Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2014: Outside witness testimony United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies, 2013 Beyond Recidivism Andrea Leverentz, Elsa Y. Chen, Johnna Christian, 2020-05-05

Understanding reentry experiences after incarceration Prison in the United States often has a revolving door with droves of formerly incarcerated people ultimately finding themselves behind bars again In Beyond Recidivism Andrea Leverentz Elsa Y Chen and Johnna Christian bring together a leading group of interdisciplinary scholars to examine this phenomenon using several approaches to research on recently released prisoners returning to their lives They focus on the social context of reentry and look at the stories returning prisoners tell including such key issues as when they choose to reveal or not their criminal histories Drawing on contemporary studies contributors examine the best ideas that have emerged over the last decade to understanding the challenges prisoners face upon reentering society Together they present a complete picture of prisoner reentry including real world recommendations for policies to ensure the well being of returning prisoners regardless of their past mistakes The American Penal System Helen Clarke Molanphy, 2022-05-05 This thoughtful examination of incarceration in the United States from the 1980s to the current time offers for consideration a transparent and humane correctional model for the future Author Helen Clarke Molanphy employs an interdisciplinary approach encompassing sociology penology memoir philosophy and history Featuring the work of researchers as well as penal theorists of the Enlightenment era literati who have written about crime and punishment inmates social justice activists and journalists the author incorporates first hand interviews with participants in the landmark Ruiz v Estelle lawsuit which found incarceration in the Texas Department of Corrections to be cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the Eighth Amendment

Synthesizing lessons learned from years of studying the American prison system through contact with inmates correctional authorities legislators and prisoner advocates Molanphy offers a narrative of crime and punishment degradation and dehumanization but with hope pointing to future correctional reforms The book not only catalogs human rights abuses and the pain inflicted by corrupt penal systems but also provides a roadmap for an enlightened society to conceive of ways to reduce mass incarceration and provide humane treatment of inmates This reflective survey of the pervasive issues that afflict the prison industrial complex offers a compelling analysis of the past and possible future of the US penal system for students of criminal justice corrections penology and the sociology of punishment Researcher's Guide to Washington , 1979
