Representations of Endymion and Selene Anna Chiara Corradino, 2025-03-06 A focused study of an ancient myth and its reception which provokes new consideration of how myth in general can challenge social norms Analyzing the visual and literary transformations of the myth of Endymion and Selene Anna Chiara Corradino argues that this myth becomes a valuable tool for understanding the cultural problematization and censorship of female sexuality as well as the marginalization of alternative forms of male sexuality The myth's key themes of dominant femininity reified masculinity and female necrophilia are shaped through the centuries from the core story of Selene the goddess of the Moon falling in love with a mortal shepherd Endymion and granting him eternal sleep so she can kiss him every night In five core sections focusing on the archaeology of the myth in the ancient world the art of the Renaissance to Baroque periods and modern art and film Corradino traces the way the relationship between the two lovers embodies the taboo topic of the eroticization of the sleeping and or dead male body and the suppressed desire of female domination and dominance This research breaks new ground by displaying how these marginal desires have always challenged normativity and have had a profound impact on and through multiple receptions

INTERCORPSE: NECROPHILIA sexual attraction towards corpses including sexual intercourse RJ Parker, 2019-01-18 As morbid as it is to fathom for some it is easier to be intimate with a corpse than a live human being People with this sexual preference or necrophiliacs have admitted that the absence of emotion or social expectation or the ability to exert absolute control over a corpse has made sexual relations more satisfying Other necrophiliacs have admitted to many other reasons why they prefer to engage in sexual acts with the dead Intercorpse explores this paraphilia in detail It includes the categories of necrophilia motivations for this deviant sexual behaviour and several true accounts of individuals who are infamous necrophiliacs Serial killers like Gary Ridgway would often return to the dump sites of his victims to have sex with their decomposing bodies while they rolled in maggots Others like Edmund Kemper admitted to getting pleasure from further degrading his victims This book takes a fearless look at a most disturbing topic It will be of interest to those in criminal psychology sexual deviance and forensic psychology One Hundred Years of Canadian Cinema George Melnyk,2004-01-01 Melnyk argues passionately that Canadian cinema has never been a singular entity but has continued to speak in the languages and in the voices of Canada's diverse population Screen World 1998 John Willis,Barry Monush,1999-02-01 Covers American and foreign films released in the United States each year with listings of credits and profiles of screen personalities and award winners Speaking of Writing Ann Clayton,2017-08-24 SPEAKING OF WRITING is a collection of interviews conducted by Ann Clayton with Canadian novelists including Janice Kulyk Keefer Alice Boissonneau Joy Kogawa Aritha van Herk Stephen Henighan Jane Urquhart and Barbara Gowdy Tainted Love Darren Kerr,Donna Peberdy,2017-06-30 This is the first critical anthology to offer extended analysis of the representation of sexual perversion on screen Interrogating the recent shift towards the mainstream in the cinematic representation of previously marginalised sexual practices Tainted Love challenges the discourses and debates around sexual taboo moral panics degeneracy deviance and disease which present those who enact such sexualities as modern folk devils This timely collection brings together leading scholars who draw on a variety of critical approaches including adaptation performance cultural studies queer theory feminism and philosophy to examine screen representations of controversial sexualities from the weird and wonderful to the debased and debauched Chapters explore provocative performances of hysteria and sexual obsession everyday perversion in neoliberal culture the radical potential of sadomasochism adolescent sexuality in the films of Larry Clark intergenerational sex and incestuous relations in French cinema sexual obsession in gay cinema the straightness of necrophilia the presentation of the paedophile Swedish Erotica's good sex and re imagining the Marquis de Sade from film to slash fiction In order to move past binary distinctions of good and bad normal and abnormal moral and immoral Tainted Love seeks to critically interrogate perverse sexualities and sexual perversion on screen Short Fiction Mark Levene,Rosemary Sullivan,2003 Short Fiction An Anthology is a collection of 80 short stories and 2 novellas It offers a wide variety of selections from the mid 19th century to the present and includes a number of works by young and rarely anthologised authors The stories are arranged chronologically according to the date of birth of the author The introductory essay closely critiques two short stories Chekhov's The Lady with the Pet Dog from the 19th century and Carver's post World War Two story about Chekhov Errand The introduction enables the editors to demonstrate methods of critical approaches to short fiction and literature in general thereby helping students to develop their own critical abilities
