Low Living and High Thinking at Modern Times, New York Roger Wunderlich, 1992-06-01 In the mid 1800s deep in the Long Island pine barrens Modern Times was established as an experimental community whose members would not be bound by any government church constitution or bylaws Never more than 150 strong set on a plot of only 90 acres here was a haven for nonconformists Its currency was words its religion was discussion its standard of conduct was unfettered individual freedom Low Living and High Thinking at Modern Times New York rescues this model village from obscurity and demonstrates its importance in the history of American communitarianism and social reform especially in its pursuit of economic justice women's rights and free love The first full length study of Modern Times Wunderlich's account offers telling portraits of this small but significant group of reformers pioneers freethinkers and sexual radicals For 13 years they tested the precepts of the founders of the community the philosophical anarchists Josiah Warren and Stephen Pearl Andrews who advocated the sovereignty of the individual and private but profitless enterprise Each person lived as he or she pleased provided this did not impair the right of another to do the same and each traded goods and services at cost rather than market value enabling cash poor pioneers to own homesteads The community championed every kind of reform from abolitionism women's rights and vegetarianism to hydropathy pacifism total abstinence and the bloomer costume Indifference to marital status and the advocacy of a free love vanguard contributed to the community's controversial and somewhat illicit reputation In 1864 seeking to remove themselves from the limelight Modern Times's remaining settlers renamed the village Brentwood Wunderlich pieces together the village person by person by relying on primary sources such as land deeds census entries and eyewitness accounts He also sheds new light on Warren and Andrews two key figures in the communitarian movement and discusses at length such important contemporaries as Thomas and Mary Gove Nichols Robert Owen John Humphrey Noyes Horace Greeley John Stuart Mill Henry David Thoreau Ralph Waldo Emerson and George Ripley

Making Men Moral Robert P. George, 1995-04-06 Contemporary liberal thinkers commonly suppose that there is something in principle unjust about the legal prohibition of putatively victimless immoralities Against the prevailing liberal view Robert P George defends the proposition that moral laws can play a legitimate if subsidiary role in preserving the moral ecology of the cultural environment in which people make the morally significant choices by which they form their characters and influence for good or ill the moral lives of others George shows that a defence of morals legislation is fully compatible with a pluralistic perfectionist political theory of civil liberties and public morality

Critical Perspectives on Linguistic Fixity and Fluidity Jürgen Jaspers, Lian Malai Madsen, 2019-01-15 This volume offers a critical perspective on current views on linguistic fixity and fluidity in sociolinguistics and highlights empirical accounts alternative to prevailing trends in the field Featuring accounts from a broad range of regional contexts the collection takes stock of such terms as polylingualism metrolingualism and translanguaging to question perceptions around multilingual and monolingual language use The book critiques the status of fluid language use as a more natural language practice and in turn its greater potential for corresponding social transformation demonstrating the value of linguistic fixity and the continuous debate between fixity and fluidity in multilingual speakers lives In providing these accounts the book seeks not to advocate for linguistic fixity or fluidity but to argue that sociolinguists pay close attention to the way both types of linguistic practice open up or close down avenues for social transformation This collection is a key reading for graduate students and scholars in sociolinguistics multilingualism and linguistic anthropology Sketching Times 2 Take a Cicada Ltd,2016-07-28 A veritable bounty of sketches from a global selection of artists provides readers with a window into the artistic process from the earliest of creative stages Hand picked by the featured artists sketches range from rough starts of what will become fantastic illustrations to pieces so intricate they seem to be finished projects already The New York Times Magazine ,1987 The Collected Works of Ken Wilber, Volume 4 Ken Wilber,1999-12-28 Volume Four of The Collected Works of Ken Wilber includes Integral Psychology a concise version of Wilber's long awaited textbook of transpersonal psychology presenting one of the first truly integrative models of consciousness psychology and therapy Charts correlating over one hundred developmental and evolutionary theories ranging from ancient mystical traditions to modern theorists Essays on human development art meditation spirituality yoga women's studies death and rebirth science and mysticism and transpersonal psychotherapies Wilber's thoughtful replies to criticisms of his work Reprint University of California, Berkeley. Living with Concepts, Andrew Brandel, Marco Motta, 2021-06-15. This volume examines an often taken for granted concept, that of the concept itself. How do we picture what concepts are, what they do, how they arise in the course of everyday life? Challenging conventional approaches that treat concepts as mere tools at our disposal for analysis or as straightforwardly equivalent to signs to be deciphered, the anthropologists and philosophers in this volume turn instead to the ways concepts are already intrinsically embedded in our forms of life and how they constitute the very substrate of our existence as humans who lead lives in language. Attending to our ordinary lives with concepts requires not an ascent from the rough ground of reality into the skies of theory, but rather acceptance of the fact that thinking is congenital to living with and through concepts. The volume offers a critical and timely intervention into both contemporary philosophy and anthropological theory by unsettling the distinction between thought and reality that continues to be too often assumed and showing how the supposed need to grasp reality may be replaced by an acknowledgement that we are in its grip. Contributors: Jocelyn Benoist, Andrew Brandel, Michael Cordey, Veena Das, Rasmus Dyring, and Thomas Schwarz-Wentzer. Michael D. Jackson, Michael Lambek, Sandra Laugier, Marco Motta, Michael J. Puett, and Lotte Buch Segal.
