makers Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure, 2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author's excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology Social Media and Digital Dissidence in Zimbabwe Trust Matsilele, 2022-08-29 This book proposes a new theorisation when studying cyber dissidents in an African digital sphere It argues that social media dissidents are a recent development in a long lineage of dissidents in African societies Using Zimbabwe as a case study the study locates contemporary dissidents in the same family with other historical dissident figures found in African orature the Chimurenga wars through music poetry and other forms of expression The book argues against techno deterministic approaches to studying social media born digital dissidence in Africa It is aimed at scholars dedicated to studying social media movements in African contexts and the global south generally prompting them to re evaluate their earlier conclusions and adopt a more nuanced and contextspecific approach Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Race and the Animated Bodyscape Francis M. Agnoli, 2023-04-21 Race does not exist in animation it must instead be constructed and ascribed Yet over the past few years there has been growing discourse on the intersection of these two subjects within both academic and popular circles In Race and the Animated Bodyscape Constructing and Ascribing a Racialized Asian Identity in Avatar and Korra author Francis M Agnoli introduces and illustrates the concept of the animated bodyscape looking specifically at the US television series Avatar The Last Airbender and its sequel The Legend of Korra Rather than consider animated figures as unified wholes Agnoli views them as complexes of signs made up of visual aural and narrative components that complement contradict and otherwise interact with each other in the creation of meaning Every one of these components matters as they are each the result of a series of creative decisions made by various personnel across different production processes This volume re constructs production narratives for Avatar and Korra using original and preexisting interviews with cast and crew members as well as behind the scenes material Each chapter addresses how different types of components were generated tracing their development from preliminary research to final animation In doing so this project identifies the interlocking sets of production communities behind the making of animation and thus behind the making of racialized identities Due to its illusory and constructed nature animation affords untapped opportunities to approach the topic of race in media looking beyond the role of the actor and taking into account the various factors and processes behind the production of racialized performances The analysis of race and animation calls for a holistic approach one that treats both the visual and the aural as intimately connected This volume offers a blueprint for how to approach the analysis of race and animation Mugabeism? Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2015-12-26 What is distinctive about this book is its interdisciplinary approach towards deciphering the complex meanings of President Gabriel Mugabe of Zimbabwe making it possible to evaluate Mugabe from a historical political philosophical gender literal and decolonial perspectives It is concerned with capturing various meanings of Mugabeism African Values, Ethics, and Technology Beatrice Dedaa Okyere-Manu, 2021-04-30 This book charts technological developments from an African ethical perspective It explores the idea that while certain technologies have benefited Africans the fact that these technologies were designed and produced in and for a different setting leads to conflicts with African ethical values Written in a simple and engaging style the authors apply an African ethical lens to themes such as The Fourth Industrial Revolution the moral status of technology technology and sexual relations and bioethics and technology Mapping the Academic Debate Johannes Duschka, Christoph Kleine, Monika Wohlrab-Sahr, Florian Zemmin, 2024-12-16 This volume maps the international academic debate on secularity It places seminal contributions from within Western academia alongside less well known texts from various parts of the world in several cases this is the first time that they have been translated into English The volume demonstrates that the academic debate on secularity was and is a global debate with contributions from many regions The collected texts relate to each other either directly or indirectly by referring to similar arguments whether reinforcing or criticising them and thus create a discourse When speaking of global secularity we therefore do not insinuate a uniform world secularity resulting from the alleged global diffusion of Western norms ideas and concepts It is rather a web of relations that is constituted via various different references These references are not evenly distributed the development in the West is often the point of reference to which positions from other regions relate to which they connect or from which they distance themselves But the references are not completely unidirectional We also present texts from Europe that underline the multidirectionality of the process even early on Thereby the volume offers the reader the material with which to trace these global exchanges and references Hope Deferred Peter Orner, Annie Holmes, 2015-10-01 The situation in Zimbabwe represents one of the worst humanitarian emergencies today This book asks the question How did a country with so much promise a stellar education system a growing middle class a sophisticated economic infrastructure a liberal constitution an independent judiciary and many of the trappings of Western democracy go so wrong In their own words Zimbabweans recount their experiences of losing their homes land livelihoods and families as a direct result of political violence They describe being tortured in detention firebombed at work or beaten up or raped to punish votes for the opposition Those forced to flee to neighboring countries recount their escapes cutting through fences swimming across crocodile infested rivers and entrusting themselves to human smugglers This book includes Zimbabweans of every age class and political conviction from farm laborers to academics doctors to artists opposition leaders to ordinary Zimbabweans men and women simply trying to survive as a once thriving nation heads for collapse International Handbook for Policy Research on School-Based Counseling John C. Transitional Justice in Africa Ruth Murambadoro,2020-06-25 This book provides insight on the effect of political violence and transitional justice in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe and comparing it to Rwanda Uganda and Mozambique The case of Zimbabwe is unique since political violence observed in some areas has manifested as contestations for power between members of various political parties These political contestations have infiltrated family clan structures at the community level and destroyed the human and social relations of people Also the author examines an understanding of how communities in the most polarized and conflict ridden areas in Africa are addressing their past The project would appeal to graduate students academics researchers and practitioners as it will help them to understand African justice systems and the complex network of relationships shaping justice processes during transitions Africans Have Sold Their Souls:
