Website Review Reconsidering Facebook English Edition:

Sraffa and Althusser Reconsidered Paul Zarembka, 2014-10-31 This volume examines the recent advance of neoliberalism. It focuses on three current instances of neoliberalism from around the world as well as providing an in-depth study of Sraffa's works, a critique of Althusser's interpretation of Marxist philosophy, and a discussion of labor aristocracy.

Rethinking Informed Consent in the Big Data Age Adam J. Andreotta, 2024-12-23 In the big data age, providing informed consent online has never been more challenging. Countless companies collect and share our personal data through devices, apps, and websites, fuelling a growing data economy and the emergence of surveillance capitalism. Few of us have the time to read the associated privacy policies and terms and conditions, and thus are often unaware of how our personal data are being used. This is a problem as in the last few years, large tech companies have abused our personal data. As privacy self-management through the mechanism of providing online consent has become increasingly difficult, some have argued that surveillance capitalism and the data economy more broadly need to be overthrown. This book presents a different perspective. It departs from the concept of revolutionary change to focus on pragmatic incremental solutions tailored to everyday contexts. It scrutinises how consent is currently sought and provided online and offers suggestions about how online consent practices can be improved upon. These include the possibility of subjecting consent gathering practices to ethics committees for review, the creation of visual-based consent agreements and privacy policies to help with transparency and engagement, the development of software to protect privacy, and the idea of automated consent functionalities that allow users to bypass the task of reading vast amounts of online consent agreements. The author suggests that these small-scale changes to online consent obtaining procedures could, if successfully implemented, provide us with a way of self-managing our privacy in a way that avoids a revolutionary dismantling of the data economy. In the process, readers are encouraged to rethink the very purpose of providing informed consent online. Rethinking Informed Consent in the Big Data Age will appeal to researchers in normative ethics, applied ethics, philosophy of law, and the philosophy of AI. It will also be of interest to business scholars, communication researchers, students, and those in industry.

Rethinking Advertising Kathleen M. Vandenberg, Mariah Tinger, 2025-08-18 With more mediums than ever across which to advertise, businesses are facing increasing marketing costs even as customers continue to turn toward services offering ad-free entertainment. These changes mean the advertising ecosystem is undergoing dramatic alterations, with massive online companies like Facebook and Google capturing a majority of advertising dollars and smaller advertising agencies failing. Against this rapidly shifting backdrop, this edited volume showcases current academic perspectives and research cases on advertising from scholars representing a wide range of disciplines. The contributions in this book create a comprehensive overview of the current state of advertising across many media while highlighting conversations concerning the ethics of advertising and the most effective ways to advertise. Interdisciplinary by nature, this book includes perspectives from academics in marketing, communications, law, rhetoric, and business It will be of great interest to scholars and students seeking a thought provoking debate Rethink Yourself Zach Leezer,2025-01-21 Counselor s Choice Award winner 2025 Dramatically improve your self esteem by changing unhelpful thinking patterns Rethink Yourself offers a fresh perspective on building self esteem by speaking to the mind not the heart The cause of low self esteem isn t personal deficiencies even if it feels that way low self esteem is a direct result of unfair and unkind self talk To improve your self esteem you don t need to change yourself you just need to change the way you think about yourself And no that doesn t involve lying to yourself it means ensuring your beliefs about yourself are fair and accurate rather than warped by harsh self criticism Authoritative and insightful Rethink Yourself is an innovative step by step guide using methods rooted in Cognitive Behavioral Therapy CBT and Dialectical Behavioral Therapy DBT Featuring interactive activities Rethink Yourself is essential reading for anyone struggling with relentless self criticism This book will help you give yourself the credit you deserve without being arrogant learn how to work with your inner critic rather than against it know and honor your innate worth uncover positive traits you didn t even realize you had take your mistakes in stride evaluate your personal qualities fairly and accurately communicate with confidence and so much more Building your self esteem isn t about feeling inspired to somehow uncover your hidden confidence and it s certainly more nuanced than just looking in the mirror and telling yourself you re awesome It s about changing those deeply held beliefs about yourself that keep you from accepting yourself as you are Are you ready to finally start feeling good about yourself Revisiting the Past in Museums and at Historic Sites Anca I. Lasc,Andrew McClellan,Änne Söll,2021-11-01 Revisiting the Past in Museums and at Historic Sites demonstrates that museums and historic spaces are increasingly becoming backdrops for all sorts of appropriations and interventions that throw new light upon the objects they comprise and the pasts they reference Rooted in new scholarship that expands established notions of art installations museums period rooms and historic sites the book brings together contributions from scholars from intersecting disciplines Arguing that we are witnessing a paradigm shift concerning the place of historic spaces and museums in the contemporary imaginary the volume shows that such institutions are merging traditional scholarly activities tied to historical representation and inquiry with novel modes of display and interpretation drawing them closer to the world of entertainment and interactive consumption Case studies analyze how a range of interventions impact historic spaces and conceptions of the past they generate The book concludes that museums and historic sites are reinventing themselves in order to remain meaningful and to play a role in societies aspiring to be more inclusive and open to historical and cultural debate Revisiting the Past in Museums and at Historic Sites will be of interest to students and faculty who are engaged in the study of museums art history architectural and design history social and cultural history interior design visual culture and material culture Rethinking Social Media and Extremism Shirley Leitch,Paul Pickering,2022-06-28 Terrorism global pandemics climate change wars and all the major threats of our age have been targets of online extremism The same social media occupying the heartland of our social world leaves us vulnerable to cybercrime electoral fraud and the fake news fuelling the rise of far right violence and hate speech In the face of widespread calls for action governments struggle to reform legal and regulatory frameworks designed for an analogue age And what of our rights as citizens As politicians and lawyers run to catch up to the future as it disappears over the horizon who guarantees our right to free speech to free and fair elections to play video games to surf the Net to believe fake news Rethinking Social Media and Extremism offers a broad range of perspectives on violent extremism online and how to stop it As one major crisis follows another and a global pandemic accelerates our turn to digital technologies attending to the issues raised in this book becomes ever more urgent

