The Buddha Next Door Zan Gaudio,2012-03-01 Through personal experiences this anthology illuminates how the practice of Nichiren Buddhism has changed people's lives for the better. These first person narratives representing people from all across the country of various ages and ethnic backgrounds examine the challenges of daily life associated with health relationships career and aging and the ensuing experiences of hope success inspiration and personal enlightenment that come about as a result of living as Nichiren Buddhists. Shopping Around Hilary Radner, 2012-11-12 Shopping Around investigates the issues of contemporary popular narrative feminine pleasure and consumer culture viewing the permutations of the feminine subject as a textual construction evolved through everyday life. A wide spectrum of texts are examined exposing the fact that women read within a complex and conflicted cultural arena characterized by a significant intertextuality that multiply defines femininity. Shopping Around raises these issues in the context of everyday cultural practices such as applying make up reading magazines watching television and working out providing a unique introduction to postmodern feminist and cultural theory. Posthuman Worlds Adolfo Cacheiro, 2022-03-03 Posthuman Worlds Roberto Bolaño's Narrative and Virtual Reality presents interpretations of several novels and one short story by Roberto Bolaño. As befits the global setting of most of these narratives they are analyzed from the perspective of global culture and politics. Particular attention is paid to transnational European politics as this topic is central to an understanding of the intertwined themes of politics and the law in Bolaño's work. In Distant Star and Labyrinth these themes exist within the context of a preoccupation with personal identity and ideology. Adolfo Cacheiro utilizes psychoanalytic interpretation and philosophical exegesis to clarify the subjective component of this preoccupation in the aforementioned texts. The law is also a prominent theme of The Savage Detectives which Cacheiro interprets in relation to mythology. One of the most innovative aspects of this book is the discussion of the role of virtual reality in Amulet and 2666. These novels are read as representations of a posthuman world that manifest an intertextual relationship with science fiction. In 2666 virtual reality unifies the diverse components of a world system in time and space. A phenomenological investigation of this reality supports the conclusion that the principle subject matter of 2666 is a naturalistic theology based on technology. The Routledge Handbook of Digital Literacies in Early Childhood Ola Erstad, Rosie Flewitt, Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, Íris Susana Pires Pereira, 2019-07-05 As fast evolving technologies transform everyday communication and literacy practices many young children find themselves immersed in multiple digital media from birth. Wu, 2020-06-09 This collection by longtime fantasy and science fiction writer William F Wu includes triple award finalist Wong's Lost and Found Emporium which was adapted into a Twilight Zone episode in 1985 and eight more stories of magical places events and spirits Many of the stories involve issues regarding Americans of Chinese descent and all involve universal concerns PG Excerpt What's wrong with you she demanded I want to know Why are you so callous She snatched up the metal container from the floor in front of me and held it wrapped in her shawl Tell me now she screamed right in front of me I leaned forward and spoke glaring into her eyes I came in here looking for my compassion I lost it years ago bit by bit I lost it when I was eight and other kids chased me around the playground for no visible reason and they weren't playing When I started junior high and got beat up in gym class because the rest of the school was white like my grade school When I ran for student congress and had my posters covered with swastikas and KKK symbols And that was before I got out into the world on my own You want to hear about my adult life I paused to catch my breath She backed away from me I've lost more of my compassion every year of my life for every year I can remember until I don't have any more Well it's here but I can't find it She stood speechless in front of me Letting her have it all at once accomplished that much at least Maybe you were in the wrong town she muttered You think I like being like this Hating the memories of my life and not caring what happens to anybody I said I've lost my compassion not my conscience She walked back and put the metal bottle back in its place on the shelf I can find it she said quietly What I've been watching you When you get something for someone you follow the little white light that appears You can see that Of course I can anybody can You think you're special We just can't see our own I figured that out Well so did I I said lamely So I could get your compassion for you Yeah I didn't think she would considering all she'd said Only you have to get what I want first You don't trust me remember She smiled smugly It looked grotesque as though she hadn't smiled in ages I can trust you Because you know that if you don't give me what I want I won't give you your compassion Besides if all goes well your lack of compassion won't make any difference Well yeah I guess so I hadn't considered a deal with another customer before Until now I had just been waiting for the no show proprietor and then had given up even on that Well she demanded still with that weird forced smile Uh yeah okay It was my last chance I glanced around and found her spot of white light behind me on a lower shelf This way She walked next to me watching me carefully as the white light led us down the crowded aisle A large porcelain vase emitted guttural mutterings on an upper shelf as we passed Two small lizards from the Florida corridor and something resembling a T bone steak with legs were drinking at a pool of shiny liquid in the middle of the floor The viscous liquid was oozing slowly out of a cracked green bottle We stepped over it and kept going The light finally stopped on the cork of a long necked blue bottle at the back of a bottom shelf I stopped and looked down at it wondering if this deal had an angle I hadn't figured
