used when transferring from different accounting software.
- If you perform services, click on the Service date box to include that information on invoices, as the service date may be different than the invoice date.
- If you offer plan to offer customer discounts, click Discount to turn this feature on.
- If you collect cash to collect customer deposits, click Deposit to turn this feature on.
- If you operate an industry in your industry, click Age allowance to turn this feature on.
- Once you've selected all of your sales form content, make sure to click the green Save button on the right to save the information.

Products & Services

- Click the Products and Services box to set up service details if you want to:
 - Add a product/service without a cost value (e.g., consulting fee for quantity and price in bill).
 - Track inventory as you invoice customers.
- Note: You must be using the inventory function in QBO Plus or QBO Advanced to use this.

Payment Tracking

- Click Payment tracking if you'll send multiple partial invoices for a single job.

- Note: This could be a long-term project where you bill at specific time periods or milestones.

Messages

Click Messages to create emails that will be sent with invoices (and other sales forms) to your customers. The tab contains the subject line and the message content.

Reminders

Click Reminders to automatically send email reminders to customers if their invoices aren't paid by the due date.

Online Banking

Click Online Banking to send customer invoices by email that include remittance or email billing to the email body.

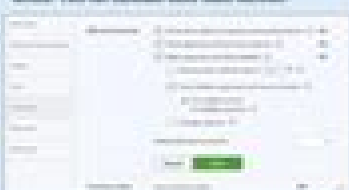

Statements

Click Statements to send customers monthly statements of their account and balance due.

Set Up Your Expenses Information

Enter information about how you'll track expenses and pay bills.

- Click on the gear icon on the upper-right side of your screen.
- Choose Account and Settings under the Your Company heading.
- Click on the Expenses tab on the left side of your screen. This tab includes three main sections:

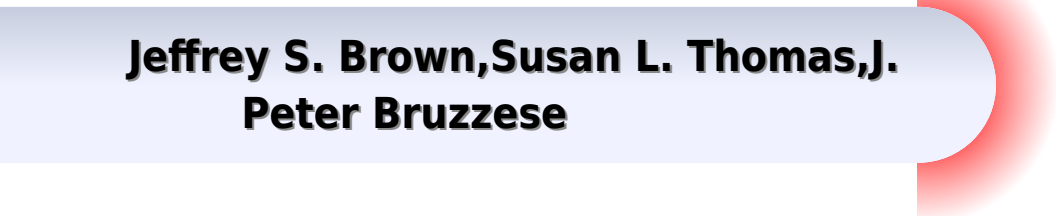

Bills & Expenses

- Click the New Item button on the expense and purchase forms box to create a new, detailed product and service table on all of your purchase orders forms. This lets you maintain everything you buy for easier tracking.
- Click the Track expenses and items by customer box when purchasing a service or an item for a particular customer. Including this feature will add an extra line on your purchase forms so you can link purchases to specific customers.
- Click the Make expense and items billable box to easily add purchase information to customer invoices. This adds a checkbox on forms in QBO so that you when you're ready to invoice a customer that item is billable (note that you've purchased it already to that customer). Checking this box triggers additional options.