The Crisis of Journalism Reconsidered Jeffrey C. Alexander, Elizabeth Butler Breese, Maria Luengo, 2016-06-20 This collection of original essays interrogates the crisis of journalism narrative from a dramatically different perspective

Rethinking Stress in an Age of Ease William J. Elenchin, 2019-02-27 Stress is a concept that has become both increasingly popularized and misunderstood in society Today we often think about how stressed we are many on a daily basis This is especially interesting when we consider that as life has become easier at least from a materialistic standpoint rates of depression and anxiety in our culture have risen It is true that living with too many demands in life can be harmful to our physical and emotional health But it is equally true that when we believe difficult circumstances are an unnatural part of life we only set ourselves up for increased fear and sorrow Hans Selye the scientist who discovered how stress operates in the mind and body nearly a century ago never intended for it morph into the now common idea that all stress is bad for us Yet that is precisely what has occurred driven by three particular social changes in the last half century This little guide is a back to the basics kind of field manual written for students but is generally for all ages By rethinking the proper role that stress plays in our lives we will be better positioned not only to deal with life's challenges but to embrace all seasons as a part of our journey while on earth

Rethinking Reference for Academic Libraries Carrie Forbes, Jennifer Bowers, 2014-12-05 The rapid development of the Web and Web based technologies has led to an ongoing redefinition of reference services in academic libraries A growing diversity of users and the need and possibility for collaboration in delivering reference services bring additional pressures for change At the same time there are growing demands for libraries to show accountability and service value All of these trends have impacted the field and will continue to shape reference and research services And they have led to a need for increasingly specialized professional competencies and a literature to support them In order to reimagine reference service for twenty first century learning environments practitioners will need to understand several focal areas of emerging reference In particular collaboration with campus partners diverse student populations technological innovations the need for assessment and new professional competencies present new challenges and opportunities for creating a twenty first century learning environment Librarians must not only understand but also embrace these emerging reference practices This edited volume containing five sections and fourteen chapters reviews the current state of reference services in academic libraries with an emphasis on innovative developments and future trends The main theme that runs through the book is the urgent need for inventive imaginative and responsive reference and research services Through literature reviews and case studies this book provides professionals with a convenient compilation of timely issues and models at comparable institutions As academic libraries shift from functioning primarily as collections repositories to serving as key players in discovery and knowledge creation value added services such as reference are even more central to libraries and universities changing missions

Rethinking Smart Cities Zaheer Allam,Yusra Raisah Takun,2022-12-06 This innovative book explores the foundations of the smart city and through a critique of its challenges and concerns showcases how to redefine the concept for increased sustainability liveability and resilience in urban areas It undertakes a review of the smart city concept providing a new perspective on how technology based urban solutions must be centred around human dimensions to render more liveable urban fabrics

