Historical Dictionary of the Baha'i Faith Hugh C. Adamson, 2006-12-21 Growing out of the teachings of the B b who introduced the idea of the coming of a great prophet the one promised in the scriptures of all the world s major religions the Bah Faith was founded by Bah u ll h when in 1866 he publicly declared that he was the One the B b prophesized The 2nd edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Bah Faith presents a general historical overview of both B b and Bah religions as well as a theological overview of the Bah Faith from their inception in the mid 19th century to the middle of 2005 It presents biographical details of the Founders and Central Figures along with numerous leaders and pioneers most of the basic principles and precepts as well as aspects of its organization and administration Through the use of photographs a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on nearly every aspect of the religion and appendixes listing the genealogy of the Founders statistical information and lists of apostles disciples Hands of the Cause Knights of Bah u ll h as well as of more than 930 believers who have contributed to its growth and development this book is a fundamental tool for finding information on all things related to the Bah Faith

Studies in the Book of Psalms William Swan Plumer, 1866 The Psalms are wonderful They have been read repeated chanted sung studied wept over rejoiced in expounded loved and praised by God s people for thousands of years The most ancient of these productions is now 1866 three thousand three hundred and twenty six years old The least ancient of them is two thousand four hundred and fifty three years old The difference in date between the most ancient and the most modern of them is eight hundred and seventy three years They were all written in Asia so that we in this Western world can have no national pride respecting them Yet pious people here and all over the earth have found and can find no compositions more suitable for delineating their devout emotions and for expressing their pious sensibilities than those of inspired Psalmists If to any man these songs are unsavory the reason is found in the blindness and depravity of the human heart Hengstenberg The Psalms are expressions of holy feeling which can be understood by those only who have become alive to such feeling Other things being equal he who has the most heavenly mind will be the most successful student of the Psalms Introduction

T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality
