The Zimbabwe Culture Innocent Pikirayi, Joseph O. Vogel, 2002-07-15 Offering a unique and original perspective on the rise and fall of indigenous states of southern Zambezia The Zimbabwe Culture analyzes the long contentious history of the remains of the remarkable cyclopean masonry ranging from mighty capitals of traditional kings to humble farmsteads Forming a cornerstone of the geographical lore of Africa in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries debate on the origins development and collapse of the Zimbabwe culture has never ceased and with increasing archaeological research over the twentieth century has become more complex Thoroughly examining the growth and decline of pre colonial states on the entire Zimbabwean Plateau and southern Zambezia Dr Pikirayi has contributed tremendously towards the archaeological understanding of this extraordinary culture The Zimbabwe Culture is essential reading for all students and avocationalists of African archaeology history and culture      Papers in African Prehistory J. D. Fage, R. A. Oliver, 1970-10-01 Professor Fage and Professor Oliver the editors of this collection are distinguished historians of Africa and as founding editors of the Journal of African History they both established the journal and used it to mark out developing areas of the subject In directing the journal they have pursued an active policy of commissioning articles in fields where the literature was scanty and in this volume they have collected together some of the most important articles they have published on African prehistory It is designed for the student of African history and the library that needs copies of frequently consulted papers to supplement its sets of periodicals All the articles contain either accounts of important research or more general review articles The book is illustrated with line diagrams and photographs One article which originally appeared in French has been translated into English      The Art of Mbira Paul F. Berliner, 2020-01-31 Growing out of the collaborative research of an American ethnomusicologist and Zimbabwean musician Paul F Berliner s The Art of Mbira documents the repertory for a keyboard instrument known generally as mbira At the heart of this work lies the analysis of the improvisatory processes that propel mbira music s magnificent creativity In this book Berliner provides insight into the communities of study performance and worship that surround mbira He chronicles how master player Cosmas Magaya and his associates have developed their repertory and practices over more than four decades shaped by musical interaction social and political dynamics in Zimbabwe and the global economy of the music industry At once a detailed exposition of the music s forms and practices it is also an indispensable historical and cultural guide to mbira in a changing world Together with Berliner and Magaya s compendium of mbira compositions Mbira s Restless Dance The Art of Mbira breaks new ground in the depth and specificity of its exploration of an African musical tradition and in the entwining of the authors collaborative voices It is a testament to the powerful relationship between music and social life and the rewards of lifelong musical study performance and friendship

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance      Papers Presented at the Conference on Zimbabwe-Rhodesia and

U.S. Policy, U.S. Dept. of State, Washington, D.C., July 12-13, 1979 ,1979      Rhodes and Rhodesia Arthur Keppel-Jones,1983-11-01 The British South Africa Company and the irregularity of its financial and political operations are dealt with in detail Keppel Jones also discusses the development in the midst of the indigenous population of an alien white society and state from their crude beginnings to their emergence in a form still recognizable today The reader is led to conclude that by 1902 Southern Rhodesia was already set on the road that would lead to the upheavals of the second half of the twentieth century The author examines the racial consciousness and prejudice of the white society and addresses an important question why did the imperial government grant a royal charter to the BSA Company The facts show conclusively that the imperial government had little interest in Central Africa or care for its fate except when foreign competition appeared Keppel Jones also reveals the important role played by black troops employed by the Company in suppressing the rebellions of 1896 7 For opposite reasons neither blacks nor whites have been willing to recognize this on the other hand the habit of the men on the spot of making and carrying out decisions without regard to their superiors in London is a commonplace of imperial history One of the main themes of the book is the tension between the unofficial imperialists straining at the leash and the Colonial Office struggling to hold them back Rhodes and Rhodesia is based on extensive use of public records mainly in the Public Record Office London and the National Archives of Zimbabwe of collections of private papers and of contemporary published works      An Investigation of Secondary School Language Teachers' Conceptions of Literacy and how These Conceptions Relate to Literacy Instruction in Zimbabwe Albert Natsa,1994

