Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics David Block, John Gray, Marnie Holborow, 2013-03-01 This book explores neoliberalism a view of the world that puts the market at its centre from the perspective of applied linguistics Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics argues that while applied linguistics has become more interdisciplinary in orientation it has ignored or downplayed the role of political economy namely the way in which social political and economic factors relate to one another within the context of a capitalist economy The authors take the view that engagement with political economy is central to any fully rounded analysis of language and language related issues in the world today and their collaboration in this volume represents an initial attempt to redress what they perceive to be an imbalance in the field The book begins with a discussion of neoliberalism and an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology impacts on language This is followed by a discussion of how globalization and identity have been conceptualised in applied linguistics in ways which have ignored the political centrality of class a concept which the authors see as integral to their perspective The book concludes with an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology plays out in two key areas of applied linguistics language teaching and language teacher education Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics is essential reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in applied linguistics Language Acquisition and Development Brian Tomlinson, 2007-04-01 Examines language acquisition and development across a wide range of languages and contexts English Education in Oman Rahma Al-Mahrooqi, Christopher Denman, 2018-07-02 This book explores an area that has been somewhat overlooked in the literature to date the current status and future trends of English education in Oman It offers a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches to the subject and explores areas of English education in Oman that have until now been little investigated It explores these issues from a variety of perspectives the professionalization of English teachers in the country the implementation of novel teaching methodologies curricula and assessment approaches into what are in many ways still very traditional education settings the integration of learner identity into English language instruction country and culture specific concerns with conducting research with Omani participants the strategic demands of building stronger links between education and workforce needs and developing learner autonomy and motivation Multifunctionality in English Zihan Yin, Elaine Vine, 2022-02-27 This edited volume provides detailed analyses of multifunctional forms in English and offers hands on approaches exemplifying relevant implications and useful applications to language and literacy educators in TESOL ESL EFL EAL and research students in applied linguistics and education The chapters cover The multifunctionality of utterances in spoken and multimodal corpora the multifunctionality of linguistic creativity in different genres multifunctional pronouns in hard and soft sciences and professional discourse in the university and secondary school contexts The volume also offers a comparison of the multifunctionality of verbs between ESL textbooks native written and spoken English corpora and between ESL and L1 university students in writing a particular genre comparisons of the multifunctionality of discourse markers between different registers and between L1 and L2 English speakers as well as multifunctional metadiscourse markers in different disciplines and paradigms With detailed analysis of authentic corpus data representing different varieties of English specialized use in different contexts and disciplines and practical teaching and learning applications the volume bridges theory and practice providing a creatively designed resource for students educators and researchers looking to understand multifunctional forms in English Cognitive Approaches to English Mario Brdar, Marija Omazić, Višnja
