We Need To Talk About Kevin:

We Need To Talk About Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2010-07-09 WINNER OF THE WOMEN S PRIZE FOR FICTION 2010 ONE MILLION COPIES SOLD Eva never really wanted to be a mother certainly not the mother of a boy named Kevin who murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a teacher who had tried to befriend him Now two years after her son s horrific rampage Eva comes to terms with her role as Kevin s mother in a series of startlingly direct correspondences with her absent husband Franklyn about their son s upbringing Fearing that her own shortcomings may have shaped what her son has become she confesses to a deep long standing ambivalence about motherhood How much is her fault In Lionel Shriver s hands this sensational chilling and memorable story of a woman who raised a monster becomes a metaphor for the larger tragedy the tragedy of a country where everything works nobody starves and anything can be bought but a sense of purpose

We Need to Talk about Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2005 WINNER OF THE ORANGE PRIZE read more Interactive online message board now live visit here Reading group questions here but don t spoil the plot Read an extract Two years ago Eva Khatchadourian s son Kevin murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a popular algebra teacher Because he was only fifteen at the time of the killings he received a lenient sentence and is now in a prison for young offenders in upstate New York Telling the story of Kevin s upbringing Eva addresses herself to her estranged husband through a series of letters Fearing that her own shortcomings may have shaped what her son has become she confesses to a deep long standing ambivalence about both motherhood in general and Kevin in particular How much is her fault Lionel Shriver tells a compelling absorbing and resonant story while framing these horrifying tableaux of teenage carnage as metaphors for the larger tragedy the tragedy of a country where everything works nobody starves and anything can be bought but a sense of purpose

We Need to Talk About Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2011-05-01 The inspiration for the film starring Tilda Swinton and John C Reilly this resonant story of a mother s unsettling quest to understand her teenage son s deadly violence her own ambivalence toward motherhood and the explosive link between them remains terrifyingly prescient Eva never really wanted to be a mother And certainly not the mother of a boy who murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a much adored teacher in a school shooting two days before his sixteenth birthday Neither nature nor nurture exclusively shapes a child s character But Eva was always uneasy with the sacrifices and social demotion of motherhood Did her internalized dislike for her own son shape him into the killer he s become How much is her fault Now two years later it is time for her to come to terms with Kevin s horrific rampage all in a series of startlingly direct correspondences with her estranged husband Franklin A piercing unforgettable and penetrating exploration of violence and responsibility a book that the Boston Globe describes as impossible to put down is a stunning examination of how tragedy affects a town a marriage and a family

We Need to Talk About . . . Kevin Bridges Kevin Bridges, 2014-10-09 The comic autobiography of 2014 A comedian s autobiography I wonder if he s ever used humour to deflect from his insecurities To avoid being bullied Is there heartache behind the humour I wonder if he s a manic depressive Tears of a clown Yes all of that Discover the hilarious life story of one of Britain s best loved comedians in Kevin Bridges brilliant memoir First of all I have never written a book before you probably haven t either so there we have it a connection is established between reader and writer Aged just 17 Kevin Bridges walked on stage for the first time in a Glasgow comedy club and brought the house down He only had a five minute set but in that short time he discovered that he really could earn a living from making people laugh Kevin began life as a shy nerve ridden school boy whose weekly highlights included a cake bombing attack by the local youths Reaching his teens he followed his true calling as the class clown and was soon after arrested for kidnapping Hugh Grant from his local cinema on a quiet Saturday night This was a guy going somewhere off the rails seeming most likely Kevin s trademark social commentary sharp one liners and laugh out loud humour blend with his reflections on his Glaswegian childhood and the journey he s taken to become one of the most loved comedians of our time Hopefully now you ll take this over to the till and I can accompany you for the next wee while That s the benefit of book shops reading the little bit and then deciding if the author deserves to be part of your carefully selected 3 for 2 deal or part of your plane journey train journey your next bath your next shite Praise for Kevin Bridges The Best Scottish Stand up of his Generation The Scotsman A wonderfully dry and deadpan Glaswegian comic one the most exciting talents to have emerged from Scotland since Billy Connolly Guardian Kevin Bridges might just become the best stand up in the land he will go and deliver a one liner that you want to jot down and frame The Times Wonderfully sharp assured stand up from the preternaturally gifted young comic Independent

Rampage Violence Narratives Kathryn E. Linder, 2014-04-24 Springfield Columbine Sandy Hook Each school shooting in the United States is followed by a series of questions Why does this happen Who are the shooters

How can this be prevented Along with parents school officials media outlets and scholars popular culture has also attempted to respond to these questions through a variety of fictional portrayals of rampage violence Rampage Violence Narratives What Fictional Accounts of Rampage Violence Say about the Future of America s Youth offers a detailed look at the state of youth identity in American cultural representations of youth violence through an extended analysis of over forty primary sources of fictional narratives of urban and suburban rural school violence Representations of suburban and rural school shootings that are modeled after real life events serve to shape popular understandings of the relationship between education and American identity the liminal space between childhood and adulthood and the centrality of white heterosexual masculinity to definitions of social and political success in the United States Through a series of case studies that offer in depth examinations of fictional depictions of school shootings in film and literature it becomes clear that these stories are representative of a larger social narrative regarding the future of the United States The continuing struggle to understand youth violence is part of an ongoing conversation about what it means to raise future citizens within a cultural moment that views youth through a lens of anxiety rather than optimism

We Need to Talk about Kevin ,2012 An exquisitely realised adaptation of Lionel Shriver s international best seller We Need To Talk About Kevin is told through the eyes of Eva an anguished mother who struggles to connect with her son Kevin Eva puts her ambitions and career aside to have Kevin and their relationship is difficult from the very start When Kevin commits an unthinkable irredeemable act Eva grapples with her failings as a parent while attempting to build her life Was she at fault Did she resent her son from birth Equal parts thriller drama and tragedy We Need To Talk About Kevin was a critics and audience favourite at the 2011 Cannes Film Festival It brilliantly explores the ideas of nature versus nurture and unconditional love

Conflicts in Childhood Miriam Damrow,Helen Hearn,2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Childhood is not merely a simple developmental stage prior to adulthood but rather a complex changeable concept that is of interest and debated by international scholars from diverse disciplinary fields One emerging debate is the perceived conflicts in childhood Some of these are from adults representations of children for example in literature law and education to the practical and relational conflicts children experience at school and at home between peers siblings and others This volume presents a collection of these conflicts in childhood from interdisciplinary perspectives Consideration is given to children s rights and freedom childhood relationships gender children s representation in media and policies and politics about children

Embodied Encounters Agnieszka Piotrowska,2014-11-13 What is the role of the unconscious in our visceral approaches to cinema Embodied Encounters offers a unique collection of essays written by leading thinkers and writers in film studies with a guiding principle that embodied and material existence can and perhaps ought to also allow for the unconscious The contributors embrace work which has brought the body back into film theory and question why psychoanalysis has been excluded from more recent interrogations The chapters included here engage with Jung and Freud Lacan and Bion and Klein and Winnicott in their interrogations of contemporary cinema and the moving image In three parts the book presents examinations of both classic and contemporary films including Black Swan Zero Dark Thirty and The Dybbuk Part 1 The Desire the Body and the Unconscious Part 2 Psychoanalytical Theories and the Cinema Part 3 Reflections and Destructions Mirrors and Transgressions Embodied Encounters is an eclectic volume which presents in one book the voices of those who work with different psychoanalytical paradigms It will be essential reading for psychoanalysts and psychotherapists scholars and students of film and culture studies and film makers