Past and Present in Zimbabwe John David Yeadon Peel,T. O. Ranger,1983 Research papers on historical aspects and trends in political development local government and land tenure in Zimbabwe since independence in 1980 discusses prehistory archaeological data ideology use of tradition in rural area local government reasons for the 1980 election results comments on legislation for the transition from colonialism includes a case study of land titles in a black freehold area resettlement and land reform policy in the context of national level economic development Maps references statistical tables

Zimbabwe's Cinematic Arts Katrina Daly Thompson,2013 This timely book reflects on discourses of identity that pervade local talk and texts in Zimbabwe a nation beset by political and economic crisis As she explores questions of culture that play out in broadly accessible local and foreign film and television Katrina Daly Thompson shows how viewers interpret these media and how they impact everyday life language use and thinking about community She offers a unique understanding of how media reflect and contribute to Zimbabwean culture language and ethnicity      African Historical Archaeologies Andrew M. Reid,Paul J. Lane,2014-10-28 This volume explores the range of interactions between the historical sources and archaeology that are available on the African continent The contributions written by a range of experts on different aspects of African archaeology present the underlying issues such as The conflict and collaboration in the foundation of modern Africa African trading communities maintaining their independence from Europe The impacts of the Atlantic slave trade This represents the first consideration of historical archaeology over the African continent as a whole and therefore provides an important review for African archaeologists and historians This seminal volume also explores Africa's place in global systems of thought and economic development for historical archaeologists and historians alike Simon Vengayi Muzenda & the Struggle for and Liberation of Zimbabwe Ngwabi Bhebe, 2004 Zimbabwe Brian Raftopoulos, Tyrone Savage, 2004 The author is from the Institute of Development Studies at the University of Zimbabwe He examines the paradox ensuing from the Lancaster House Settlement at Zimbabwe's independence that whilst colonial rule was ended the framework was provided for continued white privilege on the basis of control of the economy by this elite and through them transnational capital He analyses the responses of the ruling including official elite the black petty bourgeoisie and the group associated with the former Rhodesian Front Cities in the World: 1500-2000: v. 3 Adrian Green, 2018-12-13 Papers presented at the Cities in the World conference held at Southampton University and organised through the Society for Post Medieval Archaeology challenged the commonly held perception that cities are about the present and the future not about the past All cities have an innate sense of the past and this volume encompassing as it does Cultural Texts of Resistance in Zimbabwe Rodwell Makombe, 2021-10-01 Cultural Texts of Resistance in Zimbabwe explores how ordinary citizens appropriate and deploy cultural texts such as internet memes songs political cartoons and social media discussions as vehicles to contest hegemonic narratives of the state and insert alternative ways of imagining the future of the nation This book is a timely attempt to examine the multiple and complex dimensions of resistance in post millennial Zimbabwe through analysing different cultural productions It centres the voices of ordinary Zimbabweans by examining popular cultural texts that reflect their experiences and ways of living within the Zimbabwean crisis of the post 2000 period The book argues that subversive cultural texts have become important tools that ordinary citizens appropriate to challenge the repressive political environment and imagine different ways of writing the nation The book brings a fresh perspective to ongoing discussions on how popular cultural texts contribute to the narration of the nation especially in the context of crisis Annual Report of the Secretary for Education for the Year Ended ... Zimbabwe. Ministry of Education, 1980 Mobile Africa Rijk van Dijk, Dick Foeken, Mirjam de Bruijn, 2021-07-26 This anthology deals with the complexity variety and experience of all the forms of mobility we witness today in Sub Saharan Africa Three sets of issues are being discussed First the concept of mobility itself is considered and how it is conceived of in distinction from sedentarity Second which forms of mobility can be distinguished not only from the perspective of Western social sciences but also from the perspective of people's own experiences ideas notions etc Social science in Africa has particularly focused on rural urban migration but it is clear that there are many other forms as well Third the concept of mobility concerns not only geographical space but there are other spaces to consider as well In addition to forms of mobility there is a mobility of forms in which the perception of those other spaces plays a crucial role In short the book intends to turn the whole notion of mobility as a supposedly rupturing phenomenon on its head emphasizing that rather through travelling connections are established and continuity is experienced We are challenged to delve into the traveller s mind to think and follow their multi spatial livelihoods and to explore what it means to people if they move in a variety of spaces
