Guide, 1999 Mulan Sue Davis, 1998-07 Introduction to Transgender Studies Ardel Haefele-Thomas, 2019-02-05

This is the first introductory textbook intended for transgender trans studies at the undergraduate level. The book can also be used for related courses in LGBTQ, queer, and gender feminist studies. It encompasses and connects global contexts intersecting identities, historic and contemporary issues, literature, history, politics, art, and culture. Ardel Haefele Thomas embraces the richness of intersecting identities: how race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, class, nation, religion, and ability have cross-influenced to shape the transgender experience and trans culture across and beyond the binary. Written by an accomplished teacher with experience in a wide variety of higher learning institutions, this new text inspires readers to explore not only contemporary transgender issues and experiences but also the global history of gender diversity through the ages. Introduction to Transgender Studies features a welcoming approach that creates a safe space for a wide range of students, from those who have never thought about gender issues to those who identify as transgender, trans, nonbinary, agender, and/or gender expansive. Writings from the Community essays relate the chapter theme to the lived experiences of trans and LGB people and allies from different parts of the world. Key concepts, film and media suggestions, topics for discussion, activities, and ideas for writing and research to engage students and serve as a review at exam time. Instructors' resources that will be available include key teaching points with discussion questions, activities, research projects, tips for using the media suggestions, PowerPoint presentations, and sample syllabi for various course configurations. Intended for introductory transgender, LGBTQ, or gender studies courses through upper-level electives related to the expanding field of transgender studies, this text has been successfully class-tested in community colleges and public and private colleges and universities.

Music, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Jacqueline Warwick, 2022-07-14 Music, Gender, and Sexuality Studies A Teacher's Guide serves as a guide to the professor tasked with teaching music to undergraduates with a focus on gender. Although the notion of feminist approaches in musicology was once greeted with scorn, the last 40 years have seen a seismic shift across music studies to the point that classes on women and music are now commonplace in most undergraduate music programs. The goal of this book is to give the instructor some tools and strategies that will build confidence in approaching music as it relates to gender and sexuality and to offer some advice on how to make the class rewarding for all. The book is organized into four broad sections plus an introduction outlining how to use the book and how the teaching of music, gender, and sexuality can be rewarding. Each section—Composition, Support, Performance, and Audience—includes possible themes for study and examples of music that can illuminate those themes, allowing the instructor to shape the course according to their own preference for classical, jazz, or popular styles. The author offers a practical guide to building syllabi that can fit the instructor's interests and the priorities of the institution, crafting assignments that will engage and inspire students, choosing repertoire from a range of styles and genres, and maintaining a focus on how music shapes gender and how gender shapes

Hall Bibliographic Guide to East Asian Studies* ,2000 Chinese Translation Studies in the 21st

Century Roberto A. Valdeon, 2018-11-09 Chinese Translation Studies in the 21st Century which presents a selection of some of the best articles published in the journal Perspectives in a five year period 2012-2017 highlights the vitality of Translation Studies as a profession and as a field of enquiry in China. As the country has gradually opened up to the West, translation academic programmes have burgeoned to cater for the needs of Chinese corporations and political institutions. The book is divided into four sections in which authors explore theoretical and conceptual issues such as the connection between translation and adaptation, multimodality and the nature of norms, audiovisual translation including studies on news translation and the translation of children's movies, bibliographies and bibliometrics to assess for example the international visibility of Chinese scholars and interpreting, analyzing pauses in simultaneous interpreting and sign language among other aspects. The book brings together well established authors and younger scholars from universities in mainland China, Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan. The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Perspectives Studies in Translatology.
