Zim O Level June Papers 2015:

Christian Theological Education and the Response to the Crisis in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, Gift

Masengwe, 2025-10-02 The book offers an incisive examination of the governing philosophy of the Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front ZANU PF referred to as Zanupfism characterizing it as marked by callousness and malevolence towards dissenting voices from civil society and opposition factions This pernicious application of power extends beyond mere verbal aggression to encompass militaristic actions engendering a profound generational crisis within Zimbabwe The contributors explore the compelling juxtaposition between President Emmerson Mnangagwa and the biblical Nebuchadnezzar II a ruler notorious for his autocratic reign and expansive ambitions Further critically scrutinizing the complicity of neo Pentecostal prophets in the book reveals how these religious figures promote an esoteric understanding of the divine diverging from a theology rooted in justice thereby enabling the oppressive regime's practices This critique underscores the imperative for prophets to recalibrate their theological perspectives urging them to move beyond magical interpretations of faith toward an authentic engagement with a personal God who champions justice The book further encompasses the complex interplay of political and religious narratives examining how church leaders either bolster or undermine Mnangagwa's political ideology highlighting the tendency among certain religious factions to deify political authority ultimately exacerbating societal inequities In advocating for a transformative theological discourse in Zimbabwe the book asserts that religious narratives must serve as instruments for fostering democracy social justice and equity rather than sustaining a status quo that entrenches authoritarian governance The necessity for unified principled resistance grounded in the collective agency of the populace emerges as a salient theme in the quest for meaningful political and social reform

Social Licensing and Mining in South Africa Sethulego Matebesi, 2019-12-05

This book highlights the role of community trusts in social licencing through the lens of mining and mining disputes in South Africa Employing elements of trust acceptance and elite interaction as a framework this book critically investigates the underlying dynamics of community development trusts and also the response of host communities to the inherent dilemma of the SLO concept namely social legitimization versus corporate profits Looking at formal versus informal regulatory requirements popular mobilisation and the interaction between the local population and mining companies this book constitutes a thorough look at the issues surrounding mining in South Africa and its effect on society This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African studies business in Africa corporate responsibility and development studies

Chuck Stewart, 2020-11-09 This book provides an indispensable resource for high school and college students interested in the history and current status of gender identity formation and maintenance and how it impacts LGBTQ rights throughout the world Gender and Identity around the World explores a variety of gender and LGBTQ experiences and issues in countries from all the world's regions Guided by more than 50 recognized academic experts readers will examine how gender and

LGBTQ identities are developed fought for perceived and policed in countries as diverse as France Brazil Russia Jordan Iraq and China Each chapter opens with a general introduction to a country or group of countries and flows into a discussion of gender and identity in terms of culture education family life health and wellness law work and activism in that region of the world A section on contemporary issues specific to the country or group of countries follows this discussion

Civil Society, Peace, and Power David Cortright, Melanie Greenberg, Laurel Stone, 2016-10-12 Civil society plays an increasingly powerful role in the global landscape emerging as key actors in preventing and managing conflict and building more peaceful and sustainable societies The multiple case studies featured in this volume illustrate the growth of civil society involvement in national regional and international peacebuilding policy The focus is on multi stakeholder systems based approaches to peacebuilding and human security that involve diverse civil society groups NGOs religious organizations media etc government agencies intergovernmental organizations and security forces This unique comprehensive approach encompasses diverse stakeholders seeking to understand the drivers of conflict and the possibilities for working together to build peace The book illustrates how the involvement of civil society can result in better informed more inclusive more accountable government decision making and more effective peacebuilding policies Importantly a number of the case studies provide a gender perspective on peacebuilding and civil society issues voicing and giving attention to women s perspectives without being focused only on gender issues Further authors from the Global South offer the perspectives of those directly immersed in ongoing struggles for justice and peace

Towards Democratic Development States in Southern Africa Godfrey Kanyenze, Herbert Jauch, 2016-12-14 The dawn of the twenty first century heralded an apparent change of fortunes for most sub Saharan African economies with annual growth averaging over 5% for fifteen years However this was not accompanied by structural transformation poverty food insecurity unemployment and inequality persist Structural transformation has not been and indeed cannot be delivered by market forces and neo liberal economic policies it requires a state committed to development and to achieving it in a democratic way To what extent do the countries of Southern Africa exhibit the characteristics of such a developmental state What steps if any do they need to take in order to become one The book answers the questions with respect to South Africa Botswana Namibia Zimbabwe Angola and Malawi Godfrey Kanyenze and his colleagues have assembled a distinguished team of writers to take the temperature of the regional political economy and chart a path for its future development

Legal Protection of Foreign Direct Investment. A Critical Assessment with Focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe Talkmore Chidede, 2016-09 This study undertakes a critical assessment of the legal protection of foreign direct investments FDI in South Africa and Zimbabwe by determining their compliance with the international minimum standards norms and or best practices on the legal protection of FDI by host states Firstly the study argues that foreign investment is much needed in South Africa and Zimbabwe to improve economic growth and development to create jobs and to increase their competitiveness However these benefits are not accrued automatically but rather host states need to create an enabling environment to receive such benefits Thus host states need to put an investment scheme into operation to guarantee the legal protection of foreign investments South Africa and Zimbabwe have at large crafted and implemented investment laws and related policies which tend to be hostile towards foreign investments Therefore similar investment laws and related policies in both jurisdictions are analysed This study will also offer recommendations for a legal investment which is not only flexible friendly and favourable to foreign investment in South Africa and Zimbabwe but also advances their local economic policies

Corruption, Sustainable Development and Security Challenges in Africa Kempe Ronald Hope, Sr.,2023-09-07 This book sheds light on Africa s development performance and dynamics arising from the interface between corruption and sustainable development on the one hand and the challenges that poses for peace security and stability Corruption also contributes to the spread of terrorism and violent extremism Pervasive corruption networks often include politicians civil servants working at all levels of state institutions representatives of the private sector and members of crime syndicates The consequences of corruption are detrimental in many aspects such as undermining governments ability to serve public interests and eroding public trust in democratic processes Presenting empirical evidence the book explains why corruption and the looting of staggering amounts of national assets undermine the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and has a negative impact on peace stability security the rule of law gender equality the environment and human rights This makes the book a must read for students researchers and scholars of political science international relations and economics in general as well as African studies development studies and security sector studies in particular covering issues and themes on corruption governance socio economic sustainable development public administration and management policing in an international context police reform and security sector reform It will also serve as a helpful resource for policy makers interested in a better understanding of the connection between corruption sustainable development and security challenges in Sub Saharan Africa
