Capitalism Bruce R. Scott, 2011-10-02 Two systems of governance capitalism and democracy prevail in the world today Operating simultaneously in partially distinct domains these systems rely on indirect governance through regulated competition to coordinate actors inevitably these systems influence and transform each other This book rejects the simple equation of capitalism with markets in favor of a three level system a model which recognizes that markets are administered by regulators through institutions and governed by a political authority with the power to regulate behavior punish transgressors and redesign institutions This system's emergence required the sovereign to relinquish some power in order to release the energies of economic actors Rather than spreading through an unguided natural process like trade capitalism emerged where competitive pressures forced political authorities to take risks in order to achieve increased revenues by permitting markets for land labor and capital

Sick Schools David V. Anderson, 2020-01-10 Who's afraid of for profit education Those who work in non profit or government owned and operated schools Many parents and other stakeholders have been made fearful by this education establishment What's more important to humans nutrition or education Nutrition is more important because it is the prerequisite for other human activities including education What organizations provide food and who pays for the food Food is provided by for profit farmers for profit processors for profit wholesalers and for profit retailers Most food is purchased with the consumers own money but a significant amount is purchased by low income individuals using food stamps Why can't education be provided similarly using education stamps We trust for profit enterprises to provide our food Why can't we trust for profit enterprises to provide K 12 education Fearmongers have frightened us and made us into gullible compliant socialists who despise commercial activities in education Go to the supermarket and ponder its marvelous array of foods and then contemplate how a for profit K 12 education sector would please and amaze its customers