Rethinking Youth Citizenship After the Age of Entitlement Lucas Walsh,Rosalyn Black,2018-03-22 Rethinking Youth Citizenship After the Age of Entitlement provides a primer for exploring hard questions about how young people understand experience and enact their citizenship in uncertain times and about their senses of membership and belonging It examines how familiar modes of exclusion are compounded by punitive youth policies in ways that are concealed by neoliberal discourses It considers the role of key institutions in constructing young people s citizenship and looks at the ways in which some young people are opting out of established enactments of citizenship while creating new ones Critically reflecting on recent scholarly interest in the geographical relational affective and temporal dimensions of young people s experiences of citizenship it also reinvigorates the discussion about citizenship rights and entitlements and what these might mean for young people The book draws on global research and theories of citizenship but has a particular focus on Australia which provides a unique example of a country that has fared well economically yet is mimicking the austerity measures of the United Kingdom and Europe It concludes with an argument for a rethinking of citizenship which recognises young people s rights as citizens and the ways in which these interact with their lived experience at a time that has been characterised as the end of the age of entitlement

Rethinking the American Environmental Movement post-1945 Ellen Spears,2019-06-28 Rethinking the American Environmental Movement post 1945 turns a fresh interpretive lens on the past drawing on a wide range of new histories of environmental activism to analyze the actions of those who created the movement and those who tried to thwart them Concentrating on the decades since World War II environmental historian Ellen Griffith Spears explores environmentalism as a field of movements rooted in broader social justice activism Noting major legislative accomplishments strengths and contributions as well as the divisions within the ranks the book reveals how new scientific developments the nuclear threat and pollution as well as changes in urban living spurred activism among diverse populations The book outlines the key precursors events participants and strategies of the environmental movement and contextualizes the story in the dramatic trajectory of U S history after World War II The result is a synthesis of American environmental politics that one reader called both ambitious in its scope and concise in its presentation This book provides a succinct overview of the American environmental movement and is the perfect introduction for students or scholars seeking to understand one of the largest social movements of the twentieth century up through the robust climate movement of today Rethinking Feminist Phenomenology Sara Cohen Shabot,Christinia Landry,2018-10-05 Although feminist phenomenology is traditionally rooted in philosophy the issues with which it engages sit at the margins of philosophy and a number of other disciplines within the humanities and social sciences This interdisciplinarity is emphasised in the present collection Rethinking Feminist Phenomenology focuses on emerging trends in feminist phenomenology from a range of both established and new scholars It covers foundational feminist issues in phenomenology feminist phenomenological methods and applied phenomenological work in politics ethics and on the body The book is divided into three parts starting with new methodological approaches to feminist phenomenology and moving on to address popular discourses in feminist phenomenology that explore ethical and political embodied and performative perspectives Rethinking the New Technology of Journalism Seong Jae Min,2021-03-15 News organizations have always sought to deliver information faster and to larger audiences But when clicks drive journalism the result is often simplistic sensational and error ridden reporting In this book Seong Jae Min argues in favor of slow journalism a growing movement that aims to produce more considered deliberate reporting that better serves the interests of democracy Min explores the role of technology in journalism from the printing press to artificial intelligence documenting the hype and hope associated with each new breakthrough as well as the sometimes disappointing and even damaging unintended consequences His analysis cuts through the discussion of clickbait headlines and social media clout chasing to identify technological bells and whistles as the core problem with journalism today At its heart Min maintains traditional shoe leather reporting knocking on doors talking to people careful observation and analysis is still the best way for journalism to serve its civic purpose Thoughtful and engaging Rethinking the New Technology of Journalism is a compelling call for news gathering to return to its roots Reporters those studying and teaching journalism and avid consumers of the media will be interested in this book Rethinking Adult Career Development Laura L. Bierema,2024-07-05 Rethinking Adult Career Development explores the challenges transitions learning and change adults experience as they navigate careers across their lifetimes It considers what happens when adults realise they have chosen the wrong career lose their jobs experience injustice and discrimination or are forced to make career shifts for which they are underprepared News Media Innovation Reconsidered Maria Luengo,Susana Herrera-Damas,2021-07-05 A guide to journalistic ethics for today s digital technologies With contributions from an international panel of experts on the topic News Media Innovation Reconsidered offers a guide for the revitalizing of the ethical and civil ideals of journalism The authors discuss how to energize journalistic practices and products and explore how to harness the power of digital technological innovations such as immersive journalism the automatization and personalization of news newsgames and artificial intelligence news production The book presents an innovative framework of creative reconstruction and reviews new journalistic concepts models initiatives and practices that clearly demonstrate professional ethics that embrace truth seeking transparency fact checking and accuracy and other ethical considerations While the contributors represent numerous countries many of examples are drawn from the Spanish speaking media and can serve as models for an international audience This important book Explores the impact on the news media from mobile first virtual reality and artificial intelligence driven platforms Examines the challenges of maintaining journalistic ethics in today s digital world Demonstrates how to use technology to expose readers to news outside their comfort zones Provides information for discerning truth from fake news Written for researchers students in journalism and communication programs New Media Innovation Reconsidered offers a much needed guide for recreating journalistic ethics in our digital age Rethinking Strategy for Creative Industries Milan Todorovic,with Ali Bakir,2016-03-02 Creative Industry practices are increasingly manifested through hybrid models and methods and emerging sub sectors With ever finer dividing lines between form and content product and service participation and consumption the distinctions between sectors are increasingly blurred while new convergent models emerge Reflecting this fluid context this book provides a new perspective on strategy in the Creative Industries Based on extensive original research and live empirical data derived from case studies interviews and observations with creative managers it reveals strategic decision making by analysing business manoeuvres and stages of innovation in the Creative Industries Through analysing the interactive features of aesthetically driven information assets and how new user consumer cultures are applied it uncovers the principles that are transforming strategy in the Creative Industries This innovative volume will be of significant interest to scholars advanced students and practitioners in the Creative Industries as well as well as industry consultancies and practitioners Rethinking Information Work G. Kim Dority,2016-02-22 A state of the art guide to the world of library and information science that gives readers valuable insights into the field and practical tools to succeed in it As the field of information science continues to evolve professional level opportunities in traditional librarianship especially in school and public libraries have stalled and contracted while at the same time information related opportunities in non library settings continue to expand These two coinciding trends are opening up many new job opportunities for LIS professionals but the challenge lies in helping them and LIS students understand how to align their skills and mindsets with these new opportunities The new edition of G Kim Dority s Rethinking Information Work A Career Guide for Librarians and Other Information Professionals gives readers helpful information on self development including learning to thrive on change using key career skills like professional networking and brand building and how to make wise professional choices Taking readers through a planning process that starts with self examination and ends in creating an actionable career path the book presents an expansive approach that considers all LIS career possibilities and introduces readers to new opportunities This guide is appropriate for those embarking on careers in library and information science as well as those looking to make a change providing career design strategies that can be used to build a lifetime of career opportunity

