O'Connell,George Williams,2016-12-05 Airlines are buffeted by fluctuating political and economic landscapes ever changing competition technology developments globalization increasing deregulation and evolving customer requirements As a consequence all sectors of the air transport industry are in a constant state of flux The principle aim of this book is to review current trends in the airline industry and its related suppliers thereby providing an insight into the forces that are changing its dynamics The factors that are reshaping the structure of the industry are examined with a view to identifying the key issues whose impact will be critical in the future The book features two very distinct sections The first contains short contributions from industry executives at CEO VP level from airlines aircraft engine manufacturers safety and navigational provider organisations who have set out their take of where the airline industry is heading This commercial input sets the scene for the book and provides the bridge to the second section which is composed of 18 chapters written by distinguished academic authors Each chapter presents a valuable insight into a specific area of the air transport industry including airlines airports cargo deregulation the environment navigation strategy information technology security and tourism The shared objective of the authors is to describe and explain the core competencies that are determining the current shape of the industry and to examine the forces that will change its direction going forward The book is written in a management style and will appeal to all levels of personnel who work for airlines across the world It is also written for airport authorities
