Louisa May Alcott

Slippery Fish Flannel Story:

Initiations and Interactions Teresa A. Cardon, 2007 Research suggests an early start is the key to a successful intervention for children diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder What many don't know is that research also shows that for most early intervention programs to be effective they must involve a child's primary caregivers especially when it comes to such an all pervasive area as communication This book does not advocate that parents steer clear of therapists and specialists Instead it attempts to put more control in the parents hands Without adding to parents already busy schedules Teresa Cardon a speech language pathologist and author of best selling Let's Talk Emotions see page 33 discusses the importance of creating a communication environment in the home Simple everyday tools include deliberate use of books toys visual schedules and labeling among others

Toddler Storytimes II Diane Briggs, 2008 School Library Journal With 25 theme based chapters this is a handy resource Each theme includes book recommendations often 10 or more with a nice mixture of classic and newer titles and a suggestion to choose two or three per session Words and instructions for fingerplays rhymes and songs are provided while a discography provides melody sources for all songs Each theme includes a flannel board activity complete with reproducible patterns and brief directions on how to present the story or song on the board Safe and simple crafts ideas are presented as optional activities Activities are listed by type rather than in an ordered list so tellers can pick choose and order according to individual style and preference An introduction provides tips and rationale for all of the types of activities A couple of sentences note the potential impact on brain development and early literacy skills but the focus is on the activities themselves strategies for sharing early literacy information with parents and caregivers are not addressed Judy Nichols's Storytimes for Two Year Olds ALA 2007 and Linda L Ernst's Baby Rhyming Time Neal Schuman 2008 provide more comprehensive looks at all aspects of storytime planning and presentation This update of Briggs's Toddler Storytime Programs Scarecrow 1993 will be most useful as a resource for programming ideas and fleshing out themes