Rethinking Ethos Kathleen J. Ryan, Nancy Myers, Rebecca Jones, 2016-06-03 Labels traditionally ascribed to women mother angel of the house whore or bitch suggest character traits that do not encompass the complexities of women's identities or empower women's public speaking Rethinking Ethos A Feminist Ecological Approach to Rhetoric redefines the concept of ethos classically thought of as character or credibility as ecological and feminist negotiated and renegotiated and implicated in shifting power dynamics Building on previous feminist and rhetorical scholarship this essay collection presents a sustained discussion of the unique methods by which women's ethos is constructed and transformed Editors Kathleen J. Ryan Nancy Myers and Rebecca Jones identify three rhetorical maneuvers that characterize ethos in the feminist ecological imaginary ethe as interruption interrupting ethe as advocacy advocating and ethe as relation relating Each section of the book explores one of these rhetorical maneuvers An afterword gathers contributors' thoughts on the collection's potential impact and influence possibilities for future scholarship and the future of feminist rhetorical studies With its rich mix of historical examples and contemporary case studies Rethinking Ethos offers a range of new perspectives including queer theory transnational approaches radical feminism Chicana feminism and indigenous points of view from which to consider a feminist approach to ethos

Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe C.J.J. Moses, Tobias Müller, Adela Taleb, 2022-09-05 The role of Islam in public spaces is one of the most prevalent political questions in Europe Contestations around the construction of mosques the ban of Islamic veils and populist rhetoric about problematic neighbourhoods indicate Europe's struggles with the place of its second largest religion This book advocates for an analytical turn in the study of Islam in Europe using space as a central conceptual lens While spatial approaches are gaining traction in the study of religion migration ethnicity race and politics the chapters in this book argue that the critical potential of a spatialised analysis in the field of Islam in Europe remains largely unexplored This volume presents a collection of nine empirical studies that offer insights into how scholars might exploit the category of space when analysing both current political issues and broader conceptual questions in the social sciences And more specifically how does a spatial perspective on Islam contribute to a deeper understanding of the formations of the state ethnicity race secularism gender and colonial structures Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe is a significant new contribution to racial and ethnic studies in Europe and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Politics Sociology Social and Political Geography Anthropology and Religious Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a 2021 special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies
