The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy,Robert Cameron,Ursula Hoadley,Vinothan

Naidoo,2018-09-05 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning

Looking east looking west Bill Slee,Chen Tong,Bundit Anurugsa,Rainer Haas,Maurizio Canavari,2023-09-04 This book represents a unique collection of European and Asian perspectives on the production trade and consumption of high quality food The rapidly growing demand for organic and quality food in Europe imposes new challenges on competing food value chains Europe as the biggest worldwide food importer attracts many developing and developed countries in Asia Prospering Chinese and Thai food markets offer new opportunities for European operators Wealthy and informed consumers on both continents search for trustworthy high quality food products Farmers operators and retailers from distant cultures are coping with different standards facing the ever increasing necessity for mutual understanding This publication is the output of Bean Quorum a European funded Asia Link project Bean Quorum represents a consolidated network of researchers working together with the business sector and NGOs to enhance European Asian understanding about organic and quality food This book describes global trends in organic and quality food trade and connects them with recent developments in Asian and European market structures Selected case studies illustrate the impact of organic and quality food production on topics ranging from sustainable rural development to the potential of exotic new plant varieties to purchase decisions of European or Asian retail managers Selected European markets are mirrored by the situation in Chinese and Thai markets Finally environmental issues concerning global trade of quality food are addressed

Environment and Citizenship

Mark J. Smith, Doctor Piya Pangsapa, 2013-07-04 Citizenship and the environment are hotly debated as climate change places more responsibility on individuals and institutions in shaping policy Using new evidence and cases from across the globe Environment and Citizenship explores the new vocabulary of ecological citizenship and examines how successful environmental policy making depends on the responsible actions of citizens and civil society organizations as much as on governments and international treaties This accessible and thought provoking book provides a comprehensive and timely guide to the debates on environmental and ecological citizenship expertly combining examples of practice with theory examines how environmental movements have become increasingly involved in governance processes at the local national regional and intergovernmental levels explores the increasing importance of corporations and transnational networks through examples of stakeholding processes and participatory research in environmental decision making calls on researchers policy makers and activists to face a new challenge how to effectively link environmental justice with social justice Breaking new ground Smith and Pangsapa address how environmental responsibility operates through politics ethics culture and the everyday experiences of ctivists as well as how awareness of environmental and social injustice only leads to responsible actions and strategic change through civic engagement

Tourism and Tourism Spaces

Gareth Shaw, Allan M Williams, 2004-03-18 This is a critical introduction to the relations between tourism tourists and tourism spaces It fuses economic and cultural perspectives to explain how tourism is dependent on place and space while at the same time as defining those places and spaces Examining different levels of scale from local to global Tourism and Tourism Spaces is informed by the discussion of three key processes production and consumption of tourist spaces consumption and commodification of tourist experiences construction and reconstruction of tourist spaces Each chapter engages with different theoretical perspectives is illustrated with comparative examples and case studies uses tables boxes and figures throughout and concludes with a summary An integrated and systematic review of a range of theoretical positions that integrates economic and cultural Tourism and Tourism Spaces will be a key resource for students of geography sociology management studies hospitality studies and leisure studies Internationaal tijdschrift voor experimentele pedagogiek, 1996 Tourism and Development Richard Sharpley, David J. Telfer, 2015 This book explores the relationship between tourism and development and establishes a conceptual link between the interconnected disciplines of tourism studies and development studies This new edition includes updated chapters drawing on contemporary knowledge as well as 5 new chapters that consider emergent themes in tourism and development Sport Tourism Development Thomas Hinch, James E. S. Higham, 2004 In setting the foundation for this book the unique qualities of sport as a tourist attraction are presented and discussed theoretically It then addresses in six chapters central themes of sport tourism development

Human Rights and Development Peris Jones, 2023-07-25 The emergence of human rights within development and the evolving relationship was increasingly brought to bear upon key debates and policies over the last couple of decades This book provides a critically informed comprehensive and multi disciplinary entry level account of this engagement between human rights and development It is theoretically and practically grounded and explores three over arching questions and themes First why and how have human rights made this breakthrough Second is there agreement on human rights as a concept and how it is being used and understood within diverse development practices at global national and local levels Third how can we gauge the impact of human rights based approaches upon development outcomes The book concludes with what the future may hold for human rights and development In depth understanding of human rights as a development challenge and development as a human rights one is presented and delineates the diverse responses and alternative critical approaches Wide ranging in scope it covers many examples of human rights within development including global policy initiatives and vulnerable groups such as those living in poverty socially excluded people living with HIV AIDS residents of informal settlements and human rights defenders This textbook will be an essential resource for social science students particularly in the fields of development studies human rights and geography as well as those interested in the intersection between law human rights and social change It should also appeal to practitioners in development and human rights

ICTR 2021 4th International Conference on Tourism Research Prof Cândida Silva, Prof Mónica Oliveira, Prof Susana Silva, 2021-05-20 Conference Proceedings of 4th International Conference on Tourism Research A scholarly contribution to educational praxis M.A. Mokoena, J.M. (Ona) Janse van Rensburg, M. Erasmus, E. Mentz, C.B. Zulu, A. Cronje, E.K. Materechera, W.T. Dudu, A.T. Kanyimba, S.P. Raath, C. Kruger, A. Loubser, A.E. Pienaar, A. Klopper, S. Ellis, N.T. Petersen, J. de Beer, J. Varughese, A. Seugnet Blignaut, C. Els, 2016-12-31 This publication contains original research targeting scientific specialists in the field of education through research endeavours grounded on a philosophical basis as well as being embedded in the empirical The research methodology of each chapter emanates from applicable philosophical assumptions in the form of an applicable theoretical and conceptual framework The latter forms a firm basis for the application of sound

empiricism The content of this book adds to the body of scholarly knowledge in education In his evaluation of the book Acting Executive Dean Faculty of Education and Training Professor Akpovire Oduaran made the following remarks To a large extent the ideas put together in this book have come from data generated not just from literature found in books and journals but actual interactions with educators and the learning environment So then what the reader is offered in this volume is the articulation of ideas that have been interrogated structured and presented in surprisingly simplistic and yet incisive and academically enriching content that can match the standards of scholarship that is available in the Western World Yet what makes this book so welcome relevant and timely is the fact that it is built around Afrocentric theories and practices such as one may find in imported literature
