English Translation of Selections from the Sikhan-de-raj-di-vithya with Notes Sharadhā Rāma Philaurī, Jawahir Singh, 1903 Beyond Macaulay Parimala V. Rao, 2024-12-10

Beyond Macaulay provides a radical and comprehensive history of Indian education in the early colonial era from 1780 to 1860 It critically explores data of 16 000 indigenous schools which shows that indigenous education was not oral informal and Brahmin centric but written formal and egalitarian Based on rich archival evidence the book challenges the conventional theory that the British administration imposed the English language and modern education on Indians By including hitherto unused 41 Educational Minutes of Macaulay the volume examines his educational ideas his insistence on compulsory teaching of Indian languages in English schools his encouragement of the Hindi language his opposition to making Arabic as a medium of instruction in medical and technical education opens up hitherto unknown perspectives on Orientalist Modernist debates Contrasting the educational ideas of the British elites and the Orientalists with dissenting Scottish voices it shows that the colonial administration was not monolithic The book discusses post Macaulayan educational policies closing down of Macaulay's schools and the Wood's Despatch of 1854 as well as how people protected English schools during the revolt of 1857 This second edition is supplemented with complete student essays which reveal the students' use of the English language classical imageries the debates in Europe and finally their own location in Indian society The essays by upper caste OBC and Dalit students demonstrate their extraordinary competency and command over the English language The book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of education history of education Indian history the history of English language teaching in India sociology and political science The Making of the Prime Minister H.S. Ramananda Chatterjee, 1921 Includes section Reviews and notices of books Annual Review of South Asian Languages and

Linguistics Rajendra Singh, Ghanshyam Sharma, 2011-11-30 South Asia is home to a large number of languages and dialects

Although linguists working on this region have made significant contributions to our understanding of language society and language in society on a global scale there is as yet no recognized international forum for the exchange of ideas amongst linguists working on South Asia The Annual Review of South Asian Languages and Linguistics is designed to be just that forum It brings together empirical and theoretical research and serves as a testing ground for the articulation of new ideas and approaches which may be grounded in a study of South Asian languages but which have universal applicability Each volume will have three major sections I Invited contributions consisting of state of the art essays on research in South Asian languages II Refereed open submissions focusing on relevant issues and providing various viewpoints III Reports from around the world book reviews and abstracts of doctoral theses Alexithymia Olivier Luminet, R. Michael Bagby, Graeme J.

Taylor, 2018-09-27 Alexithymia is a personality trait characterised by difficulty identifying and describing subjective emotional feelings a restricted imagination and an externally oriented style of thinking Individuals with high levels of this trait are at risk of developing several common psychiatric disorders The concept of alexithymia has evolved considerably over the past twenty years and this important new work responds to the need for a definitive book on the subject The research theory and clinical issues surrounding alexithymia are discussed in depth examining the psychological biological and social aspects of the construct and their related outcomes Featuring contributions from researchers and clinicians in the field of emotion processing and regulation chapters include methods for assessing and reducing alexithymia and research findings from diverse fields of scientific enquiry including genetics neuroimaging studies emotion regulation attachment and trauma research and comorbidities with a number of psychiatric and medical disorders
