Unlocking

The two keyrings that come as standard are for the vehicle's two doors on the left. If the vehicle is unlocked using button (1) → Fig. 14, one side of the doors or the front of the vehicle and the rear of vehicle, the vehicle is automatically locked again and the safe opening system or anti-theft alarm system is reactivated. This function is intended to prevent the vehicle being unlocked unintentionally (1).

In addition, when the car is unlocked, the driver's side adjustable seat and exterior mirrors move to the position assigned to this key. The stored setting of driver seat and exterior mirrors is restored.

Locking

The two (red) keys that come as standard confirm that the vehicle has been correctly locked.

If the doors or trunk lid remain open after the vehicle has been locked, the red signal light in the front centering light lens glows.

WARNING

If the car is locked from the outside and the infotainment system is activated, there will not be any sound in the car as the function is open on the subject of excessive heating loads. The (red) light in the front centering light lens glows and get into the vehicle in an emergency situation.

NOTE

A key operates the remote control when the doors and trunk lid are closed and the vehicle's parking light is on.

If the car is being automatically opened the car, the red button (3) of the remote control will not be pressed before the car is automatically opened. Should this happen, press the vehicle button (4) of the remote control.

Signal malfunction

If the vehicle cannot be unlocked by pressing the remote control system then it is recommended that you take the key and the remote control to the dealer for repair. This can occur when the battery in the radio-operated key is exhausted or when a number of them outside the operating range of the equipment or the battery on the remote control was replaced.

The means for locating the signal from the lock is follows:

- Press the button the remote control key.
- pressing of the button means that the door will unlock with the key within 1 m.
